The Condition of Education in Rural Schools Joyce D. Stern, 1994 This report focuses on the status of rural education and is intended to provide information to education researchers policymakers at the federal and state levels as well as others concerned about issues in rural education Specifically the goal is to increase federal policymakers attention to rural education problems promote improvements in rural schools and stimulate further research on rural education This report documents how rural conditions are sufficiently different from urban ones to warrant being examined independently and it endorses the hypothesis that a single set of public policies may not adequately address educational issues in rural versus urban settings National data mainly from surveys by the National Center for Education Statistics are synthesized covering the following topics 1 economic and demographic context of rural education 2 location and characteristics of rural schools and school districts 3 relationship between the rural school and its community 4 policies and programs benefiting rural education 5 profiles of educators in rural schools 6 effects of education reform in rural schools 7 public school finance policies and practices affecting rural schools 8 assessment of student performance in rural schools 9 education and work experiences of rural youth and 10 the future of rural education The report contains numerous data tables and a section describing statistical data sources and methodology LP

Educational Administration Judith Chapman, 2020-08-04 Both the theory and practice of educational administration have undergone major changes in recent years There is now more theoretical diversity in the field than at any other time with influences from traditional and post positivist science subjectivism ethics critical theory and cultural studies Similarly social political and economic factors have brought about new approaches to practice Schools administration in particular is increasingly being dominated by decentralization and pressures for accountability on curriculum and educational outcomes Educational Administration is the first Australian text to offer a comprehensive survey of theory context and practice It includes chapters from leading Australian scholars such as Richard Bates Hedley Beare Brian Caldwell Gabriele Lakowski and Fazal Rizvi Leading the Self-Managing School Brian Caldwell, 1992 This work is a sequel to The Self Managing School and deals with leadership responsibilities on two levels as head of a school responsible for local management and as a director in a Local Education Authority responsible in turn for the The Political Economy of Education in South Asia John Richards, Manzoor Ahmed, Shahidul Islam, 2021-12-17 With the exception of Sri Lanka South Asian countries have not achieved quality basic education an essential measure for escaping poverty inequality and social exclusion In The Political Economy of Education in South Asia John Richards Manzoor Ahmed and Shahidul Islam emphasize the importance of a dynamic system for education policy The Political Economy of Education in South Asia documents the weak core competency reading and math outcomes in government primary schools in India Pakistan Bangladesh and Nepal and the consequent rapid growth of non government schools over the last two decades It compares the training hiring and management of teachers in South Asian schools to successful national systems ranging from Singapore to Finland Discussing reform options it makes the case public good and public priorities are better served when both public and non government providers come under a strong public policy and accountability framework The Political Economy of Education in South Asia draws on the authors broad engagement in education research and practice in South Asia as well as analysis by prominent professors of education and NGO leaders to place basic education in a broad context and make the case that universal literacy and numeracy are necessary foundations for economic growth International Encyclopedia of Education, 2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequaled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files
