- Expanding sentences to convey the actions of characters/events that impact the story and causal relationships, including plan, problem/solution, and attempts.

*By the end of this stage of the Scope and Sequence, students develop use of causal chains in their retelling of stories, progressing in their ability to talk about an initiating event that sets the story into motion and about a character's plan or goal of event chains. Students begin to talk about characters' feelings and reactions to events, and as this ability progresses, an understanding of story relationships begins to emerge, along with consistent use of but, so, and because to connect ideas and explain story relationships.
