Scar Of Race

Francis M. Agnoli

Scar Of Race:

The Scar of Race Paul M. Sniderman, Thomas Piazza, 1993 Attempts to define the issue of race in the 1980s and 1990s and whether or not there is a new racism more subtle and covert than that of a generation ago Black Enterprise, 1994-06 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Race-ing Justice, En-gendering Power Homi K. Bhabha, Kimberle Crenshaw, Margaret A. Burnham, Paula Giddings, A. Leon Higginbotham, Claudia Brodsky Lacour, Wahneema H. Lubiano, Manning Marable, Nellie Y. McKay, Nell Irvin Painter, Gayle Pemberton, Andrew Ross, Christine Stansell, Carol Miller Swain, Michael Thelwell, Kendall Thomas, Cornel West, Patricia J. Williams, 1992 Eighteen essays by prominent scholars reflect on the cultural historical political personal legal sexual and linguistic implications of the Thomas hearings and Hill's accusations Tobacco, Pipes, and Race in Colonial Virginia Anna S Agbe-Davies, 2016-06-03 Tobacco Pipes and Race in Colonial Virginia investigates the economic and social power that surrounded the production and use of tobacco pipes in colonial Virginia and the difficulty of correlating objects with cultural identities A common artifact in colonial period sites previous publications on this subject have focused on the decorations on the pipes or which ethnic group produced and used the pipes European African or Indian This book weaves together new interpretations analytical techniques classification schemes historical background and archaeological methods and theory Special attention is paid to the subfield of African diaspora research to display the complexities of understanding this class of material culture This fascinating study is accessible to the undergraduate reader as well as to graduate students and scholars The House That Race Built Wahneema Lubiano, 2010-06-09 In these essays brought together by the scholar Wahneema Lubiano some of today's most respected intellectuals share their ideas on race power gender and society The authors including Cornel West Angela Y Davis and Toni Morrison argue that we have reached a crisis of democracy represented by an ominous shift toward a renewed white nationalism in which racism is operating in coded quasi respectable new forms Oathbound Darrin Drader, Greg Dent, 2003-05 The great City of Penance is the oldest settlement on the Forge literally containing millions of years of history in its deep hulking mass Though nearly forty million souls call the city home less than half of one percent of the city's locations are inhabited The bulk of the Pedestal is a madly stacked and sprawling ruin only superficially explored by the relentless rafters and treasure seekers of the surface world Every home in the city has a hundred others lost beneath it and every city street stands atop an incredible three dimensional maze of corridors alleyways and crawlspaces a maze where time has left nothing unchanged eroding and distorting the framework of magic and even the laws of physics themselves Long past the grasp of any human control the ruins of Penance have become a true landscape vast beautiful and unforgiving with their own unique ecosystem and their own set of hazards and comforts Strange plants and creatures have evolved in the eternally darkened streets below the city and prey upon those foolish enough to step out of the city's gilded cage of civilization Wrack and Ruin is an essential guidebook for anyone intoxicated by the forgotten secrets of the past or by the potential power lost within the great city's crumbling majesty Don't leave your Bloodhold without it

The Psychoanalysis of Race Christopher Lane, 1998 Are divisive political forces the source of the historical persistence of racism and its alarming reoccurrence in contemporary society Or are there more subtle and more intractable causes This collection of essays studies the seemingly permanent racial undercurrents of society focusing on unconscious fantasies and identities

Race and the Animated Bodyscape Francis M. Agnoli, 2023-04-21 Race does not exist in animation it must instead be constructed and ascribed Yet over the past few years there has been growing discourse on the intersection of these two subjects within both academic and popular circles In Race and the Animated Bodyscape Constructing and Ascribing a Racialized Asian Identity in Avatar and Korra author Francis M Agnoli introduces and illustrates the concept of the animated bodyscape looking specifically at the US television series Avatar: The Last Airbender and its sequel The Legend of Korra Rather than consider animated figures as unified wholes Agnoli views them as complexes of signs made up of visual aural and narrative components that complement contradict and otherwise interact with each other in the creation of meaning Every one of these components matters as they are each the result of a series of creative decisions made by various personnel across different production processes This volume re-constructs production narratives for Avatar and Korra using original and preexisting interviews with cast and crew members as well as behind-the-scenes material Each chapter addresses how different types of components were generated tracing their development from preliminary research to final animation In doing so this project identifies the interlocking sets of production communities behind the making of animation and thus behind the making of racialized identities Due to its illusory and constructed nature animation affords untapped opportunities to approach the topic of race in media looking beyond the role of the actor and taking into account the various factors and processes behind the production of racialized performances The analysis of race and animation calls for a holistic approach one that treats both the visual and the aural as intimately connected This volume offers a blueprint for how to approach the analysis of race and animation

The Subject of Film and Race Gerald Sim, 2014-07-31 The Subject of Film and Race is the first comprehensive intervention into how film critics and scholars have sought to understand cinema's relationship to racial ideology In attempting to do more than merely identify harmful stereotypes research on films and race appropriates ideas from post-structuralist theory But on those platforms the field takes intellectual and political positions that place its anti-racist efforts at an impasse While presenting theoretical ideas in an accessible way Gerald Sim's historical materialist approach uniquely triangulates well-known work by Edward Said with the Neo-Marxian writing about film by Theodor Adorno and Fredric Jameson The Subject of Film and Race takes on topics such as identity politics multiculturalism multiracial discourse and cyborg theory to force film and media studies into rethinking their approach specifically towards humanism and critical subjectivity The book illustrates theoretical discussions
