Time in the Philosophy of Gabriel Marcel Helen Tattam, 2013 Gabriel Marcel 1889-1973 stands outside the traditional canon of twentieth century French philosophers Where he is not simply forgotten or overlooked he is dismissed as a relentlessly unsystematic thinker or following Jean Paul Sartre's lead labelled a Christian existentialist a label that avoids consideration of Marcel's work on its own terms How is one to appreciate Marcel's contribution especially when his oeuvre appears to be at odds with philosophical convention Helen Tattam proposes a range of readings as opposed to one single interpretation a series of departures or explorations that bring his work into contact with critical partners such as Henri Bergson Paul Ricoeur and Emmanuel Levinas and offer insights into a host of twentieth century philosophical shifts concerning time the subject the other ethics and religion Helen Tattam's ambitious study is an impressively lucid account of Marcel's engagement with the problem of time and lived experience and is her first monograph since the award of her doctorate from the University of Nottingham

God Realization Glen C. Cutlip, 2001-07-24 Have you ever wondered how it might be that God is to walk with the people of God Have you really contemplated how that God is the all in all in you all Have you ever wondered how God can manifest Himself in an infinite number of places at the same time Just as the peace of God passeth all understanding and the love of Christ passeth knowledge the realization of God passeth the understanding and the knowledge of the dual mind Accordingly the understanding and the knowledge of the dual mind must cease as it were before the realization of God can manifest itself as it is not just as it might appear to be That is the part as it were must be done away in order for the whole to manifest itself The realization of God is the outcome of realizing the Christ Consciousness that dwells at the Core of all being for we know that at the appearing of the Lord we shall like unto the Lord for we shall see the Lord as is not just as the Lord might appear to be We can now see how that the Christ dwells within all whether it is realized or not for to realize the Christ that dwells at the Core of all being is to realize that it has always been there Therefore the realization of God is the realization that God has been is and shall forever be right where you are the all in all in you all Thus God is ever walking with the people of God It is a matter of realizing how that might be Now is the time for that realization

Keeping Time Tim Gorringer, 2022-07-01 A fresh account of the liturgical year and how it shapes our lives as Christian disciples

Space, Time, and Presence in the Icon Clemena Antonova, 2016-03-09 This book contributes to the re emerging field of theology through the arts by proposing a way of approaching one of the most challenging theological concepts divine timelessness through the principle of construction of space in the icon One of the main objectives of this book is to discuss critically the implications of reverse perspective which is especially characteristic of Byzantine and Byzantining art Drawing on the work of Pavel Florensky one of the foremost Russian religious philosophers at the beginning of the 20th century Antonova shows that Florensky's concept of supplementary planes can be used productively within a new approach to the question Antonova works up new criteria for the understanding of how space and time can be handled in a way that does not reverse standard linear perspective as conventionally claimed but acts in its own way to create eternalised images which are not involved with perspective at all Arguing that the structure of the icon is determined by a conception of God who exists in past present and future simultaneously Antonova develops an iconography of images done in the Byzantine style both in the East and in the West which is truer to their own cultural context than is generally provided for by western interpretations This book draws upon philosophy theology and liturgy to see how relatively abstract notions of a deity beyond time and space enter images made by painters

The Holy Spirit as Communion I. Leon Harris, 2017-09-26 In The Holy Spirit as Communion Leon Harris examines the pneumatologies of Colin Gunton and Frank Macchia For both theologians the doctrine of the Holy Spirit is foundational to understanding their doctrine of God Christology and ecclesiology Drawing on the theme of communion The Holy Spirit as Communion expresses the concept that the Holy Spirit is the person who perfects the divine nature and personhood of the Father and Son It is the Holy Spirit who perfects the eternal communion within the divine Trinity which is the source of the divine action that also perfects the communion in creation as an expression of the Father's will through Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit as Communion explores the essentiality of the Holy Spirit through a unique approach to Spirit Christology Gunton is represented by a radicalized version of Chalcedon Christology and Macchia formulates his account through the overarching metaphor of Spirit baptism Therefore the doctrine of God Christology ecclesiology and eschatology cannot be construed without a proper account of pneumatology that takes into consideration the eschatological perfecting work of the third person of the Trinity who perfects creation's koinonia as a gift from the Father through the grace of Jesus Christ

Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated Part F Trinity and Humanity Uche Anizor,2018-02-27 Colin Gunton is regarded by many as one of the most important English theologians of the twentieth century A prolific writer and creative thinker Gunton taught at King's College London for over thirty years until his untimely death in 2003 In this first single authored introduction to Gunton's theology Uche Anizor traces the key theological themes major contributors and criticisms of his work Each chapter provides a synthesis and overview of Gunton's thought on a particular doctrine or set of doctrines calling attention to the Trinitarian shape of his theology In Trinity and Humanity Anizor provides a handy entrance into the corpus of this major thinker

Renaissance Art Simona Cohen,2014-03-10 Although studies of specific time concepts expressed in Renaissance philosophy and literature have not been lacking few art historians have endeavored to meet the challenge in the visual arts This book presents a multifaceted picture of the dynamic concepts of time and temporality in medieval and Renaissance art adopted in speculative ecclesiastical socio political propagandist moralistic and poetic contexts It has been assumed that time was conceived in a different way by those living in the Renaissance as compared to their medieval predecessors Changing perceptions of time an increasingly secular approach the sense of self determination rooted in the practical use and control of time and the perception of time as a threat to human existence and achievements are demonstrated through artistic media Chapters dealing with time in classical and medieval philosophy and art are followed by studies that focus on innovative aspects of Renaissance iconography

Body and Hope Johanne Stubbe Teglbjaerg Kristensen, 2013-11-19 In this book Johanne S Teglbjaerg Kristensen analyses the relationship between body and hope She critically investigates the eschatologies of Paul Tillich Jurgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg from the perspective of the phenomenology of the body represented by Maurice Merleau Ponty By focusing on the eschatological challenge of the body through a thematization of the issue of continuity the author constructively interprets the classic eschatological themes of death resurrection judgement and the Second Coming She shows how the classic eschatological issues of the relationship between time and eternity as well as of the relationship between the individual and the community require new conceptions By taking the phenomenology of the body into consideration Teglbjaerg Kristensen suggests both a new eschatological approach and a new conception of eschatology
