Scented Leaves From A Chinese Jar A Selection:

Scented Leaves from a Chinese Jar Allen Upward, 1987      Edward Thomas: Prose Writings: a Selected Edition Edward Thomas, 2011 This volume gathers a selection of Edward Thomas's critical writings on poetry from the period 1899 to 1907      Selected Letters of Fletcher (c) ,      Ezra Pound and the Appropriation of Chinese Poetry Ming Xie, 2021-12-12 First published in 1999 The subject of this book is the translation and appropriation of Chinese poetry by some English and American writers in the early decades of this century The author explores the concerns as much with English translation of Chinese poetry per se as with the relationship between this body of translation from the Chinese and the developing poetics and practices of what is usually referred to as Imagism as much with the question of historical influence or ascription as with certain interpretive and critical aspects of this correlative relationship Focusing on the direct influence of Chinese poetry upon the theory and practice of Imagism attributing to Imagist poets in general and Ezra Pound in particular the perception in Chinese poetry of the essential qualities and principles for rejuvenating English poetry in the early decades of the century      Prospice , 1987      The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey, 2012 In bridging historical periods national boundaries and disciplinary distinctions Dickey makes a case for the continuity of this genre over the Victorian Modernist divide and from Britain to the United States in a time of rapid change in the arts      Invisible Fences Steven Monte, 2000-01-01 For all its recent popularity among poets and critics prose poetry continues to raise more questions than it answers How have prose poems been identified as such and why have similar works been excluded from the genre What happens when we read a work as a prose poem How have prose genres such as the novel affected prose poetry and modern poetry in general In Invisible Fences Steven Monte places prose poetry in historical and theoretical perspective by comparing its development in the French and American literary traditions In spite of its apparent formal freedom prose poetry is constrained by specific historical circumstances and is constantly engaged in border disputes with neighboring prose and poetic genres Monte illuminates these constraints through an examination of works that have influenced the development of the prose poem as well as through a discussion of genre theory and detailed readings of poems ranging from Charles Baudelaire's La Solitude to John Ashbery's The System Monte explores the ways in which literary historical narratives affect interpretation why for example prose poetry tends to be seen as a revolutionary genre and how this perspective influences readings of individual works The American poets he discusses include Ralph Waldo Emerson William Carlos Williams T S Eliot Gertrude Stein and Ashbery the French poets range from Baudelaire Arthur Rimbaud and Stephane Mallarmé to Max Jacob In exploring prose poetry as a genre Invisible Fences offers new perspectives not only on modern poetry but also on genre itself challenging current theories of genre with a test case that asks for yet eludes definition      Agenda William Cookson, 1994      The Penguin Book of the Prose Poem Jeremy Noel-Tod, 2018-11-29 A wonderful book an invigorating revelation An essential collection of prose poems from across the globe by old masters and new reveals the forms astonishing range Kate Kellaway Observer A superb anthology it is hard to know how it could possibly be bettered Daily Telegraph This is the prose poem a genre with an oxymoron for a name one of literature's great open secrets and the home for over 150 years of extraordinary work by many of the world's most beloved writers This uniquely wide ranging anthology gathers essential pieces of writing from every stage of the form's evolution beginning with the great flowering of recent years before moving in reverse order through the international experiments of the 20th century and concluding with the prose poem's beginnings in 19th century France Edited with an introduction by Jeremy Noel Tod

The Literature of Connection David Trotter, 2020-06-10 This book is about some of the ways in which the world got ready to be connected long before the advent of the technologies and the concentrations of capital necessary to implement a global network society It investigates the prehistory not of the communications revolution brought about by advances in electronic digital computing from 1950 onwards but of the principle of connectivity which was to provide that revolution with its justification and rallying cry Connectivity's core principle is that what matters most in any act of telecommunication and sometimes all that matters is the fact of its having happened During the nineteenth century the principle gained steadily increasing traction by means not only of formal systems such as the telegraph but of an array of improvised methods and signalling devices These methods and devices fulfilled not just an ever more urgent need but a fundamental recurring desire for near instantaneous real time communication at a distance Connectivity became an end in itself a complex vivid unpredictable romance woven through the enduring human desire and need for remote intimacy Its magical enhancements are the stuff of tragedy comedy satire elegy lyric melodrama and plain description of literature in short The book develops the concepts of signal medium and interface to offer in its first part an alternative view of writing in Britain from George Eliot and Thomas Hardy to D H Lawrence Hope Mirrlees and Katherine Mansfield and in its second case studies of European and African American fiction and of interwar British cinema designed to open the topic up for further enquiry

Modernism, Christianity and Apocalypse, 2014-10-30 Modernism Christianity and Apocalypse stages an encounter between the fields of Modernism and Christianity and Apocalypse Studies The modernist impulse to make it new to transform and reform culture is an incipiently apocalyptic one poised between imaginative representations of an Old Era or civilization and the experimental promise of the New Christianity figures in formative tension with the new but its apocalyptic paradigms continued to impact modernist visions of cultural revitalization In three sections tracing a rough chronology from the late nineteenth century fin de siècle via interwar conflicts and the rise of political religions to post 1945 anxieties such as the Bomb this thematic is explored in nineteen far ranging scholarly contributions outlining a distinctive and fresh interdisciplinary field of study

confrontation of sexual mores of the day and the impact of his soldier experience on his life and work There hasn't been a recent biography of Aldington the only one of the war poets not to have one With the interest in the First World War increasing as we near the centenary the time is right for this book This biography explores the relationships of Aldington with other prominent literary figures Ezra Pound Herbert Read T S Eliot D H Lawrence and his unsuccessful marriage with H D This first instalment of a hopefully two volume biography covers Aldington's life and work up to 1929 It investigates the years 1911-1915 in which Aldington helped found Modernism and formed relationships with other Modernists the years 1916-19 when his life fell apart after his soldier experience the years 1920-28 when he tried to re-establish his literary career laid the foundations of modern literary criticism and his writing of Death of a Hero at the end of the decade a blistering attack on all that had made the war possible Official Blurb The story of Richard Aldington outstanding Imagist poet and author of the bestselling war novel Death of a Hero 1929 takes place against the backdrop of some of the most turbulent and creative years of the twentieth century Vivien Whelpton provides a remarkably detailed and sensitive portrayal of the writer from early adolescence His life as a stalwart of the pre-war London literary scene as a soldier and in the difficult aftermath of the First World War is deftly rendered through a careful and detailed analysis of the novels poems and letters of the writer himself and his close circle of acquaintance The complexities of London's Bohemia with its scandalous relationships social grandstanding and incredible creative output are masterfully untangled and the spotlight placed firmly on the talented group of poets christened by Ezra Pound as Imagistes The author demonstrates profound psychological insight into Aldington's character and childhood in her nuanced analysis of his post-war survivor's guilt and consideration of the three most influential women in his life his wife the gifted American poet H D Dorothy Yorke the woman he left her for and Brigit Patmore his brilliant and fascinating older mistress Richard Aldington Poet Soldier and Lover vividly reveals Aldington's warm and passionate nature and the vitality which characterised his life and works concluding with his triumphant personal and literary resurrection with the publication of Death of a Hero creative process the twentieth century Imagists and their earlier Chinese counterparts on the relationship of the Chinese written character to poetics and Derrida and the Madhyamika Buddhists on language and onto theology The author not only identifies an array of critical concerns shared by Western and Chinese critics but also differentiates the conceptual models used by each and traces them to cosmological paradigms      Learning to Write Reed Smith, William Paxton, Basil G. Ezra Listen to it Ezra Ezra And a third time Ezra Some people have complained of untidy boots how could they look at his boots when there is his moving beautiful face to watch These words from the notebook of Dorothy Shakespear dated February 16 1909 record the entry into her life of the energetic young American recently arrived in London who was to become her husband Ezra Pound Their correspondence begun the following year extends over more than six decades until the poet's death in 1972 All of these letters are of unusual literary interest but those from before their marriage in April 1914 have a special importance since few from this period have been published The standard edition of The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound edited by D D Paige includes none from 1910 1911 and only a handful from 1912 1913 yet these were the crucial years in Pound's literary development and in the shaping of early modernism The over two hundred letters and diary entries in Ezra Pound and Dorothy Shakespear Their Letters 1909 1914 are published here for the first time Taken together they provide a detailed record of the poet's search for a new style and give a full portrait of a dynamic young expatriate who was simultaneously involved in two literary generations the companion and close friend of Yeats and Ford Madox Hueffer as well as of Wyndham Lewis and the sculptor Gaudier Brzeska They also shed a poignant light on The Pisan Cantos of 1945 where amid the ruins of his life Pound recalled again and again the events and people described in these letters as if the memory of 1909 1914 was the only stable point left in a disintegrating personal universe The letters have been thoroughly annotated by Omar Pound translator and bibliographer of Wyndham Lewis and by A Walton Litz of Princeton University the author of studies of James Joyce Wallace Stevens and other modern writers The book includes a biographical appendix with particular emphasis on lesser known people mentioned in the letters some unpublished early poems by Pound transcribed by Dorothy into one of her notebooks family charts one of which shows Pound's ancestral origins numerous unpublished illustrations and an extensive index      The Joy of Geraniums Helen Van Pelt Wilson, 1980      Harriet Monroe and the Poetry Renaissance: the First Ten Years of Poetry: a Magazine of Verse, 1912-1922 Ellen Williams, 1970      The Ezra Pound Encyclopedia Demetres P.
