Reading Narrative Fiction:

Literary Fiction Geir Farnen, 2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farnen systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature Reading Network

Fiction David Ciccoricco, 2007-11-25 Ciccoricco analyzes innovative developments in network fiction from first generation writers Michael Joyce Twilight a symphony 1997 and Stuart Moulthrop Victory Garden 1991 through Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter 2000 an acclaimed example of digital literature in its latter instantiations on the Web Each investigation demonstrates not only what the digital environment might mean for narrative theory but also the ability of network fictions to sustain a mode of reading that might arguably be called literary BOOK JACKET In Defense of Reading Sarah E.

Worth, 2017-02-08 Why should we read We assume that reading is good for us but often we cannot articulate exactly what it does for us In this fascinating book Sarah Worth addresses from a philosophical perspective the many ways in which reading benefits us morally socially and cognitively Worth leads her readers through the subtle questions of the ways in which we understand fiction nonfiction and the overlap and blending of other genre distinctions Ultimately she argues that reading hearing and telling well told stories is of the utmost importance in developing a healthy sense of personal identity a greater sense of narrative coherence and an increased ability to make different kinds of inferences Engaging classical philosophical questions in the contemporary landscape of educational literacy and the inclusion of fiction in a classroom curriculum Worth demonstrates how our hyper focus on genre distinctions moves us away from a real engagement with narrative understanding and narrative comprehension

Empathy and the Strangeness of Fiction Maria C. Scott, 2020-03-02 Explores how and why narrative fiction engages empathy including Theory of Mind Offers a broad overview of current scientific work on the effects of fiction reading on empathy including Theory of Mind Provides an original intervention in the field of literary theory centring on the reflexive properties of the fictional stranger Includes stand alone close readings of three novels by important French authors This book studies recent psychological findings which suggest that reading fiction cultivates empathy encouraging us to be critically reflective suspicious readers as well as participatory nave readers Scott draws on literary theory and close readings to argue that engagement with fictional stories also teaches us to resist uncritical forms of empathy and reminds us of the limitations of our ability to understand other people The book treats figures of the stranger in Balzac's La Fille aux yeux d'or Stendhal's Le Rouge et le Noir and Sand's Indiana as emblematic of the strangeness of narrative fiction both drawing us in and keeping us at a distance An Introduction to Narratology,

Why We Read Fiction Lisa Zunshine, 2006 Why We Read Fiction offers a lucid overview of the most exciting area of research in contemporary cognitive psychology known as Theory of Mind and discusses its implications for literary studies It covers a broad range of fictional narratives from Richardson's Clarissa Dostoyevski's Crime and Punishment and Austen's Pride and Prejudice to Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Nabokov's Lolita and Hammett's The Maltese Falcon Zunshine's surprising new interpretations of well known literary texts and popular cultural representations constantly prod her readers to rethink their own interest in fictional narrative Written for a general audience this study provides a jargon free introduction to the rapidly growing interdisciplinary field known as cognitive approaches to literature and culture Rhetorical Narratology Michael S.

Kearns, 1999-01-01 In Rhetorical Narratology Michael Kearns redresses this one sidedness by combining traditional narratology's tools for analyzing texts with rhetoric's tools for analyzing audiences Guiding Kearns's approach is speech act theory which in emphasizing the rule governed context in which any text is produced and received provides the means for describing how the structures of narrative may affect certain audiences in certain ways The central question that rhetorical narratology attempts to answer is how do the various narrative elements isolated by narratologists actually work on readers BOOK JACKET Self-Reflective Fiction and 4E Cognition Merja Polvinen, 2022-12-30 This book brings together the study of self reflective fiction and the contemporary 4E theories of cognition in order to challenge existing cognitive theoretical models and approaches to literary phenomena Polvinen presents reflective attention on artifice as an integral part of engagement with fictional narratives rather than as an external viewpoint that would obscure immersive experiences The detailed analyses included are both of traditionally metafictional texts by John Barth A S Byatt Dave Eggers and Ali Smith as well as of speculative fictions by Ted Chiang China Mi ville Christopher Priest and Catherynne M Valente Each of the chapters focuses on a specific issue of fictional cognition on metaphorical representation spatiality temporality and fictionality As a whole the book argues that by combining a literary and theoretically complex view of artifice with the enactive paradigm of perception and imagination practitioners of cognitive literary studies can further sharpen their own conceptual and terminological apparatus and continue to generate fruitful hermeneutic circulation around the study of the imagination in both the sciences and the humanities This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in cognitive approaches to literary studies speculative fiction metafiction and narrative studies Computational Social Science Wei Luo, Maria Ciurea, Santosh Kumar, 2021-02-18 Selected papers from the International Conference on New Computational Social Science focusing on the following five aspects Big data acquisition and analysis Integration of qualitative research and quantitative research Sociological Internet experiment research Application of ABM simulation method in Sociology Research

Research and development of new social computing tools With the rapid development of information technology especially sweeping progress in the Internet of things cloud computing social networks social media and big data social computing as a data intensive science is an emerging field that leverages the capacity to collect and analyze data with an unprecedented breadth depth and scale It represents a new computing paradigm and an interdisciplinary field of research and application A broad comprehension of major topics involved in social computing is important for both scholars and practitioners This proceedings presents and discusses key concepts and analyzes the state of the art of the field The conference not only gave insights on social computing but also affords conduit for future research in the field Social computing has two distinct trends One is on the social science issues such as computational social science computational sociology social network analysis etc The other is on the use of computational techniques Finally some new challenges ahead are summarized including interdisciplinary cooperation and training big data sharing for scientific data mashups and privacy protect

Proust and Emotion Inge Crosman Wimmers,2003-01-01 In Proust and Emotion Inge Crosman Wimmers proposes a new approach to A la recherche du temps perdu that centres on the role of affect Through close reading of the hero narrator's personal history the author shows how emotional paradigms especially separation anxiety involuntary memory and other compelling impressions give focus and structure to Proust's novel Drawing on reader oriented and emotion theories she shows how affect commands the attention of the motivated reader and is crucial to the process of self understanding for both the narrator and the reader This is the first extensive study in English to take fully into consideration the drafts esquisses published in the new Pl iade edition of the novel the Mauriac edition of Albertine disparue and material from the unpublished Proust manuscripts all of which shed further light on the importance of affect in A la recherche Proust and Emotion will appeal to readers interested in an approach to Proust that combines insights from philosophy psychology and literary aesthetics and in a poetics of reading that pays particular attention to emotion

Reading Contingency David Wylot, 2019-11-25 In Reading Contingency The Accident in Contemporary Fiction David Wylot constructs an innovative study of the relationship between plotted accidents in twenty first century British and American fiction the phenomenology of reading and a contemporary experience of time that is increasingly understood to be contingent and accidental A synthesis of literary and cultural analysis narratology critical theories of time and the philosophy of contingency the book explores the accident's imagination of contemporary time and the relationship between reading and living in novels by writers including A M Homes Nicola Barker Noah Hawley J M Coetzee J G Ballard Jesmyn Ward Jennifer Egan and Tom McCarthy

Making Time Carolin Gebauer, 2021-04-19 2023 Perkins Prize of the International Society for the Study of Narrative ESSE Book Award for Junior Scholars for a book in the field of Literatures in the English Language Responding to the current surge in present tense novels Making Time is an innovative contribution to narratological research on present tense usage in narrative fiction Breaking with the tradition of conceptualizing the present tense purely as a deictic category denoting synchronicity between a narrative event and its presentation the study redefines present tense narration as a fully fledged narrative strategy whose functional potential far exceeds temporal relations between story and discourse The first part of the volume presents numerous analytical categories that systematically describe the formal structural functional and syntactic dimensions of present tense usage in narrative fiction These categories are then deployed to investigate the uses and functions of present tense narration in selected twenty first century novels including Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall Margaret Atwood's Oryx and

Crake Ian McEwan's Nutshell and Irvine Welsh's Skagboys The seven case studies serve to illustrate the ubiquity of present tense narration in contemporary fiction ranging from the historical novel to the thriller and to investigate the various ways in which the present tense contributes to narrative worldmaking The Performance of Reading Peter Kivy, 2008-04-15 The Performance of Reading argues that there are distinct analogies between silent reading and artistic performance and so fashions the new role of the reader as performer An original and insightful exploration of the act of reading by the leading scholar in the field Discusses the history of reading and the transitions from reading aloud to reading silently and the changing role of literature as communal active experience to a more private endeavor Digital Paper Andrew Abbott, 2014-08-04 Shows the reader how to harness new technology while upholding the highest standards of research The result is a joy to read a boon for students Robert J Sampson professor of the social sciences at Harvard University Today's researchers have access to more information than ever before Yet the new material is both overwhelming in quantity and variable in quality How can scholars survive these twin problems and produce groundbreaking research using the physical and electronic resources available in the modern university research library In Digital Paper Andrew Abbott provides some much needed answers to that question Abbott tells what every senior researcher knows that research is not a mechanical linear process but a thoughtful and adventurous journey through a nonlinear world He breaks library research down into seven basic and simultaneous tasks design search scanning browsing reading analyzing filing and writing He moves the reader through the phases of research from confusion to organization from vague idea to polished result He teaches how to evaluate data and prior research how to follow a trail to elusive treasures how to organize a project when to start over when to ask for help He shows how an understanding of scholarly values a commitment to hard work and the flexibility to change direction combine to enable the researcher to turn a daunting mass of found material into an effective paper or thesis More than a mere how to manual Abbott's guidebook helps teach good habits for acquiring knowledge the foundation of knowledge worth knowing Those looking for ten easy steps to a perfect paper may want to look elsewhere But serious scholars who want their work to stand the test of time will appreciate Abbott's unique forthright approach and relish every page of Digital Paper

An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett, Nicholas Royle, 2023-03-23 Lively original and highly readable An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at The Beginning and concluding with The End chapters range from the familiar such as Character Narrative and The Author to the more unusual such as Secrets Pleasure and Ghosts Now in its sixth edition Bennett and Royle's classic textbook successfully illuminates complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference for example while Chaucer Monty Python and Hilary Mantel are all invoked in a discussion of literature and laughter The sixth edition has been revised and updated throughout In addition four new chapters Literature Loss Human and Migrant engage with exciting recent developments in literary studies As well as fully up to date further reading sections at the end of each chapter the book contains a comprehensive bibliography and an invaluable glossary of key literary terms A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader s eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of reading and studying literature      Reading for Pleasure: International Perspectives Teresa Cremin, Sarah McGeown, 2025-03-19 Growing evidence of the vital role reading for pleasure plays in children and young people s academic outcomes and socio emotional wellbeing has placed it high on the agenda in both educational policy and practice This valuable collection draws upon a range of disciplinary perspectives and methodological approaches to explore how reading for pleasure is experienced and enacted and highlights the implications and benefits of such volitional reading in the lives and learning of children and young people It offers contributions from leading international researchers on current evidence and literature within the field identifying the causes and consequences of reading for pleasure and framing this within the context of understanding readers and applying this to developing effective pedagogical practices With chapters examining how we may shape the reading experience this book is divided into four sections Understanding readers including factors such as motivation gender and identity The nature of texts including fiction sensory and digital texts Pedagogies and practices exploring agency book talk and reading aloud Environments conducive to reading for pleasure including homes school libraries classrooms and communities Presenting diverse and interdisciplinary perspectives this will be a key text for researchers teacher educators and policy makers who wish to become better informed in their thinking discourse and practice when supporting children and young people in learning to read for pleasure
