Migrations and

Creative Expressions in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, Niyi Afolabi, Adérónké Adésolá Adésànyà, 2008

Contributors ranging from architects to linguists explore the cultural and spiritual dynamics of migrations in Africa and the African diaspora. The co-authored volume provides readers with fresh insights on African migration and the attendant implications, productions and generations of the historic experiences of those who were forcefully displaced and others who willfully relocated to other spaces of the world. The book seeks to engage debates on multiple issues which underpin the provoking history of African migration and their attendant implications, provoke a rethinking of the sociology and politics of migrating souls and resistant spirits in the Americas, Europe and Africa, the restive yet resolute entities scattered still metaphorically united in their quest for and hold on to identity, engender fresh understanding and interpretations of cultural ethos of African native homelands and establish where present their replication in migrant communities in the diaspora and tie African migration history with modernity thereby underscoring the points of their interactions, departures and tangentially establishing remembrances. Musik uden grænser: en personlig guide til verdensmusikken Christian Braad
