Reading From This Place Vol 1 Social Location And Biblical Interpretation In The U S:

Reading from This Place, Volume 1 Fernando F. Segovia, Mary Ann Tolbert, How does one's life situation shape one's reading of the Bible In this landmark volume Segovia Tolbert and their 15 other contributors measure the impact of social location on the theory and practice of biblical interpretation Reading From This Place helps readers come to terms with the interpretive revolution sweeping through biblical studies An Ethiopian Reading of the Bible Keon-Sang An, 2015-10-01 This book explores the biblical interpretation of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church EOTC In doing so it illuminates the interpretation of the Bible in a particular historical and cultural context and presents a compelling example of the contextual nature of biblical interpretation Those who visit Ethiopia experience its unique spirituality which is significantly informed by the presence of the EOTC The EOTC has existed from earliest years of the Christian church It has also developed and maintained its own ecclesiastic tradition in the Ethiopian context and has its own distinctive way of reading the Bible It is noteworthy particularly in the African context that it has its own commentaries on the Scriptures which continue to serve as a vital tradition in the EOTC's interpretation of the Bible This is evident in the contemporary hermeneutics and sermons of EOTC preachers In its comprehensive consideration of the EOTC's past and present this book examines the interplay between tradition and context in biblical interpretation and contributes to current biblical scholarship Bridges in New Testament Interpretation Neil Elliott, Werner H. Kelber, 2018-04-30 The field of New Testament studies often appears splintered into widely different specializations and narrowly defined research projects Nevertheless some of the most important insights have come about when curious men and women have defied disciplinary boundaries and drawn on other fields of knowledge in order to gain a more adequate view of history The essays in Bridges in New Testament Interpretation offer surveys of the current scholarly discussion in areas of New Testament and Christian origins where cross disciplinary fertilization has been decisive and describe the role that interdisciplinary bridges especially as led by Richard A Horsley have played Topics include the socioeconomic history of Roman Palestine the historical Jesus in political and media contexts communication media orality and social context in the study of Q the Gospels in the context of oral culture performance and social memory reading Paul's letters in the context of Roman imperial culture the narrativization of early Christianity in relation to the ancient media environment and the role of power in shaping our understanding of history as evident in people's history the historical agency of subordinate classes and the role of public and hidden transcripts in contexts shaped by power relations Essays also address the role of the interpreter as engaged with the social and political concerns of our time The sum is even greater than the parts presenting a powerful argument for the value of further exploration across interdisciplinary bridges The Bloomsbury Handbook to Studying Christians George D. Chryssides, Stephen E. Gregg, 2019-11-14 Drawing on a range of methodologies editors George D Chryssides and Stephen E Gregg shift attention from normative textual and doctrinal matters to issues of materiality and everyday life in Christianity This handbook is structured in four parts which include coverage of the following aspects of Christianity sacred space and objects cyber Christianity food prayer education family life fundamentalism and sexuality In addition issues of gender race and ethnicity are treated throughout The international team of contributors provide in depth analysis that highlight the current state of academic study in the field and explores areas in which future research might develop Clearly organised to help users quickly locate key information and analysis the book includes an A to Z of key terms extensive guides to further resources a comprehensive bibliography and a chronology of landmark events making it a unique resource to upper level students and researchers

Asylum-Seeking, Migration and Church Susanna Snyder, 2016-04-15 Asylum Seeking Migration and Church addresses one of the most pressing issues confronting contemporary society How are we to engage with migrants Drawing on studies of church engagement with asylum seekers in the UK and critical immigration and refugee issues in North America Snyder presents an extended theological reflection on both the issue of asylum seeking and the fears of established populations surrounding immigration This book outlines ways in which churches are currently supporting asylum seekers encouraging closer engagement with people seen as other and more thoughtful responses to newcomers Creatively exploring biblical and theological traditions surrounding the stranger Snyder argues that as well as practising a vision of inclusive community churches would do well to engage with established population fears Trends in global migration and the dynamics of fear and hostility surrounding immigration are critically and creatively explored throughout the book Inviting more complex nuanced responses to asylum seekers and immigrants this book offers invaluable insights to those interested in Christian ethics practical theology social work mission and faith and social action as well as those working in the field of migration

Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter with the African American Great Migration Jennifer T.

Kaalund,2018-11-29 Kaalund examines the constructed and contested Christian Jewish identities in Hebrews and 1 Peter through the lens of the New Negro a diasporic identity similarly constructed and contested during the Great Migration in the early 20th century Like the identity Christian the New Negro emerged in a context marked by instability creativity and the need for a sense of permanence in a hostile political environment Upon examination both identities also show complex internal diversity and debate that disrupts any simple articulation as purely resistant or accommodating to its hegemonic and oppressive environment Kaalund s investigation into the construction of the New Negro highlights this multiplicity and contends that the rhetoric of place race and gender were integral to these processes of inventing a way of being in the world that was seemingly not reliant on one s physical space Putting these issues into dialogue with 1 Peter and Hebrews allows for a reading of the formation of Christian identity as similarly engaging the rhetoric of place and race in constructive and contested ways

Symbolic Blackness and Ethnic Difference in Early Christian Literature Gay L Byron, 2003-10-04 How were early Christians influenced by contemporary assumptions about ethnic and colour differences Why were early Christian writers so attracted to the subject of Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians Looking at the neglected issue of race brings valuable new perspectives to the study of the ancient world now Gay Byron s exciting work is the first to survey and theorise Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians in Christian antiquity By combining innovative theory and methodology with a detailed survey of early Christian writings Byron shows how perceptions about ethnic and color differences influenced the discursive strategies of ancient Christian authors She demonstrates convincingly that in spite of the contention that Christianity was to extend to all peoples certain groups of Christians were marginalized and rendered invisible and silent Original and pioneering this book will inspire discussion at every level encouraging a broader and more sophisticated understanding of early Christianity for scholars and students alike
