Anabtawi, 1986 Students and Resistance in Palestine Ido Zelkovitz, 2014-12-17 Exploring the Palestinian Student Movement from an historical and sociological perspective this book demonstrates how Palestinian national identity has been built in the absence of national institutions whilst emphasizing the role of higher education as an agent of social change capable of crystallizing patterns of national identity Focussing on the political and social activities of Palestinian students in two arenas the West Bank and Gaza Strip and the Palestinian diaspora Students Palestinian student magazines PLO documents Palestinian and Arabic news media and archival records to demonstrate how the Palestinian Student Movements became a major political player this book is of interest to scholars and students of Palestinian History Politics and the Arab Israeli Conflict Reforms in Higher Education Keith Watson, Celia Modgil, Sohan Modgil, 1997-01-01 This text addresses the reforms in the financial and administrative structure of higher education government intervention in introducing new managerial techniques and quality audits and the implications of these changes for both academics and administrators It is one of a series of four volumes which look at the educational dilemmas facing governments professional educators and practising administrators in the current climate in education The issues are addressed from international and comparative perspectives Arab Education in Transition Byron G. Massialas, Samir Ahmad Jarrar, 2016-03-22 The operation of schools in the Arab world is a topic about which very little is known in the West This volume first published in 1991 provides information about the Arab school and thus contributes to an understanding of what is taught by whom and under what conditions It seeks to define the interaction between traditional elements and innovative forces impinging on the Arab school as well as reviewing policies that concern the education of Arab children It is maintained that Arab schools are in a state of transition reproducing society and its norms on one hand while on the other operating as agents seeking to transform society This work examines this claim in detail providing a unique discussion about education in the Arab world Confronting the Occupation Maya Rosenfeld, 2004 Confronting the Occupation is a study of work education political national resistance family and community relations in a Palestinian refugee camp under conditions of Israeli military occupation It is based on extended field research carried out by an Israeli sociologist anthropologist in Dheisheh camp south of Bethlehem between 1992 and 1996 Emphasis is placed on how men and women families and the local refugee community confront the occupation regime as they seek livelihoods invest in the education of younger generations and mount a political and often militant struggle In the process men lose their jobs in the Israeli labor market women old and young enter the workforce university graduates are compelled to migrate to the Gulf and political cadres challenge harsh prison circumstances by establishing their own comprehensive counterorder While directed against the occupation patterns of coping and resistance adopted by Dheishehians introduced tensions and conflicts into family life furthering the transformation of gender and generational relationships Revolutionaries and Reformers

Barry Rubin, 2012-02-01 Islamist movements seeking power today are faced with difficult choices regarding strategy ranging from armed struggle to electoral efforts. An emerging alternative consists of a rethinking of Islamist politics where the goal of a totally Islamic polity would be abandoned in favor of some form of Islamic oriented society. In this reformulation Islamist politics would function as a pressure group to make society more Islamic reinforcing the walls of semi separate internal communities and reinterpreting Islam in more liberal ways. The September 11 2001 terror attack on the United States however demonstrates that the radical approach remains attractive to many Islamists. Addressing these issues the contributors look at the countries where Islamist movements have been most important. Case studies of revolutionary and reformist groups are followed by chapters discussing future alternatives for Islamist politics presenting arguments both advocating and critical of a potential liberal reformist interest group. Islamism Political Conflict and Exclusion in Jerusalem

Rawan Nuseibeh, 2015-10-08 The political conflict over the city of Jerusalem has resulted in the breach of Palestinian Jerusalemites civil political and social rights. While Israel claims sovereignty over East Jerusalem it neglects to provide adequate services to the Palestinian residents of the city. The Israeli Jerusalem Municipality provides insufficient and highly politicised educational services to the Palestinians residents of the city at the same time discriminating against the other Palestinian systems that provide educational services. Political Conflict and Exclusion in Jerusalem offers a detailed description of the structure of the education sector in East Jerusalem with its four main providers the Palestinian Authority through Awqaf schools the Israeli Authority through municipal schools the United Nations Relief and Works Agency and private schools. Its study reveals that there is no single body that oversees the provision of educational services in the city to ensure that the services provided are sufficient and of quality. Employing a qualitative research strategy with semi structured interviews and focus groups in Palestinian and Israeli schools this book offers a comprehensive and revealing comparison of the educational services provided to both their students. It explores how Palestinian and Israeli students routinely receive vastly different learning opportunities in terms of school funding qualified staff school facilities and school programmes which as a result disempowers Palestinians and ensures an Israeli Jewish hegemony over the city. One of the few academic books on a highly pertinent topic this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East Studies and a key resource for those studying the social impacts of the Israeli Palestinian conflict. Survey of Jewish Affairs, 1987

William Frankel, 1988 Addresses major issues of concern about Israel the Middle East the United States and world Jewry during the year 1986 such as the vulnerability and successes of the National Unity Government the peace process the Arab League American Middle East policy the Waldheim issue and world Jewish fundamentalism. Contains a chronology of major events of 1985 and 1986. Local Communities and the Israeli Polity

Efraim Ben-Zadok, 2012-02-01 This book represents the first systematic effort to analyze the role of local communities and regions in Israel's national politics. Traditionally portrayed as either elitist and highly centralized or as pluralistic with very active interest groups Israeli politics have seldom accounted for

Vardhan Chang Da Wan Anthony Welch Ayenachew A Woldegiyorgis Ren e Zicman Palestinian State Formation Nubar Hovsepian, 2009-03-26 This book examines the role of education in building a new Palestinian state and especially on the role and function of the education system in the process of state formation Since education frames a people s identity the nature of the education system affects how Palestinians relate to their state Through education the Palestinian Authority PA transforms the parameters of identity to serve the requirements of state building and the peace process International assistance to the PA affects all of these processes through the disbursal of political rent whose primary function is to bolster the PA and to keep the peace process going The new Palestinian Authority has assumed two seemingly contradictory functions state building and resistance and the dynamic tensions between the two raise key questions for political and policy analysis Are these functions mutually exclusive or complementary in the context of the ongoing peace negotiations and state building Can the Palestinian leadership transform the Palestinian national movement from a revolutionary organization to a pragmatic state apparatus Are the PLO and the PA interchangeable What type of power does the PA need to cultivate the support or to secure the compliance of the Palestinian people for the state building project Clearly the answers to these questions have a direct bearing on the education system Will this system promote a resistance identity or a state building legitimizing identity
