earlier versions of the suttas Even those readers who are well acquainted with the Dhammapada will be enriched by this fresh encounter with a classic text

The Sayings of Buddha the Iti-vuttaka Justin Hartley Moore, 2014-10-05 From the PREFATORY NOTE In this book the Sayings or Logia of Buddha are translated for the first time into an Occidental language and it is gratifying that Dr Moore has accomplished the task of making them generally accessible

A V Williams Jackson From the PREFACE Since 1841 when Friedrich Spiegel published the first European edition of a Pali text the interest taken in the life and teachings of Buddha has been keen and marked Through the labors of Turnour D Alwis Childers Fausb ll Oldenberg Hardy Kern Davids

and others steady progress has been made both in our knowledge of the career of this great Eastern teacher and in the interpretation of the sacred books of his canon Chief among the agencies for the publication of these texts has been and still is the Pali Text Society of London under the direction of its scholarly founder and indefatigable worker T W Rhys Davids Up to its twenty fifth anniversary in April 1907 the society published through the collaboration of many scholars a total of 46 Buddhist texts in 59 volumes amounting in all to over 17 000 octavo pages In contrast with this great number of editions of the texts themselves the work of translating and commenting upon them has not however made equal progress Despite the translations of Rhys Davids Oldenberg Weber Neumann and others along with the labors of many enthusiastic interpreters the gaps to be filled in translating the canon are wide and many For this reason almost any comment or argument on any Buddhist topic must inevitably be regarded as only provisional if not in some cases even premature until all the texts together with their native commentaries shall have been sifted compared interpreted and criticized There is an element of the charm of the unknown in translating a book that has not been previously rendered into a Western tongue For that reason the work of translating the Iti vuttaka has been to me a task of much interest although the undertaking was somewhat like a dive into unfathomed waters Before closing these prefatory remarks I desire to express my thanks for a number of obligations which I owe to friends In matters of typography and the like I have had throughout the invaluable assistance of Mr George C O Haas to whom I gladly take this occasion of expressing my sincere thanks for his kindness in so generously putting at my disposal his exceptional acumen in proof reading My friend and fellow student Mr Charles J Ogden of Columbia University has helped me more than once by his brilliant criticism and Dr Truman Michelson among others has given me willing advice and comment But to one above all have I been a constant debtor throughout this task from its inception to its completion one who has played the role both of kindly guide and rigorous critic and who has most generously allotted to me a goodly portion of his time already filled to overflowing with multifarious duties Pleasant indeed has been the inspiration gained from a long association with and apprenticeship under my friend and teacher Professor A V Williams Jackson Justin Hartley Moore Columbia University New York City May 18 1908

Some Sayings of the Buddha ,2002 Quotes & Sayings from Buddhist Masters Sati Dhamma,2018-06-30 Buddhist Quotes by Thich Nhat Hanh Buddha Dala Lama Pema Ch dr n A disciplined mind brings happiness Buddha In mindfulness one is not only restful and happy but alert and awake Meditation is not evasion it is a serene encounter with reality Thich Nhat Hanh If you light a lamp for somebody it will also brighten your path Buddha In our struggle for freedom truth is the only weapon we possess Dala Lama Being interested in the Buddha s teaching is not a coincidence through our lives we have been learning about the ultimate truth the deeper meaning of life We have been learning from different traditions various teachers and gurus And sometimes we came across the teaching of the Buddha Where there is no dogma no rules to follow but a clear understanding of reality and its laws Life is built around principles that makes our world our universe stable and harmonious Knowing those rules allows us to align ourselves to this harmony The Buddha simply gave us a way to find the alignment faster The summary the Buddha once gave to a monk was First establish yourself in the starting point of wholesome states that is in purified moral discipline and in right view Then when your moral discipline is purified and your view straight you should practice the four foundations of mindfulness To give you a clear direction and view about this beautiful path I will start this book with Quotes directly from the Buddha and will continue with Quotes from different monks Lamas and Zen teachers who have shared their understanding through the ages Happiness is not something ready made It comes from your own actions Dala Lama The Buddha teaches that there is one defilement which gives rise to all the others one root which holds them all in place This root is ignorance avijja Bhikkhu Bodhi The Buddha says that the Dhamma the ultimate truth of things is directly visible timeless calling out to be approached and seen He says further that it is always available to us and that the place where it is to be realized is within oneself Bhikkhu Bodhi Happiness will never come to those who fail to appreciate what they already have Buddha May you all be liberated may you carry the burden easily and keep yourself happy Sati Dhamma Some Sayings of the Buddha, According to the Pāli Canon ,1939 Sayings of Buddha Itivuttaka,1965 Some Sayings of the Buddha ,1960
