

Real Estate Case Study

Overview
Rutherford Estate is one of the country's leading real estate companies. Since its start in 1950, the company has earned its spot in the Top 5 most reliable real estate companies in the country. Rutherford currently employs 30 licensed real estate agents who all gained their national credentials from working with the company.

For the past five years, the company made over $84.5k million from the sale of 23 residential commercial properties. This is one of the lowest in the history of Rutherford. The company is a leader in ensuring the continuity of good workforce skills by not actively recruiting young real estate agents in the previous years. Approximately half of the older real estate agents are retiring.

Challenges
Rutherford understood the three challenges of the situation. First, the company must implement a training and development course for the new real estate agents so they can acquire the techniques of Rutherford's past agents. Second, Rutherford must outsource its recruitment to a professional recruitment agency to ensure a steady workforce and skills continuity. Third, in this phase of operations, the company must rectify its strategies to meet the capabilities of its largely new workforce and the overhead expenses associated with this.

Solutions
Rutherford launched the Rutherford Technique Development Programme which contained three modules: theoretical knowledge of real estate, the Rutherford technique, and practical applications. All 23 new real estate agents passed the practical applications. After a month, Rutherford saw a 48% improvement in its operations relative to the past three months. More equipped teams were created based on their performances in the program and they made 43 leads where 31 of which were successfully closed. Meanwhile, the company partnered with Keeling Recruitment. Because of the rapid improvement, Rutherford stuck to its original target but allocated the needed resources for the program.

Conclusion

Even though Rutherford adapted to the challenge, it learned to always keep a good foresight of its operations to prevent unnecessary problems to arise.

Canada can be a smart safe and successful way to invest your money However like most things in life success requires hard work You need to do your homework understand what you are buying and know the pros and cons of various decisions Most importantly you also need to know how to structure and maintain your investment That s where we come in Experience is a good teacher but its lessons can be nasty and in the real estate business mistakes can cost you big bucks Our goal with this book is to help you do it right the first time Rest assured that this book covers a vast range of topics and you re going to appreciate its breadth and depth if you re wondering about things like whether You should opt for a sole proprietorship versus a partnership or corporate ownership strategy There are things you can do to manage the way HST impacts your real estate investment business You need information about the tax implications of a real estate disposition You can change your bookkeeping system to better meet your needs and those of your accountant Who Are We This book was written by two individuals whose collective experience in helping Canadians make wise property investment decisions spans several decades Steve Cohen is a securities lawyer with a great deal of experience in the real estate sector George Dube is a chartered accountant whose knowledge is based on many years of helping clients with their property buying needs Both Steve and George are real estate investors themselves Working from this foundation we have put together the definitive guide on how to build a successful real estate portfolio in Canada from a legal tax and accounting perspective Essays in Honor of James A. Graaskamp: Ten Years After James R. DeLisle, Elaine Worzala, 2012-12-06 As the title indicates Essays in Honor of James A. Graaskamp Ten Years After is a collection of essays written to honor Graaskamp s major contributions to the field of real estate education and practice over the course of three decades Upon his death in 1988 the industry lost a major influence for advancing the real estate discipline both as an academic field and a professional field The authors in this volume seek to extend Graaskamp s contributions and move the real estate discipline forward The papers address the challenges posed by the market to return our attention to real estate fundamentals and to strike a proper balance between Main Street and Wall Street The authors and editors hope that this book will influence the industry to incorporate many of Graaskamp s ideas into mainstream real estate education and practice Over the course of his career Graaskamp made many noteworthy contributions to real estate theory and practice ideas that if resurrected could offset some of the pressure in the industry to move away from market fundamentals The authors try to capture the essence of Graaskamp s messages and intend that the papers serve as a point of departure for discussing the future role and nature of real estate education Part I focuses on the major contributions to the real estate discipline made by Graaskamp and the Wisconsin Real Estate Program Part II contains some personal recollections and photos of Graaskamp and also a summary of the groups that make up the Wisconsin Real Estate Program a major co sponsor of this volume The rest of the book s three main parts are structured around major topics that reflect the multidisciplinary nature of real estate as espoused by Graaskamp Part III treats real estate feasibility and development Part IV concentrates on real estate valuation and Part V discusses institutional economics Beyond Real Estate Licensing: Case Study Analysis of Behavioral Assessment Relationship Applied to Human Performance Conrad R. Richards, 2010-02-16 Conrad's new book Beyond Real Estate Licensing Case Study Analysis of Behavioral Assessment Relationship Applied to Human Performance is an outgrowth of his doctoral studies. The specific problem this research addresses pertains to whether behavioral readiness has an impact upon real estate brokerage sales performance. Although real estate students may score high on the real estate licensing examinations, it may not prove the students' ability to perform in a real estate brokerage performance sales environment. The most important performance criteria in real estate sales could be conceived as a developed personality capacity and alignment of motivational values. It is also noted that learning sales facilitators can not guarantee the knowledge transfer to performance unless behavioral readiness is presented. Therefore, behavioral assessment analysis can be considered as an integral aide to performance improvement. The purpose of this study was to establish the organizational responsibility towards behavioral assessment analysis during the pre employment phase. The results of this study indicate that behavioral assessments may improve the overall recruitment and selection capability and to identify the necessary behavioral readiness that is necessary for knowledge transfer into sales performance.

Performance Improvement in Construction Management Brian Atkin, Jan Borgbrant, 2009-09-25 Novel research in construction management is often distant from existing practice. This collection of reviews serves to bridge this gap under three major themes: innovation, organisation and human behaviour, and methods and tools. It outlines a series of successful collaborative projects between industry and the academic and research communities. Many of the authors have worked in technology transfer as change agents, resolving industrially relevant problems by using scientifically based research. The book reveals the source of ideas, data and results to provide a useful resource for researchers, academics and graduate students, and a challenging guide for senior industry managers.

Redefining Public Relations in Emerging Markets Genevieve Bosah, Robert E. Hinson, Eric Kwame Adae, 2025-08-19 This book explores the dynamics of public relations (PR) in emerging economies across Africa, South America and Asia. Offering an in depth examination of the cultural, political and media landscapes that define PR practices in these regions, chapters highlight innovative approaches, challenges and opportunities for both scholars and practitioners. The authors explore the unique ways organisations address ethical dilemmas, respond to crises and leverage purpose driven campaigns to build trust and safeguard reputations. Offering insights into the integration of digital tools and AI in PR, the book explores the evolution of gender dynamics in leadership, the role of PR in addressing socio environmental crises and stakeholder engagement. A valuable resource for PR practitioners, academics and students, this book bridges global trends with local adaptations, offering practical guidance and a thought provoking analysis on the exciting and complex world of public relations in emerging economies.

Handbook of Finance, Financial Markets and Instruments Frank J. Fabozzi, 2008-11-03 Volume I Financial Markets and Instruments skillfully covers the general characteristics of different asset classes, derivative instruments, the markets in which financial instruments trade and the players in those markets It also addresses the role of financial markets in an economy the structure and organization of financial markets the efficiency of markets and the determinants of asset pricing and interest rates Incorporating timely research and in depth analysis the Handbook of Finance is a comprehensive 3 Volume Set that covers both established and cutting edge theories and developments in finance and investing Other volumes in the set Handbook of Finance Volume II Investment Management and Financial Management and Handbook of Finance Volume III Valuation Financial Modeling and Quantitative Tools The Real Estate Finance Journal ,1993 Mass Appraisal Methods Tom Kauko,Maurizio d'Amato,2009-01-28 This book takes a cross disciplinary and cross cultural look at mass appraisal expertise for property valuation in different market conditions and offers some cutting edge approaches The editors establish an international platform and present the scientific debate as well as practical feasibility considerations Heretic and orthodox valuation methods are assessed based on specific criteria partly technical and partly institutional Methodological evaluation is approached using two types of criteria operational concerns about how to determine property value differentials between spatial and functional units of real estate in a valid and reliable way technical criteria and the kind of market circumstances being operated in institutional criteria While technical criteria are relatively well researched there is little theoretically informed work on the connection between country context and selection of property appraisal methods The book starts with an examination of current mass property appraisal practices presenting case studies from widely differing markets from the American and Dutch where regression based methods have been used successfully for some time to the Eastern European and other emerging economies where limitations have to be compensated by focusing on the modelling assumptions The second part of the book looks at sophisticated modelling approaches some of which represent combinations of elements from two or more techniques Whatever the exact modelling approach the requirements are always high for the quality of the data and suitability of the method In the final section methods are evaluated and compared according to technical criteria and against institutional contexts With its exceptionally wide coverage of valuation issues Mass Appraisal Methods an international perspective for property valuers addresses property valuation problems common to different countries and approaches applicable in both developed and emerging economies Smart and Resilient Infrastructure For Emerging Economies: Perspectives on Building Better Innocent Musonda,Erastus Mwanaumo,Adetayo Onososen,Thembani Moyo,2023-11-23 Smart and Resilient Infrastructure For Emerging Economies Perspectives on Building Better is about pressing and multidimensional challenges faced in constructing resilient sustainable and smart infrastructure in developing countries The 32 case studies literature reviews comparative analyses and systematic reviews cover a wide range of topics including sustainable and resilient infrastructure development smart cities digital innovation in construction infrastructure investment construction ergonomics socio environmental sustainability gender equity and climate change responses The contributions present innovative solutions impactful insights and substantive contributions to the discourse on sustainable
