Police Practices An International Review:

Police Practices Dilip K. Das, 1990 International Developments and Practices in Investigative Interviewing and Interrogation David Walsh, Gavin Oxburgh, Allison Redlich, Trond Myklebust, 2017-09-19 Techniques in the investigative interviewing and interrogation of victims witnesses and suspects of crime vary around the world according to a country's individual legal system religion and culture Whereas some countries have developed certain interview protocols for witnesses such as the ABE Guidelines and the NICHD protocol when interviewing children and the PEACE model of interviewing suspects other countries continue to use physical coercion and other questionable tactics to elicit information Until now there has been very little empirical information about the overall interview and interrogation practices in non western countries especially the Middle and Far East This book addresses this gap bringing together international experts from over 25 countries and providing in depth coverage of the various interview and interrogation techniques used across the globe Volume 2 focuses on the interviewing of crime suspects aiming to provide the necessary information for an understanding of how law enforcement agencies around the world gain valuable information from suspects in criminal cases Together the chapters that make up this volume and the accompanying volume on interviewing witnesses and victims draw on specific national case studies and practices examine contemporary challenges and identify best practice to enable readers to develop an international as well as a comparative perspective of developments worldwide in this important area of criminal investigation This book will be an essential resource for academics and students engaged in the study of policing criminal investigation forensic psychology and criminal law It will also be of great interest to practitioners legal professionals and policymakers around the world Police Practices Dilip K. Das, 1994 A comparative study of police practices in Australia Finland India Japan and New Zealand analyzing police officers as the product of their country's culture Includes details on wages personnel practices unions and associations and problems of the police force in each country as well as programs and approaches unique to each force Lacks an index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Policing and Security in Practice T. Prenzler, 2012-04-05 This volume addresses critical questions about how to achieve the best outcomes from police and security providers by reviewing and critiquing the scientific literature and identifying best practice guidelines Chapters cover a range of topical issues including legitimacy organised crime public protests and intelligence and investigations Challenges of Policing Democracies Dilip Das, Marenin Otwin, 2012-10-12 In this text the editors analyze the diverse situations that police forces operate under and the challenges that they face in different kinds of democracies This cross cultural comparison of various systems highlights the universal observation that police are an anomaly in a democracy and explores how various influences for example large scale social violence a zeal for crime fighting and vulnerability to temptation often find police incapable of behaving in a democratic manner Challenges of Policing Democracies goes beyond just showing the similarities and differences of the policing challenges democratic societies face it also examines the responses and remedies adopted by police in various countries at different levels of democratic achievement and how every society struggles with the challenges of preserving democratic values without sacrificing the effectiveness of policing International Perspectives on Police Education and Training Perry Stanislas,2013-10-30 Training and education constitutes the backbone of a significant amount of police activity and expenditure in developing the most important resources involved in policing work It also involves an array of actors and agencies such as educational institutions which have a long and important relationship with police organizations This book examines the role of education and training in the development of police in the contemporary world Bringing together specialist scholars and practitioners from around the world the book examines training methods in the UK the USA Australia Canada China France Hungary India the Netherlands St Lucia and Sweden The book throws light on important aspects of public service policing and new areas of public and private provision through the lens of training and development It will be of interest to policing scholars and those involved in professional and organizational development worldwide Researching the Police in the 21st Century J. Gravelle,C. Rogers,2014-09-02 This unique collection explores the importance of undertaking police research using a range of international examples from USA UK and Germany Focusing on practical challenges and difficulties the volume offers solutions and reflections to assist in overcoming the barriers which might be encountered whilst carrying out research of this nature The Future of Policing Jennifer M. Brown,2013-10-08 The police service in England and Wales is facing major challenges in its financing political oversight and reorganisation of its structures Current economic conditions have created a wholly new environment whereby cost saving is permitting hitherto unthinkable changes in the style and means of delivery of policing services In the context of these proposed changes Lord Stevens formerly Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police Service was asked to chair an Independent Commission looking into the future of policing The Commission has a wide ranging remit and the papers in this book offer up to date analysis of contemporary problems from the novel perspective of developing a reform agenda to assist the Commission Bringing together contributions from both key academic thinkers and police professionals this book discusses new policing paradigms lays out a case for an evidence based practice approach and draws attention to developing areas such as terrorism public order and hate crime Policing is too important to be left to politicians as the health of a democracy may be judged by the relationship between the police and the public The aim of this book is to question and present analyses of problems offer new ideas and propose realistically achievable solutions without being so timid as to preserve the status quo It will be of interest to both academics and students in the fields of criminology and policing studies as well as professionals in the policing service NGOs and local authority organisations Mainstreams, Margins and the Spaces In-between Karen Trimmer,Ali Black,Stewart Riddle,2014-11-20 This book explores the complexities of investigating minorities majorities boundaries and borders and the experiences of researchers who choose to work in these spaces It engages with issues of ethics disclosure and representation and contends with and seeks to contribute to emerging debates around power and the positioning of researchers and participants Chapters examine epistemologies that shape researchers beliefs about the forms of research that are valued in educational research and theory and consider the importance of research that genuinely seeks to explore voice culture story authenticity and identity Resisting the backdrop of standardisation performativity and accountability agendas pervading governments and organisations the book attends to the stories of real people to understand regional and rural landscapes to examine culture and the human condition and to give voice to those at the fringes of society who remain largely neglected and unheard Drawing largely on studies from Australia the book provides an overview of the many types of research being engaged in revealing the value of different kinds of research and gaining insight into how meaning and findings are disseminated in research and educational sectors and back into the contexts where research takes place Mainstreams Margins and the Spaces In between will be of key interest to early career researchers and academics internationally as well as postgraduate students completing research methods courses in the field of education and the wider social sciences Rethinking the Police for a Better Future Baidya Nath
