North Carolina Reports North Carolina. Supreme Court,1975 Cases argued and determined in the Supreme Court of North Carolina Living Scared Linda Allone,2007-11-28 This is the first thing weve done right with this kid argued Dr Epstein after I challenged his decision to alter my sons course of treatment Just listening to this world renowned pediatric neurosurgeon admit to all the negligent care that hurt James and trapped us in the hospital for months terrified me As Dr Epstein rambled on about finally being on the right track with Jamess care I wondered if Id ever get my son out of this hospital alive This unimaginable nightmare all began in August 1982 when my youngest son James was admitted to New York Cornell Hospital in Manhattan New York He was diagnosed and treated with radiation for a brainstem glioma tumor The doctors told us that James would probably die in less than a year In 1985 James was admitted to NYU Medical Center in Manhattan New York for what the doctors said was a recurrence of his brain disease James was expected to undergo one surgery to remove the tumor and return home in seven to ten days As a result of repeated mistakes by doctors nurses and physical therapists James was forced to undergo eight surgeries including one surgery that was performed without our knowledge or consent Nine months later my son was discharged from NYU Medical Center permanently injured and totally disabled Sixteen years later we discovered that James never had a brainstem tumor Living Scared begins as a heart wrenching memoir but quickly develops into a hard hitting expos that probes indifference complacent attitudes reckless behavior incompetence eroding ethics descending standards of practice and widespread corruption in medicine Medical Negligence Is A National Crisis Screaming newspaper headlinesdoctor operates on the wrong leg or surgical instrument left inside patient have become a commonplace occurrence as medical negligence spreads pervasively throughout our nation What once was so shocking to people now hardly raises an eyebrow because allowed behavior has become accepted behavior Sadly we have no one to blame for this atrocity but ourselves because our society has come to accept the avoidable mistakes that occur in all hospitals as human error and thats wrong An estimated 100 000 people die from hospital infections every year Another 100 000 people die from medical negligence Some 1 5 million people a year are injured as a result of medication mistakes Hospitals rarely blame doctors or nurses for the medical mistakes that occur in hospitals More often than not hospital administrators invariably blame the system each time a patient is injured or killed as a result of a medical mistake Disciplinary action against the doctor or nurse involved is rarely executed An example of this Chief Executive Sam Odle of Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis said Whenever something like this happens regarding a medication mix up that killed three infants on September 23 2006 it is not an individual responsibility its an institutional responsibility The truth is human negligence is often responsible for a majority of the mistakes that occur in hospitals but hospital administrators will never admit to this fact Instead they shrewdly manipulate the public and minimize public outrage by blaming the system each time a patient dies as a result of medical negligence This strategy works very well because the system is intangible and people don't seem to get as fired up when the system fails as opposed to a living breathing human who failed to do their job and was responsible for the death of a patient This nationwide crisis approaching epidemic proportions has prompted the U S government to issue a warning to all hospitals to clean up their act after a national survey showed that 47 percent of Americans were directly affected or knew of someone affected

Outbreak! Hilary Evans, Robert E. Bartholomew, 2009 From fads crazes and manias to collective delusions scares panics and mass hysterics history is replete with examples of remarkable social behavior Many are fueled by fear and uncertainty others are driven by hope and expectation For others still the causes are more obscure This massive collection of extraordinary social behaviors spans more than two millennia and attempts to place many of the episodes within their greater historical and cultural context Perhaps the most well known example of unusual collective behavior occurred in 1938 when a million or more Americans were frightened or panicked after listening to a realistic radio drama about a Martian invasion of New Jersey based on an adaptation of the H G Wells novel War of the Worlds Less known but equally remarkable scares based on Wells book occurred in Chile in 1944 when Army units were mobilized in Ecuador in 1949 when riots broke out leaving more than a dozen dead as well as in Buffalo in 1968 Rhode Island in 1974 and Europe in 1988 and 1998 The modern civilized world is by no means immune to such peculiar episodes In the late 20th century scores of people in the U S and Europe were wrongly incarcerated following claims of Satanic ritual abuse by authorities untutored in False Memory Syndrome This episode recalls the European witch terror of the late Middle Ages when innocent people were tortured and executed for consorting with the Devil based on the flimsiest of evidence remarkable collection edited by an Israeli and a Palestinian scholar and with contributions by Palestinian and Israeli women offers a vivid and harrowing picture of the conflict and of its impact on daily life especially as it affects women's experiences that differ significantly from those of men The autobiographical narratives in this volume focus on some of the most disturbing effects of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict a sense of dislocation that goes well beyond the geographical meaning of the word it involves social cultural national and gender dislocation including alienation from one's own home family community and society The accounts become even more poignant if seen against the backdrop of the roots of the conflict the real or imaginary construct of a state to save and shelter particularly European Jews from the horrors of Nazism in parallel to the other side of the coin Israel as a settler colonial state responsible for the displacement of the Palestinian nation
