Scholar Collects Selections From The Anthony Morris Clark Bequest:

A Scholar Collects ; Selections from the Anthony Morris Clark Bequest ,1980 A Scholar Collects Ulrich W. Hiesinger,1980 A Scholar Collects Philadelphia Museum of Art,1980 The Borghese Collections and the Display of Art in the Age of the Grand Tour Carole Paul,2017-07-05 The redecoration of the exhibition spaces at the Borghese palace and villa undertaken together with the reinstallation of the family's vast art collections was one of the most important events in the cultural life of eighteenth century Rome In this comprehensive study Carole Paul reconstructs the planning and execution of the project and explains its multifaceted significance its place in the history of Italian art architecture and interior design at a complex moment of transition from baroque to neoclassical style as well as its unrecognized but profound influence on the development of the modern art museum The study shows how the installations and decorations worked together to evoke traditional themes in innovative ways Addressed primarily to a new audience of tourists from abroad the thematic content of the spaces celebrated the greatness of the Borghese family and of Roman tradition while their stylistic diversity and sophistication made a case for the continued vitality even modernity of Roman art and culture Designed for the exercise of a highly refined social performance these sites helped to model the experience of art as a form of enlightened modern civility Getty Research Journal, No. 10 Gail Feigenbaum,2018-03-06 The Getty Research Journal features the work of art historians museum curators and conservators from around the world as part of the Getty's mission to promote critical thinking in the presentation conservation and interpretation of the world's artistic legacy Articles present original research related to the Getty's collections initiatives and research projects This issue features essays on the cross cultural features of a small alabaster vessel in the international style of the ancient Mediterranean French and Flemish influences in the Montebourg Psalter a new identification for the so called bust of Saint Cyricus the effects of the Reformation on the art market in northern Europe sketchbooks kept by the Portuguese painter Jo o Glama Stroeberle containing comments from his teachers the origins of the architectural history survey Japanese ink aesthetics in non ink media the impact of the invention of adhesive tape in the 1930s on the artistic process of abstract painters and the importance of ephemeral artifacts for the documentation of Carolee Schneemann's performance works Shorter texts include notices on an Egyptian ushabti from the tomb of Neferibresaneith a bronze statuette newly identified as representing the Alexandrian god Hermanubis and an etching by Félix Bracquemond commissioned by the Parisian gallery Arnold Tripp The Learned Draftsman Édouard Kopp,2017-01-10 The celebrated French artist Edme Bouchardon 1698 1762 is primarily known as a sculptor today but his contemporaries widely lauded him as a draftsman as well Talented highly innovative and deeply invested in the medium Bouchardon made an important contribution to the European art and culture of his time and in particular to the history of drawing Around two thousand of his drawings survive most of which bear no relation conceptual or practical to his sculpture yet remarkably little scholarly attention has been paid to this aspect of his oeuvre This is the first book length work devoted to the artist's draftsmanship since 1910. Ambitious in scope, this volume offers a compelling narrative that effectively covers four decades of Bouchardon's activity as a draftsman from his departure for Rome in 1723 as an aspiring student to his death in Paris in 1762, by which time he was one of the most renowned artists in Europe. His accomplished and dynamic style is analyzed and copiously illustrated in a series of five interrelated chapters that serve as case studies, each of which focuses on a coherent group of drawings from a particular period of Bouchardon's career.

Making a Prince's Museum Carole Paul, Alberta Campitelli, Getty Research Institute, 2000. In 1775 Prince Marcantonio Borghese IV and the architect Antonio Asprucci embarked upon a decorative renovation of the Villa Borghese. Initially, their attention focused on the Casino, the principal building at the villa which had always been a semi-public museum. By 1625 it housed much of the Borghese's outstanding collection of sculpture. Integrating this statuary with vast baroque ceiling paintings and richly ornamented surfaces, Asprucci created a dazzling and unified homage to the Borghese family, portraying its legendary ancestors as well as its newly born heir. In this book, Carole Paul reads the inventive decorative program as a set of exemplary scenes for the education of the ideal Borghese prince. Her wide-ranging essay also situates the Villa Borghese among the sumptuous palaces and suburban villas of Rome's collectors of antiquities and outlines the renovated Casino's pivotal role in the historic transition from the princely collection to the public museum. Rounding out this volume is a catalog of the Getty Research Institute's fifty-nine drawings for the refurbishing of the Villa Borghese and Alberta Campitelli's discussion of sketches for the short-lived Museo di Gabii, the Villa's other antiquities museum.

Philipp von Stosch: Collecting, Drawing, Studying and Publishing Engraved Gems Paweł Gołyźniak, Ulf R. Hansson, Hadrien J. Rambach, 2025-04-17. This book published with two online only appendices is designed to show and discuss another facet of Stosch that would argue with the dense mythology of a spy hoarder and libertine clouding the true nature of his accomplishments as an antiquarian collector patron and scholar. This is possible due to discovery and study of a substantial part of Stosch's previously considered lost enormous Paper Museum of Gems. The artists including Pier Leone Ghezzi, Girolamo Odam, Bernard Picart, Antonio Maria Zanetti, Markus Tuscher, Theodorus Netscher, Georg Martin Prei ler, Johann Justin Prei ler and Johann Adam Schweickart tirelessly worked in a studio organised by Stosch on the faithful documentation of vast numbers of engraved gems. Made for a variety of purposes, they expose Stosch's crucial role in the creation and transfer of knowledge that contributed immensely to the transformation of eighteenth century antiquarianism towards a more scholarly archaeological science.
