

FRANK A. DE LA ROSA

BEYOND FORGETTING

Childhood memories of the author during the WWII in the Philippines

Having lived during and after the Second World War, Frank experienced the terrors of the war and the devastations that shortly followed. It was a challenging period to the world, more so to the eye of a four-year-old child. In this book, discover how the biggest war of history affected the life of an innocent child and how the challenges made him see and appreciate the simplest things in life. This book contains the unrecorded history of WWII as it happened to the typical families of a small town on a remote island in the Philippines. From surviving the war, overcoming the poverty of the time, and completing his education with flying colors, join Frank in his unusual yet exciting journey during and after WWII. Through his experience, see how positivity, camaraderie, and resourcefulness can transform even the most challenging situations into victory and success!
