Natural Enemy A Homer Kelly Mystery:

Natural Enemy Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 The award winning author's rare gift of genius is on display as her scholar sleuth investigates a suspicious death from asthma and yellow jackets St Louis Post Dispatch John Hand visits the Heron house looking for a summer job What he finds is a family in mourning A few minutes after he is hired by Mrs Heron and her daughter Virginia a neighbor Buddy finds Mr Heron lying dead in the orchard choked to death by asthma and bee stings As Buddy comforts the grieving family John feels out of place But as he begins to suspect that Buddy knows more about Mr Heron's death than he's letting on he goes to the only person who can help his uncle Professor Homer Kelly After years teaching students about Thoreau's famous sojourn at nearby Walden Pond the famed transcendentalist scholar feels his memory beginning to slip But nothing sharpens the mind better than murder and Homer's nephew has stumbled on a fine one

Good and Dead Jane Langton, 2012-04-17 The scholar sleuth investigates a series of deaths in a church congregation in an agreeably malevolent mystery that comes to a spirited conclusion Publishers Weekly The Baptists of Nashoba are healthy So are the Quakers Lutherans and Methodists Every religious sect in this small New England town is in ruddy good health save for the congregation at the Old West Church whose members are dying like flies As a rash of heart failure claims victim after victim what first seemed like tragic coincidence begins to look a lot like murder And in the small hamlets of Massachusetts there is no better authority on bloodshed than Homer Kelly A transcendentalist scholar who dabbles in the unraveling of violent crimes Homer is just a township away when the plague of heart failure strikes Nashoba As he attempts to separate natural deaths from the unnatural Homer sees that beneath the piety of Old West Church lurks at least one parishioner who missed Sunday school the day they explained that thou shalt not kill

Murder at the Gardner Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 Langton brings back the Golden Age Murder with style wit and charm as scholar sleuth Homer Kelly finds Boston's famous museum has become a crime scene Tony Hillerman There are frogs in the pond at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum A balloon has been tied to one of the sculptures in the small museum's hallowed halls And worst of all someone has moved paintings while no one was looking At most museums these pranks would be an annoyance but at the Gardner whose founder stipulated that the museum be disbanded if the original collection is ever disturbed they could spell disaster The Gardner's board hires Harvard professor and former police lieutenant Homer Kelly to investigate the mischief Hardly an art lover Kelly has trouble taking the threat seriously at first But when a museum patron is found dead after catching the prankster in the act Homer springs into action He may know nothing about art but murder is something he understands all too well

Emily Dickinson Is Dead Jane Langton, 2012-04-17 Edgar Award Finalist Murder strikes the Massachusetts hometown of a literary icon and a scholarly sleuth investigates in a remarkable mystery series Booklist Although she spent her life withdrawn from the people of Amherst Massachusetts every man woman and English professor in this small university town claims ownership of poet Emily Dickinson They give tours in her house lay flowers on her grave and now as the hundredth anniversary of her death approaches they organize festivals in her name Dickinson scholar Owen Kraznik has just been railroaded into organizing the festival when Amherst starts to burn As the fire consumes a fourteen story university dormitory transcendentalist scholar and occasional sleuth Homer Kelly considers that it may have been set on purpose Two students die in the blaze but neither was the arsonist's target Emily Dickinson wrote countless poems on the nature of mortality but before Amherst can celebrate her words death will leap off the page

Murder at Monticello Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 When Thomas Jefferson's Virginia home becomes a crime scene scholar sleuth Homer Kelly must stop a serial killer in this surefire winner Booklist starred review Thomas Jefferson is in trouble Two centuries after he became America's third President the nation's historians have ganged up on him intent on shattering the reputation of a man they once idolized It's Fern Fisher's job to set the record straight A hotshot young historian she has been hired by the people at Monticello to repair Jefferson's tattered reputation If she isn't careful she could get her throat slit for her troubles In the run up to the celebration of Jefferson's bicentennial a killer prowls the area around the President's historic home brutally murdering any young women he can find Harvard professor and casual sleuth Homer Kelly is in Monticello for the festivities and is eager to reconnect with Fern a former student While Fern fights Jefferson's character assassination Homer tries to keep her safe from murder of a more literal kind

The Shortest Day Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 Prompted by his wife Mary Harvard scholar sleuth Homer Kelly looks into the suspicious death of a folk singer in this enormously appealing mystery Publishers Weekly Each year the beautiful Sarah Bailey marks the winter solstice by organizing a pageant of drama and song for the citizens of Harvard University Last year the star of the show was Henry Shady an Appalachian folk singer whose homespun charm won the eye of every young woman in Cambridge On the eve of this year's Revels the singer is struck down in the street by an SUV driven by Sarah's husband The police dismiss it as a freak accident but Mary Kelly who witnessed the singer's death is not so sure Her husband Harvard professor and sometime sleuth Homer dismisses her suspicion But when more of the revelers suffer untimely deaths Homer sees a pattern Winter has gripped Cambridge and Sarah's husband may have been seized with murderous jealousy

Dead as a Dodo Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 Visiting Oxford the Harvard professor sleuth gets a crash course in Darwin's survival of the fittest in a high spirited whodunit that's vintage Langton Booklist William Dubchick is too keen a student of the writings of Charles Darwin to not see that the world of biology has evolved past him Decades ago he was the foremost mind in Oxford University's department of natural sciences but as the field's focus narrowed to the microscopic level he became nothing more than a gray haired cantankerous relic He has a small fiefdom manned by Helen Farfrae a committed disciple who Dubchick is annoyed to learn someone is trying to kill It is into this world that Homer Kelly Emersonian scholar and part time sleuth comes to spend a semester lecturing Though expecting a vacation he finds Oxford to be a swamp of theft fraud and murder Besides the attempts on Farfrae's life he must reckon with a murdered priest the theft of a dodo's portrait and suspicious claims that long lost Darwinian artifacts have been found

With an academic climate like this it's amazing that any of the Oxford dons live to see tenure

The Memorial Hall Murder Jane Langton, 2012-04-17 With ebullience and good humor the award winning author brings back former detective Homer Kelly now a Harvard professor to solve a killing on campus Eudora Welty An explosion rocks the foundations of Harvard University's stately Memorial Hall Built a century ago to honor alumni who died defending the Union in the Civil War the hall is a focal point of the campus Now it is a crime scene A corpulent body is found inside decapitated by the blast The dead man is Hamilton Dow conductor of the school orchestra and one of the most beloved men on campus The university's president James Cheever couldn't be more pleased Dow had opposed every one of Cheever's attempts to improve and enlarge Harvard and this terrible accident means that Cheever's path to complete domination of the campus is clear But was it an accident Homer Kelly Harvard professor and occasional sleuth is not so sure Cheever was not the only man on campus who wanted Dow dead and as Homer looks for the culprit he finds a terrible secret behind the bombing that turned the Civil War memorial into a tomb

Steeplechase Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 With clever storytelling shifting between past and present the final Homer Kelly mystery has the scholar sleuth solving the puzzle of a missing church Booklist Somehow against all odds Homer Kelly has become famous After decades toiling in academic obscurity the Harvard professor has a book on the bestseller list To capitalize on his sudden fame Homer's editor demands another book and fast Homer is working on Steeplechase a tour of churches in and around his little patch of Massachusetts and at his editor's request he goes searching for some ancient gossip to spice up his new work What he finds is a baffling Reconstruction era mystery Hot air balloons nursery rhymes and the great chestnut tree in the village of Nashoba all form part of Homer's ancestors' thrilling story As the tale shifts between 1868 and the present day a picture emerges of a small town Massachusetts that's hardly changed and a secret which if it weren't for Homer may have stayed buried for all time

The Thief of Venice Jane Langton, 2012-03-06 With her usual sparkling prose and inimitable wit the award winning author follows her scholar sleuth and his wife as they investigate a death in Venice Publishers Weekly Four month summer holidays spring break and regular sabbaticals mean that Harvard professors Mary and Homer Kelly never have trouble finding time to vacation Unfortunately Homer's sideline as an amateur sleuth means that they rarely get to relax during their time off And so when Homer begs Mary to let them visit Venice to attend a conference in the famed rare book library of Cardinal Bessarion Mary agrees on condition that Homer avoid any dead bodies When they arrive in Venice it is Mary not Homer who stumbles upon a murder An intent sightseer she combs the city with her camera snapping pictures of anything that catches her eye But when one of her snapshots captures something it shouldn't Mary is sucked into a decades old mystery that stretches back to the darkest moments of World War II

Dark Nantucket Noon Jane Langton, 2012-04-17 Scholar and former detective Homer Kelly defends a poet accused of committing murder during an eclipse from the delightful and always beguiling author The Boston Globe For all her life poet Kitty Clark has waited to see a total eclipse of the sun News of an impending eclipse thrills her until she learns it will be visible only from Nantucket where one year ago her ex lover Joe Green moved with his new wife Unable to resist the astronomical lure she flies in from Boston and makes her way to an isolated lighthouse hoping to avoid seeing Joe The eclipse itself is overwhelming Kitty screams when the sun vanishes behind the dark blot of the moon When the sun returns a few minutes later Kitty stands over the bloodied body of Mrs Joe Green claiming the moon did it Transcendentalist scholar and former detective Homer Kelly agrees to defend the troubled young poet but the more Kitty insists she is innocent the crazier she appears To clear her name he must discover who set her up and what happened during the two minutes when the Nantucket sun disappeared

The Dante Game Jane Langton,2012-04-17 In Florence scholar sleuth Homer Kelly must foil a plot to kill the Pope in a voluptuously detailed mystery in which Langton s exuberant wit runs riot The New York Times Book Review When the Pope issues a sweeping edict calling for a yearlong war on drugs no one is more surprised than the Vatican to find the campaign a success In every Catholic corner of the world young people throw down their needles to pick up crosses In Florence thousands of them converge on the Duomo to thank Christ for their newfound commitment to sobriety Nearly everyone is relieved by this development save for Leonardo Bindo banker and druglord To get his business back on track he seizes upon a simple plan Kill the Pope Standing in his way is Homer Kelly transcendentalist scholar and occasional detective In Florence to teach at a new international university Homer stumbles on Bindo s scheme while investigating the disappearance of a beautiful young student His Italian may be lousy but Homer is the only man who can save Italy from itself

God in Concord Jane Langton,2012-03-06 Walden Pond is not so tranquil when murder strikes and it s up to scholar sleuth Homer Kelly to restore balance in an unflaggingly entertaining mystery Kirkus Reviews Alice Snow is the first to die In the morning she and her friends at the Pond View Trailer Park watch soap operas worrying about the lives of TV s rich and powerful A few hours later a hiking Homer Kelly finds Alice lying outside her trailer head smashed and heart stopped Though her fellow Pond View residents do not realize it their lives are in danger too The state owned park sits on Walden Pond just north of the replica of Thoreau s log cabin Where the philosopher once retreated to find nature is now a hive of humanity hemmed in by a highway a landfill and the planned site of a new mini mall The trailer park stands in the developers way and when more Pond View residents die Homer suspects murder The developers have no qualms about killing Concord s past might they murder its present too
