Readings In Social Problems Third 3rd Edition:

SAGE Readings for Social Problems Benjamin Drury, 2021-02-02 SAGE Readings for Social Problems is a convenient and economical option for instructors who want to introduce students to scholarly literature in their social problems courses. It contains 16 short readings on topics covered in typical courses including economic inequality, race, gender, crime, substance abuse, education, health, medicine, the environment, family, and the social construction of social problems. The articles in this collection were all chosen because they are accessible to undergraduate students, avoid complicated statistical analysis, and demonstrate the range of methodological approaches to studying social problems. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977. Racism in the United States, Third Edition Ann Marie Garran, Joshua L. Miller, Lisa Werkmeister Rozas, Hye-Kyung Kang, 2021-12-13 The only comprehensive book on racism for human service students and professionals, this book addresses all forms of racism from an historical, theoretical, institutional, interpersonal, and professional perspective. This text discusses how racism can be dealt with in clinical, communal, and organizational contexts. The third edition encompasses a wealth of vital new scholarship on the perpetually changing contours of racism and strategies to confront it. Fulfilling NASW and CSWE cultural competency requirements, this book teaches socially just practices to helping professionals from any discipline. Using coloniality and other critical theories as a conceptual framework, the text analyzes all levels of racism: structural, personal, interpersonal, professional, and cultural. It features the contributions of a new team of authors and scholars, new conceptual and theoretical material, a new chapter on immigration, racism, and updated content to reflect how racism and white supremacy are manifested today, and new content on the impact of racism on economics, technology, and environmental degradation. Expanded sections on slavery, current political manifestations of racism, and much more. The new edition provides in-depth, multilevel, complex exploration and includes varied perspectives that will be meaningful for anyone involved in human services. Readers appreciate the book's sensitive, complex, and multidimensional approach to this difficult topic. Purchase includes digital access for use on most mobile devices or computers. New to the Third Edition: Integrates the perspectives and insights of two new expert authors. Includes a new chapter on the root causes for the increased flow of migrants, displaced people, and refugees, and the impact of racism on their lives, and discusses the rise of fascism and white supremacy along with the confluence of racism and COVID-19. Includes a new model of dialogue, Critical Conversations, which offers a roadmap for facilitating productive conversations on race and racism. Presents updated coverage of the killings of young people of color by law enforcement. Offers a detailed examination of the Trump era and the impact of Obama's presidency on the dynamics of racism. Provides practical applications which include exercises that explore social group and intersectional identities, stereotypes, microaggressions, organizational audits, and structural oppression. Key Features: Addresses how racism is part of the DNA of human services organizations and provides strategies for facilitating change. Explains how professionals can resist racism and serve as anti-racism activists.

Provides practical applications and exercises in each chapter Includes instructor s manual links to relevant podcasts and additional resources and PowerPoint outlines for each chapter

Forces of Deviance Victor E. Kappeler,Richard D. Sluder,Geoffrey P. Alpert,1998-01-29 An informative look at a very difficult topic The discretion authority and power granted the police to accomplish their mission offer multiple opportunities for deviance This revised edition effectively organizes a large amount of material in order to provide students with a timely and comprehensive review of this disturbing dimension of police organizations The authors analysis of deviance as the product of the organization of the occupation the expectations of society and the perceptions and interpretations of the role of the police are compellingly presented A fascinating portrait of the social and organizational factors of the police working environment emerges providing students with a broad framework for assessing the police culture and the many forms of police deviance Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service,1925 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1983

Violence at the Intersection Toya Z. Like,2024-08-01 Violence at the Intersection The Interlocking Impact of Race Ethnicity Gender and Class on Risk and Resilience builds upon and expands recent scholarship on the intersectionality of race ethnicity gender gender identity and class and their multiplicative effects on violent offending and victimization Specifically the work examines how these intersections of identity not only affect risks for experiences with violence but also account for the development and expansion of social capital in the form of resilience and human agency among those at risk The results of the research provide a critical assessment of how embodied identities are commonly used to assess those at risk while largely ignoring that these individuals are simultaneously at resilience This work moves beyond the extant literature by considering the role of resilience in violence among disadvantaged groups The work also contributes to growing research on identity and its centrality to experiences with violence and provides an in depth understanding of varied pathways to human agency and the development of social capital even among those who are deemed disadvantaged in society This book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields including Criminology Criminal Justice Women Gender Studies Sexuality Studies Race and Ethnicity Studies and Violence Studies Fundamentals of Sociology of Sport and Physical Activity Katherine M.
