New, New Limericks Ebenezer Jackson-Firefly, 2019-03-10 This is a book of three hundred original limericks by the limerick writer Ebenezer Jackson Firefly They describe events impart wisdom and describe various anonymous characters who populate this world Amongst these individuals there are A Breton who had a grey mule A lady called Bridie O Farrell and A dog which was covered in fleas Many refer to an unidentified man A man in his great grandpa s togs A man with a head like a hen s An extr ordinary man in a hat and A man who was on the Titanic Edifying commentaries of varying lengths are added after each limerick The book gives us greater understanding of the human condition thanks to the keen observation of Mr Jackson Firefly and is guaranteed to bring about world peace if enough copies are purchased The Limerick, Restored Poxy Brothers, 2020-03-14 By purchasing this volume you are participating in the restoration of a culture from the brink of total collapse Please allow me to explain The limerick is a type of folk poem with its origins in the early 18th century Anglo world Often hilariously erotic limericks constitute an essential literary category in the canon of English poetry But with the 21st century rise of political correctness this great tradition has been reduced to a pathetic shriveled version of its former self No truly brilliant collection of originals has been seen in decades and the anthologies are gathering dust With nowhere else to turn the literati of today are relegated to digging up old copies of out of print classics to satisfy their lust for the vile hilarity delightful vocabulary and singsong rhythm of this vital poetic form This decline is a great loss for the art and literature world and a tragedy for our language at large Once a pillar of literary humor the decline of the X rated limerick represents the decline of civilization itself a symbol of our cultural descent into a world of bland dystopic sterility and aimless outrage It s time that this wrong was righted To that end please enjoy this book of over 1 000 original limericks for a fresh generation a collection of delightfully disgusting poems replete with modern references for the new century s readers Old students of the limerick desperate for new material will be delighted to find it here and those still uninitiated into this important English tradition can now discover it in earnest Your participation in this cultural revitalization is nothing short of historic Onward Yours Truly Gulliver Einhorn Esq Personal Representative of the Poxy Brothers BOOK OF LIMERICKS EDWARD. LEAR, 2019 Bennett Cerf's Out on a Limerick ,1962 Limericks Ray Allen Billington, 1981 The book is divided into several parts the historical uses of the limerick concentrating on the American frontier and on World War II limericks assembled from the files of the Society of the Fifth Line and organization of scholars whose job it is to produce an original verse for each meeting of the membership samples of the classic limerick form some original some contributed some culled from published and unpublished collections and an assortment of limericks that reflect the limerick's role as a mirror of social change In the arrangement of the material Billington could not resist inflicting my academic standards in an area where art should reign using chapter headings explanations some variant readings and such footnotes as needed to make the page unattractive
