Reading Nelligan:

Reading Nelligan Emile Talbot, 2003-05 mile Nelligan 1879 1941 wrote all of his poetry as an adolescent before spending four decades in a psychiatric asylum Considering all of Nelligan's work and using a largely textual approach mile Talbot points out the Canadian roots of Nelligan's originality He argues that these are discernable despite Nelligan's use of the discourse of nineteenth century continental French poetry particularly that of the Parnassians and the Decadents Talbot's textual analysis is integrated with a consideration of the social cultural artistic and religious climate of both late nineteenth century Montreal and the European literary culture to which Nelligan was responding Talbot considers such pertinent factors as the spirituality of guilt the role of the mother and a societal context that rejected both the revelation of the self and the autonomy of art In doing so he sheds new light on Nelligan's use of European poetic language to fashion a poetry marked by his own culture

Nelligan's Legacy Thomas F. Kistner, 2000-10-04 Nelligan's Legacy is a story of big time New Jersey politics and vicious treachery The novel is written with such a firm grip on the way things really are in this hotbed of ambition and intrigue that it could only have been written by someone who has spent a great deal of time in those trenches Tom Kistner is that man Richard V Nelligan a retiring corporate big shot is asked to take the reins of the powerful formerly boss controlled Middlesex County Democratic Organization He teams up with a young local political phenom Thomas Jefferson Hobbs who he hires as his executive director and right hand man and together they not only maintain the organization's strength but take it to new heights The reader is given unfiltered access to a big time political headquarters and its daily workings All communications go through Democratic headquarters or they go nowhere like personal checks big or small must go through a Federal Reserve clearing house or they are not redeemed These communications take many forms and are usually cryptic slanted vague and occasionally sinister but always obscure and ambiguous I just want you and Dick to know I'm not available for that Senate spot on the ticket next year I'd love to help you guys out but my law practice has just gotten too busy I don't have the time Don't worry Ed we won't call you Hobbs who is this Musso guy from your town he keeps sending me resumes and pictures of his wife and kids Wants to be an Assemblyman or Freeholder Shouldn't he be going through the organization Yes George he should Just throw the shit away You know we haven't had a Freeholder from this end of the county for almost thirty years It's been about that long since you gave us a Democratic plurality Look all I'm saying is it would help if he wasn't Jewish too many Hebes on the board now Listen it's your town We don't give a shit what you do but some of the guys think it would be smart if you got rid of him he's trouble that's off the record unofficial it's your town you do what's best for your people We'd like you to come speak to our group They need a lift to feel like they matter We they sometimes feel left out When and where Pulaski Hall next Tuesday at eight You got it I'll be there Québec Studies, 1995

OK2BG Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor preferably to a teenager so they can have a decent meaningful conversation about stuff preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential find or reinforce their place in the world Overall a chronicle about the author s attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor which eventually helps him become a more insightful person Subsequently in September 2010 after a plague of teen suicides Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying After 5 years Jack has categorized 2 000 books in the form of Memoirs Biographies Autobiographies written by or about 1 000 allegedly gay men The primary message in OK2BG is to read reassess before you run asunder Wisconsin Magazine of History Milo Milton Quaife, Joseph Schafer, Edward Porter Alexander, 2010

France and the Americas Bill Marshall, 2005-05-24 A unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the impacts that French and American politics foreign policy and culture have had on shaping each country s identity From 17th century fur traders in Canada to 21st century peacekeepers in Haiti from France s decisive role in the Revolutionary War leading to the creation of the United States to recent disagreements over Iraq France and the Americas charts the history of the inextricable links between France and the nations of the Americas This comprehensive survey features an incisive introduction and a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of France s transatlantic relations Students of many disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this comprehensive survey which traces the common themes of both French policy language and influence throughout the Americas and the wide ranging transatlantic influences on contemporary France A History of Canadian Literature William H. New, William Herbert New, 2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary

Journal Marie Uguay,2024-01-27 Written shortly before her death from bone cancer at the age of twenty six Marie Uguay s Journal weaves together prose and poetry to chronicle her philosophical questioning and her erotic longing for an impossible love Despite the surgical changes imposed on her body and her mounting loneliness Uguay s work evokes a lust for life and a passionate pursuit of artistic ambition Journal edited by St phan Kovacs and translated by Jennifer Moxley demonstrates both the maturity of Uguay s voice and the raw emotions in her writing process cementing her place in the Qu becois literary scene
