Nursing At The End Of Life:

Nursing Care at the End of Life Joyce V Zerwekh, 2005-12-28 Nursing Care at the End of Life Palliative Care for Patients and Families explores the deep issues of caring for the dying and suffering The book is based on the Hospice Family Caregiving Model previously published by the author and focuses on the practice implications of care for the dying The book is written in a clear and user friendly style and is ideal for undergraduate nursing students learning about dying suffering and caring for individuals and their families Palliative Nursing Shaun Kinghorn, Sandra Gaines, 2007-11-14 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States Content has been thoroughly revised and updated in line with changes in practice and policy both locally and internationally particularly the UK NICE guidance on Supportive and palliative care for people with cancer and the Care of the Dying Pathway It reflects the rapid development of palliative nursing as an emerging specialty It helps in the process of defining palliative nursing and how it interfaces with other disciplines within the specialty The text is divided into three sections and comprehensively yet sensitively covers all aspects of palliative nursing Key themes covered include pain control symptom control loss and grief and handling loss A strong emphasis is placed on the integration of theory and practice and evidence based care Reconciliation of the theory and practice is achieved by the use of case studies It addresses malignant and non malignant palliative care Research and extensive literature support each chapter Content has been thoroughly revised and updated in line with changes in practice and policy both locally and internationally particularly the UK NICE guidance on Supportive and palliative care for people with cancer and the Care of the Dying Pathway Three new chapters on Sexuality Care of the Dying Pathway Changing roles of the nurse in palliative care New appendix on North American drug names equivalents for the international market

Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2006 Annotation Offering a blend of holistic and humanistic caring coupled with aggressive management of pain and symptoms associated with advanced disease this resource is organized around 15 competencies in palliative care developed by the American Association of Colleges of Nursing with each chapter outlining specific skills needed to achieve each competency Nursing Care at the End of Life Ginny Wacker Guido, 2010 Nursing Care at the End of Life by Ginny Wacker Guido incorporates many of the chapter features in High Acuity Nursing 5th ed by Kathleen Dorman Wagner Using this format the author presents material ranging from the legal and ethical aspects that affect care to the clinical issues nurses face when dealing with acute illness pain and dying to communication and family dynamics Case studies give readers an opportunity to process and apply the chapter material The role of the nurse is highlighted throughout the book and each chapter is followed by NCLEX style review questions This is a perfect reference for anyone studying to become a nurse or a nurse needed a professional resource for career success

Fast Facts for the Hospice Nurse, Second Edition Patricia Moyle Wright, 2020-07-28 This book is for nurses who are seeking to specialize in hospice those who work in long term care settings post acute care settings acute care setting and those who are seeking to enhance their knowledge of end of life care within other specialties      End of Life in Care Homes Jeanne Samson Katz, Sheila M. Peace, 2003-04-03 In our society the overwhelming majority of people die in later life They typically die slowly of chronic diseases with multiple co existing problems over long periods of time They spend the majority of their final years at home but many will die in hospitals or care homes This book explores the possibilities for improving the care of older people dying in residential care and nursing homes It argues that there are aspects of palliative care that given the right circumstances are transferable to dying people in settings that are not domestic or hospice based End of Life in Care Homes describes what happens in nursing and residential care homes when a resident is dying how carers cope and the practical health and emotional challenges that carers face on top of their day to day work Based on detailed research from both the UK and US the book shows how the situation can be improved      Palliative and End of Life Nursing Care Beth Hardy, Kate Flemming, 2023-05-05 Mapped to the 2018 NMC Standards and written with the support of a student advisory board this is the ultimate resource for developing students confidence and competence in end of life care      To Comfort Always Linda Norlander, 2001 Focusing on the nurse s role as clinician advocate and guide this brief handbook provides a holistic and team based approach to end of life care It covers advance care planning pain management physical symptom management suffering active dying the period following the death pediatric issues cultural sensitivity and hospice Norlander is a nurse and the director of the Minnesota Partnership to Improve End of Life Care Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Marianne L. Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2018-06-28 This 5th edition is an important achievement it is a symbol of commitment to the field of palliative nursing where we have been and where we are going Betty Rolling Ferrell PhD MA FAAN FPCN CHPN From the Foreword The aging population has only grown since the first edition of this comprehensive and seminal publication nearly 20 years ago Based on the need to humanize rather than medicalize the illness experience for patients this text delves into palliative care beyond the specific diseases affecting the patient Instead content focuses on the whole person and family Palliative patients struggle with chronic debilitating and painful conditions and grapple with the fact that life as they knew it has already passed away Families and friends reciprocally suffer not knowing how to help and therefore become the secondary victims of the disease This is not the challenge of a lone nurse or a single physician therapist or social worker Rather palliative and hospice care requires the expertise and unique roles of an interprofessional team to help the patient and family strengthen their resilience continue to find meaning and purpose in life and cure what can be cured Palliative Care Nursing Fifth Edition delivers advanced empirical aesthetic ethical and personal knowledge This new edition brings an increased focus on outcomes benchmarking progress and goals of care It expounds upon the importance of the cross disciplinary collaboration introduced in the previous edition Every chapter in Sections I II and III includes content written by a non nursing member of the interprofessional team Based on best evidence and clinical practice guidelines this text presents comprehensive targeted interventions responsive to the needs of palliative and hospice patients and family Each chapter contains compassionate timely appropriate and cost effective care for diverse populations across the illness trajectory Key Features The expanded new edition offers current comprehensive one stop source of highly relevant clinical information on palliative care Life span approach age appropriate nursing considerations e g geriatric pediatric and family Includes disease specific and symptom specific nursing management chapters Promotes a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to palliative care Offers important legal ethical and cultural considerations related to death and dying Case Studies with Case Study Conclusion in each clinical chapter New to The Fifth Edition An expanded chapter on Palliative Care incorporates most up to date scope and standards information on Basic and Advanced HPNA certification self reflection and self care for nurses A chapter on Interprofessional Collaboration Instructor Resources Power points and Test bank
