Say it in Samoan Ulrike Mosel, Ainslie So'o, 1997 Pacific Voices Talk Story Margo King Lenson, 2007 Pacific Voices Talk Story invites Pacific Americans to record their hearts and minds to be turned into pages not only Pacific Americans want to read but our neighbors up the street We've much to learn about ourselves other Islanders here and the diversity of America If we're not talking to each other now reading Pacific Voices Talk Story will tell you that tribalism and village mentalities followed us to the mainland Read and join the dialogue of Pacific Americans claiming new identities and finding a place in the mainland that trumps their nostalgic past The Samoans Frederic Koehler Sutter, 1989-07-01 Ua fuifui faatasi ae vaoeseese Gathered into one flock from different parts of the forest The beauty of this Samoan proverb poetically describes The Samoans A Global Family From the tea estates of Sri Lanka to the deserts of the Sudan from the Himalayas of Bhutan to the jungles of Brazil and from the People's Republic of China to Papua New Guinea a family is gathered in 285 color photographs captioned with the proverbs of 30 languages Each person recounts his or her autobiography a cardinal in Rome a cowboy in the outback of Australia a champion sumo wrestler in Japan a jet pilot in northern Alaska an NFL football player at the Super Bowl a nun in the slums of Lima Peru Each brings a story from his part of the forest The book is the result of a two and a half year odyssey around the world through 45 countries and 20 states and into the lives of over 125 Samoans documenting what it means to be Samoan not only in Samoa but in the farthest reaches of the globe

Indigenous leadership as an expression of a lived experience as seen felt and heard from the perspectives provided by Native Pacific Islanders Polynesians and more specifically Samoans from the Talavou clan Central to this study is the question What themes and elements influence Samoan leadership and how might these leaders provide others elsewhere with a different model of leadership to reduce the inequitable effects of capitalism s insatiable hunger for more power and material gain so that all people on planet Earth might thrive This study asserts that alternative models of leadership must be uncovered and that Native and Indigenous People specifically leaders hold the keys to moving our species beyond survival so that we can all thrive Liberating inclusive and anchored in self determinism it demonstrates that Native and Indigenous People know who they are why they exist and that they will continue to thrive despite the ongoing impositions of colonialization capitalization and globalization on their ways of being and knowing Ultimately it uncovers an Indigenous model of leadership based on the notion of alofa or love As a companion to the study the author has created an extended play album of original music titled Heart of the Matter which can be found online Leiautau Robert Jon Peterson EdD is president CEO and cofounder of TE2 Education and Engineering Consulting LLC Postcolonial Politics, The Internet and Everyday Life M.I.

cultures Samoan understandings of the self are more sociocentric accentuating the social roles that people play than egocentric emphasizing individual interior feelings and perceptions Yet in Samoa as in any culture aspects of the self that are not emphasized in cultural explanations of personhood continually reappear and must somehow be accounted for Jeannette Marie Mageo argues that all cultures attempt to encompass these stray experiences of the self within a discursive system She introduces a way of charting human development through cultural discourses which helps reveal how emotion gender and sexuality are constructed in Samoan society and other cultures including our own The second half of the book explores the effects of cultural contact and colonialization on the innermost experience of cultural subjects With its long ethnographic record Samoa provides a unique opportunity to consider the dialectic between historical change and personal experience opening a perspective on the ways in which cultural history is forever leaving its fingerprints upon human lives Theorizing Self in Samoa marks out important territory for psychological anthropology and students of Oceania and will appeal also to students and scholars in cultural studies women s studies and history Jeannette Marie Mageo is Associate Professor of Anthropology Washington State University Congressional Record ,1895 Congressional Record United States.
