Information Security in Nordic Countries ,1993 Om betydningen af informationssystemers tilg ngelighed og trov rdighed Paradise Planned Robert A.M. Stern,David Fishman,Jacob Tilove,2013-12-03 Paradise Planned is the definitive history of the development of the garden suburb a phenomenon that originated in England in the late eighteenth century was quickly adopted in the United State and northern Europe and gradually proliferated throughout the world These bucolic settings offered an ideal lifestyle typically outside the city but accessible by streetcar train and automobile Today the principles of the garden city movement are once again in play as retrofitting the suburbs has become a central issue in planning Strategies are emerging that reflect the goals of garden suburbs in creating metropolitan communities that embrace both the intensity of the city and the tranquility of nature Paradise Planned is the comprehensive encyclopedic record of this movement a vital contribution to architectural and planning history and an essential recourse for guiding the repair of the American townscape The Promise Fulfilled Odd Sverre Lovoll,1998 Mass Housing Miles Glendinning,2021-03-25 Shortlisted for the Alice Davis Hitchcock Medallion 2021 The Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain It will become the standard work on the subject Literary Review This major work provides the first comprehensive history of one of modernism s most defining and controversial architectural legacies the 20th century drive to provide homes for the people Vast programmes of mass housing high rise low rise state funded and built in the modernist style became a truly global phenomenon leaving a legacy which has suffered waves of disillusionment in the West but which is now seeing a dramatic 21st century renaissance in the booming crowded cities of East Asia Providing a global approach to the history of Modernist mass housing production this authoritative study combines architectural history with the broader social political cultural aspects of mass housing particularly the mass politics of power and state building throughout the 20th century Exploring the relationship between built form ideology and political intervention it shows how mass housing not only reflected the transnational ideals of the Modernist project but also became a central legitimizing pillar of nation states worldwide In a compelling narrative which likens the spread of mass housing to a Hundred Years War of successive campaigns and retreats it traces the history around the globe from Europe via the USA Soviet Union and a network of international outposts to its ultimate optimistic resurgence in China and the East where it asks Are we facing a new dawn for mass housing or another great housing failure in the making Ergonomics Guidelines and Problem Solving A. Mital,Å. Kilbom,S. Kumar,2000-01-31 There is an urgent need to disseminate ergonomics know how to the work place This book meets that need by providing clear guidelines and problem solving recommendations to assist the practitioner in decisions that directly protect the health safety and well being of the worker The guidelines have evolved from a series of symposia on Ergonomic Guidelines and Problem Solving Initially experts in each area selected were asked to write draft guidelines These guidelines were circulated to participants at the symposia and to other experts for review before being comprehensively revised In some instances these guidelines cannot be considered complete but it is important now to put some recommendations forward as guidelines It is hoped that as new research emerges each guideline will be updated Each guideline has been divided into two parts Part I contains the guidelines for the practitioner and Part II provides the scientific basis or the knowledge for the guide Such separation of the applied and theoretical content was designed to facilitate rapid incorporation of the guide into practice The target audience for this book is the practitioner The practitioner may be a manager production system designer shop supervisor occupational health and safety professional union representative labor inspector or production engineer For each of the guidelines relevant practitioners are described Topics covered include work
