Reading Proust In Search Of The Wolf Fish:

Reading Proust Maria Paganini-Ambord,1994 Reading Proust focuses on the specificity of Proustian writing revealing the patterns of thought and play of words peculiar to Proust's language and showing how these metamorphose throughout La Recherche du temps perdu. Her work offers a new model for reading fictional prose one that replaces the critical why with the more practical and productive how Reading Proust Maria Paganini-Ambord,1994 Proust's Lesbianism Elisabeth Ladenson,1999 For decades Elisabeth Ladenson says critics have misread or ignored a crucial element in Marcel Proust's fiction his representation of lesbians Her challenging new book definitively establishes the centrality of lesbianism as sexual obsession and aesthetic model in Proust's vast novel A la recherche du temps perdu. Traditional readings of the Recherche have dismissed Proust's Gomorra his term for women who love other women as a veiled portrayal of the novelist's own homosexuality. More recently queer positive rereadings have viewed the novel's treatment of female sexuality as ancillary to its accounts of Sodom and its meditations on time and memory. Ladenson instead demonstrates the primacy of lesbianism to the novel showing that Proust's lesbians are the only characters to achieve a plenitude of reciprocated desire. The example of Sodom by contrast is characterized by frustrated longing and self loathing. She locates the work's paradigm of hermetic relations between women in the self sufficient bond between the narrator's mother and grandmother. Ladenson traces Proust's depictions of male and female homosexuality from his early work onward and contextualizes his account of lesbianism in late nineteenth century sexology and early twentieth century thought. A vital contribution to the fields of queer theory and of French literature and culture. Ladenson's book marks a new stage in Proust studies and provides a fascinating chapter in the history of a literary masterpiece's reception

Claude Simon Maria Minich Brewer,1995-01-01 Reputed to be a conservative group the Nobel Prize committee astonished the world in 1985 by giving its prize to Claude Simon one of the most adventurous and challenging of modern authors whose writing defies easy classification. This study shows exactly how inventive and challenging he is. Simon's works run the gamut from first person narratives to narratives without a stable perspective. His novels deal with minute details of the grand stages of history world war for instance and with the historical dimensions of everyday life. Maria Minich Brewer demonstrates that Simon has reformulated the standard forms of fiction to expose the logic of narrative a complex and powerful legacy populated with stereotypes too easily accepted as natural. Her book brings into focus the cultural legacies embedded in narrative as well as the narrative dimensions of culture and history. Simon has voiced suspicion of narrative order. He never underestimates however either its pervasiveness or its powers. In his novels he never dismisses narrative order as being merely a matter of formal conventions. On the contrary he reveals narrative representation to be a powerful agent of some of the most violent events to which an individual is subject.

Aesthetic Theory Theodor W. Adorno Adorno,2020-06-09 Perhaps the most important aesthetics of the twentieth century appears here newly translated in English that is for the first time faithful to the intricately demanding language of the original German The culmination of a lifetime of aesthetic investigation Aesthetic Theory is Adorno's major work a defense of modernism that is paradoxical in its defense of illusion In it Adorno takes up the problem of art in a day when it goes without saying that nothing concerning art goes without saying In the course of his discussion Adorno revisits such concepts as the sublime the ugly and the beautiful demonstrating that concepts such as these are reservoirs of human experience These experiences ultimately underlie aesthetics for in Adorno's formulation art is the sedimented history of human misery Robert Hullot-Kentor's translation painstakingly yet fluently reproduces the nuances and particularities of the original Long awaited and significant Aesthetic Theory is the clarifying lens through which the whole of Adorno's work is best viewed providing a framework within which his other major writings cohere

Aesthetic Ideology Paul De Man, Andrzej Warminski, The core of Aesthetic Ideology is a rigorous inquiry into the relation of rhetoric epistemology and aesthetics and one that offers radical notions of materiality These texts were written or delivered as lectures during the last years of de Man's life

Pathologies of Modern Space Kathryn Milun, 2013-10-18 Pathologies of Modern Space traces the rise of agoraphobia and ties its astonishing growth to the emergence of urban modernity In contrast to traditional medical conceptions of the disorder Kathryn Milun shows that this anxiety is closely related to the emergence of empty urban space homogenous space such as malls and parking lots stripped of memory and tactile features Pathologies of Modern Space is a compelling cultural analysis of the history of medical treatments for agoraphobia and what they can tell us about the normative expectations for the public self in the modern city
