My Son My Son A Guide To Healing After Death Loss Or Suicide:

My Son-- My Son-- Iris Bolton, Curtis Mitchell, 1983 A guide to healing after death loss or suicide You Are Not Alone Ken Duckworth, 2022-09-20 Written with authority and compassion this comprehensive guide is for those with mental health conditions and the friends and families who love them Centering the lived experiences of real individuals You Are Not Alone covers everything you need to know about your journey from diagnosis to treatment to recovery and being there for someone who is struggling Millions of people are affected by mental illness every year in the United States The Covid 19 pandemic not only caused new or aggravated symptoms in people but further exposed the shortcomings of the American mental health system Despite advances in telehealth the healthcare industry remains chaotic underfunded and often inaccessible and many people are asking themselves the same questions What does it mean when different doctors give me different diagnoses What if my insurance company won't cover my treatment Will I have to be on medication for my whole life Will I ever feel better Too many of us are confused afraid and overwhelmed Families and friends are often left in the dark about how best to help their loved ones how to deal with financial and logistical issues and how to handle the emotional challenges of loving someone who is suffering You Are Not Alone is here to offer help Written by Dr Ken Duckworth with the wisdom and intimate knowledge of an expert psychiatrist and the understanding and vulnerability of a peer this essential guide provides Practical guidance on dealing with mental health conditions and navigating care Research based evidence on what treatments and approaches work Insight and advice from renowned clinical experts and practitioners Relatable first person stories that articulate what the facts do not This is the first and only book fully supported by the National Alliance on Mental Illness America's largest grassroots organization helping people with mental illness and their families build better lives Furthermore all book proceeds will go back to supporting NAMI's mission This singular resource is a powerful reminder that help is here and we are not alone Teen and Young Adult Suicide United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions. Subcommittee on Children and Families, 2002 Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park, 2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God's grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God

This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals Welcoming Children with Special Needs Sally Patton,2004 Touched by Suicide Michael F. Myers,Carla Fine,2006-09-07 Whether you are struggling with fresh grief at a loved one s death by suicide or your loss happened years ago you should know that you are not alone 5 million Americans are affected directly or indirectly by this tragedy each year And it sends us on a lifelong search for answers both to the practical questions and the deepest question of all Why In this definitive guide book Michael F Myers MD a leading psychiatrist and Carla Fine author of the acclaimed No Time to Say Goodbye Surviving the Suicide of a Loved One combine their perspectives as a physician and a survivor to offer compassionate and practical advice to anyone affected by suicide I'll Write Your Name on Every Beach Susan Auerbach,2017-07-21 Describing the loss of her son to suicide a mother reflects on the grieving process and offers therapeutic techniques to help readers process their own bereavement Written in real time and organised thematically it authentically chronicles the experiences of grief making this book a lifeline for anyone suffering a loss from suicide A Long-Shadowed Grief Harold Ivan Smith,2007-01-25 In the aftermath of suicide friends and family face a long road of grief and reflection With a sympathetic eye and a firm hand Harold Ivan Smith searches for the place of the spirit in the wake of suicide He asks how one may live a spiritual life as a survivor and he addresses the way faith is permanently altered by the residue of stigma that attaches to suicide The Complete Guide to Crisis & Trauma Counseling H. Norman Wright,2011-12-14 Many pastors and lay counselors have had minimal training in clinical methods of grief and trauma counseling The Complete Guide to Crisis and Trauma Counseling is a biblical practical guide to pastoral counseling written by one of the most respected Christian therapists of our time Dr H Norman Wright brings more than 40 years of clinical and classroom experience to this topic and shares real life dialogs from his decades in private practice to demonstrate healthy healing counseling sessions Readers will learn how to counsel and coach both believers and non believers who are in crisis how to walk alongside them through the hours weeks and months following their trauma and how to help them find the path to complete restoration Life Span Perspectives of Suicide A.A. Leenaars,2013-06-29 In recent years a great deal of interest has been focused on suicide in the elderly and in the young However in line with modem trends in psychology sociology psychiatry anthropology and other human health fields interest has now shifted to suicide across the life span from childhood through adulthood to old age This book has been conceptualized within this developing tradition There are various ways in which life s timelines can be conceptualized Developmental theory we believe should be open ended This has widened and will continue to widen our understanding of many complicated human acts including suicide Though suicide is in many ways the same across the entire life span understanding the time lines in the suicidal process is imperative To do so however is we believe challenging In this volume we attempt to engage in the process of understanding suicide from a developmental perspective To do this we have been fortunate to obtain the cooperation of a highly competent group of contributors One interesting footnote to our list of authorities is that they represent suicidologists from across the life span a few who are at the beginning of their careers a large number in their middle years and a few who are in the Indian summer of their professional lives
