

Using either Zen in the Art of Writing or On Writing Well, come up with five principles of strong writing that you believe the author would endorse. Remember, you are not summarizing what the author said in the book; you are using your previous knowledge and the book to create your own ideas about what makes strong writing.

Put your principles into the following format:

"Strong writers...."

1. Strong writers have a personal connection and passion to the topic they are writing about.
2. Strong writers write fast and don't stop, this way you get the full truth.
3. Strong writers start by making a prescription list of adjectives and nouns help create quick creative inspiration to write about.
4. Strong writers use what we have experienced with our 5 senses and experiences over our lifespan to create our muse, which is a key concept in our style of writing.
5. Strong writer's success depends on how well they know their own life, which is the most important subject to know.

For your assessment, select any essay you have written in this segment and analyze your own writing. Reflect on the five principles of strong writing you created from your reading synthesis, and then write a paragraph reflecting how your writing incorporates—or could incorporate with revisions—all five principles. Use actual examples from your essay to support your reflection.

Spiritual songs and modern protest songs are years apart but so similar in purpose and idea. The Underground Railroad was a point in history that created many spiritual songs about the time. For example "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," by Fats Waller. Nowadays some big ideas expressed in songs are racial equality, gun violence, and feminism. Kendrick Lamar has many powerful protest songs but one specifically stands out, "DNA". Both "DNA" and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" use rhetorical strategies to get their message across, specifically pathos.

Pathos tries to connect with the reader emotionally. Swing low, Sweet Chariot does a great job with conveying this through symbolism. Swing low, Sweet chariot was about the slaves that tried to escape to the north through the Underground Railroad. However it could also just be referencing the Old Testament. The first line says, "Swing low, Sweet Chariot / Comin' for to carry me home". "Sweet Chariot" means the Underground Railroad and "Comin' for to carry me home" means to take us to the North. This connected to slaves at the time emotionally as they were living with in these conditions. The slaves were waiting and wishing to be able to find a way to the North. The Underground Railroad was a hidden route to the North and it had safe housing for the slaves that were trying to escape. Now when
