Scenarios For Teaching Writing Contexts For Discussion And Reflective Practice:

Scenarios for Teaching Writing Chris M. Anson, 1993 Offering teaching assistants new faculty members and adjunct instructors real world scenarios about the many facets of teaching introductory college composition this book provides situations sample syllabi assignments and journal entries from classrooms The book's six chapters move from general considerations of assignment design and the selection of materials to more particular concerns of teacher student interaction In addition the book features issues for discussion throughout the text which challenge readers to find the solutions that work in their own classrooms Chapter titles are 1 Creating Effective Writing Assignments 2 Using Readings in Writing Courses 3 Responding to Student Writing 4 Teaching Grammar Usage and Style in Context 5 Managing Discourse in Classes Conferences and Small Groups and 6 Teaching Writing Course Designs An 83 item bibliography of professional sources is attached Contains 88 references under Works Cited RS Resources in Education ,2000-10 The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administrating writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts Contemporary Composition Studies Edith Babin, Kimberly Harrison, 1999-12-30 Composition studies is a rapidly growing and constantly changing field At present however graduate students new to the field and writing teachers who want to make new connections between theory and practice have little choice of current reference works that define key terms in composition studies and provide information about the scholars and researchers who have shaped and are shaping the discipline This book supplies this information in an easily accessible format and places both scholars and terms in the context of the field's development Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 108 individuals who have developed the field and 128 terms central to the discipline The first part of the book provides entries for leaders in composition studies Each entry identifies the areas in which the scholar has contributed most influentially to the field and provides both a chronological overview of the person's contributions and a bibliography of representative works The second part includes entries for terms that are problematic both for newcomers and for those already familiar with the discipline The entries for the terms show how the disciplinary context has shaped the ways in which they have been used The entries also indicate how established thinkers in composition studies and other disciplines have explained or defined the terms provide examples of the terms in context and list scholars often associated with them An appendix includes entries for scholars from other disciplines who have contributed to the field

Rhetoric and Composition Steven Lynn, 2010-09-30 Rhetoric and composition is an academic discipline that informs all other fields in teaching students how to communicate their ideas and construct their arguments It has grown dramatically to become a cornerstone of many undergraduate courses and curricula and it is a particularly dynamic field for scholarly research This book offers an accessible introduction to teaching and studying rhetoric and composition By combining the history of rhetoric explorations of its underlying theories and a survey of current research with practical examples and advice Steven Lynn offers a solid foundation for further study in the field Readers will find useful information on how students have been taught to invent and organize materials to express themselves correctly and effectively and how the ancient study of memory and delivery illuminates discourse and pedagogy today This concise book thus provides a starting point for learning about the discipline that engages writing thinking and argument

Writing Theory and Practice in the Second

Language Classroom Torild Homstad, Helga Thorson, 1994 Sustaining Excellence in 'Communicating across the Curriculum' Amani Elshimi, Nagwa Kassabgy, 2009-05-27 This book emphasizes ways in which communication skills are used to enhance the learning process in the disciplines Specifically it presents experiences and best practices from institutions in various cultures the United States India Egypt Qatar United Arab Emirates and Australia Related pedagogical issues that affect engagement critical inquiry creativity and integrity are given prominence The title Sustaining Excellence in Communicating across the Curriculum Cross Institutional Experiences and Best Practices thus provides a framework for the variety of practices that foster student empowerment cultivate ownership of expression and sustain learning excellence within and across disciplines Scholars of CAC teachers concerned with active engaging pedagogies across the disciplines and applied linguists will find this anthology particularly appealing The culture specific experiences are intriguing highlighting surprising similarities and differences in the application of CAC theory

Theorizing Composition Mary

Kennedy,1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory's critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works Creating Learning Scenarios Edward Peter Errington,2005 This guide is intended for educators from all subject discipline and workplace vocational areas of adult education p 10 Using Cases to Improve College Teaching Pat Hutchings,1993 Putting Together Professional Portfolios Christine Forde,Margery McMahon,Jenny Reeves,2009-02-06 With the increasing emphasis on continuing professional development for teachers and all educational practitioners the use of portfolios to plan chart and review professional development is now widespread Drawing directly from their experience of developing portfolios and portfolio based assessment and from current research this book enables the reader to design and plan a portfolio chart and analyse relevant professional experiences reflect critically on practice assess performance against standards and competences frameworks present evidence of practice and achievements plan their continuing professional development There are Chapter Objectives Key Questions and Tasks in every chapter which adds to the practical focus of the book An essential read for teachers teaching assistants any practitioner assembling a Continuing Professional Development CPD portfolio those working towards further qualifications such as Chartered Teacher status newly qualified and probationary teachers and anyone involved in supporting and mentoring CPD The Allyn & Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers James C. McDonald,1996 Designed for college writing teachers who are faced with teaching composition for the first time or re examining their teaching goals and methods The Allyn Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers is a collection of writings on important theories and pedagogies in composition studies The selections discuss a range of theories and approaches to teaching writing and present readers with a number of options for instruction rather than a single way to teach Written by some of today's foremost scholars and teachers the articles range from discussing how to integrate critical thinking and reading into writing instruction to methods for responding to and evaluating student writing to dealing with grammar and editing For those who teach writing Teaching Writing Teachers of High School English & First-year
