Pacific Affairs ,1968 Includes book reviews and bibliographies Education, Inclusion, Pluralism and United Nations Sustainable Development Goals Sher Rahmat Khan,2024-12-23 This book offers a compelling analysis of education s promise to achieve inclusive pluralistic and sustainable societies These globally shared challenges are examined through a detailed analysis of the cultural politics of education in postcolonial Pakistan The analysis provides a window into the ways that the intergenerational traumas of colonialism neocolonialism globalisation and forms of extremism continue to present significant challenges for postcolonial Pakistan Drawing on postcolonial theories and curriculum theory the author develops a critical discourse analysis of the cultural politics that shapes education in Pakistan The analysis identifies key elements of this cultural politics such as religious and cultural dynamics geopolitical challenges the need to promote unity and cohesion employing history for nation building and gender relations and the ways in which these elements intersect to shape the possibilities of delivering on the promise of inclusion pluralism and sustainable development Language Conflict and National Development Jyotirindra Das Gupta,2024-06-12 This is the first systematic study of language conflict in a developing society and of its consequences for the integrational processes of nation building Jyotirindra Das Gupta maintains that language rivalry does not necessarily impede national integration but can actually contribute to the development of a national community He explains that the existence of a multiplicity of language groups in a segmented society is not in itself indicative of the prospects for successful integration Only when language groups mobilize into political interest groups is it possible to determine the pattern of intergroup conflict likely to emerge The way in which this conflict is handled and resolved depends upon the general political atmosphere and upon the type of institutions available for decision making In the specific case of India the author finds that because the Indian government has proved capable of meeting the demands of diverse language interests it is supported by the Indian population as a whole for its role in mediating language rivalries This book therefore offers evidence for the efficacy of democratic procedures for political development and integration In the course of his analysis Das Gupta discusses the impact of Indian language associations on national politics and on the political community in general the formulation and implementation of a national language policy and the language policies of nationalist and of separatist groups both before and since Independence In order to place the Indian experience in a wider context he provides comparative empirical data from other countries This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1970 Dialogue on Partition Syrrina Ahsan Ali Haque, 2021-03-04 Dialogue on Partition explores dialogic possibilities in Indo Pak English novels on partition of India in 1947 and expounds upon the potential of art and literature to offer dialogue The book locates the inherent individualities of voices of narrators characters and writers of these novels as promulgators of dialogue in the face of the contentious event of partition and post partition conflict The book shows how the authors of these novels objectify their religious stance and present a regional affiliation attributed to a shared existence in the subcontinent while locating and dissecting shared symbols regional fraternity sufi and mystic eclectic and diversity of heteroglot and polyphonic voices in the chronotopical space and time of partition The objective of the book is to critique the role of Indo Pak novels in propagating dialogue thereby proposing ways of reducing fissures implanted in the psycho social terrain of the inhabitants of the region by offering junctures within the literary domain Thus the book expounds upon how these novels may be perceived as tools of integration between sects races and nations at large It can aid in opening borders to shared art and literature which inherently engenders response and dialogue leading to possibilities of coalition and integration Non-Muslims in Muslim Majority Societies Kajsa Ahlstrand, Goran Gunner, 2011-09-29 In a world where almost all societies are multi religious and multi ethnic we need to study how social cohesion can be achieved in different contexts In some geographical areas as in the Middle East and the Indian subcontinent people of different religious belonging have through the ages lived side by side sometimes in harmony and sometimes in dissonance In other geographical regions as in Scandinavia societies have been quite religiously homogeneous but only recently challenged by immigration In both locations the relations between religious minority and majority are very much on the agenda In order to discuss the situation for non Muslims in Muslim majority societies a consultation was convened with both Muslim and Christian participants from Pakistan Palestine Lebanon and Sweden Some of the participants work in academic settings others in faith based organisations some in jurisprudence and others with theological issues Non Muslims in Muslim Majority Societies is the result of that consultation The intention of the book is to trigger reflection and further thinking through papers that discuss issues such as freedom of religion minority rights secular and religious legislation and inter religious dialogue in Muslim majority societies Although the articles are presented as works in progress and remain tentative in many of their conclusions this book is an important contribution to the global debate over religious tolerance and religious pluralism Hindi Cinema and Pakistan Meenakshi

Bharat, 2024-10-03 Ever since the 1947 partition of the Indian subcontinent Mumbai based Hindi cinema has been returning compulsively to the idea of Pakistan sometimes as the desirable other sometimes as the horrifying antagonist Hindi Cinema and Pakistan traces the genesis and development of this theme in Hindi cinema in the 1950s showcasing its relevance as a tool that both reflects and shapes how India sees its neighbour the India Pakistan relationship and itself The book is a serious multi platform multi pronged exploration of the appearances invocations representations and treatment of Pakistan and Pakistanis in Hindi cinema It follows Hindi cinema s efforts to come to terms with the idea and reality of Pakistan Through in depth analyses of the enmity and rivalry between the two subcontinental nations in Partition films thrillers epic war films and sports films to screen depictions of the shared cultural past and similarities in films on cross border love or in films that show a reaching out through humour this book investigates the visualization of Pakistan and contextualizes these representations within the broader frameworks of India s political socio cultural and popular discourse The extensive reach of the in depth textual analyses of Hindi cinema will make this volume interesting and valuable both to the lay reader and to researchers and academics of cultural studies media and film studies and the study of socio psychological violence in media and culture
