Simpson, 2016-04-29 Across the world states are seeking out new and secure supplies of energy but this search is manifesting itself most visibly in Asia where rapid industrialisation in states such as China and India is fomenting a frantic scramble for energy resources Due to entrenched societal inequities and widespread authoritarian governance however the pursuit of national energy security through transnational energy projects has resulted in devastating impacts on the human and environmental security of local populations These effects are particularly evident in both Thailand and Myanmar Burma which located at the crossroads of Asia are increasingly engaged in the cross border energy trade Based on extensive fieldwork and theoretical analysis this ground breaking book proposes a new critical approach to energy and environmental security and explores the important role that both local and transnational environmental movements are playing in the absence of effective and democratic governments in providing activist environmental governance for energy projects throughout the region By comparing the nature of this activism under two very different political regimes it delivers crucial theoretical insights with both academic and policy implications for the sustainable and equitable development of the South s natural resources Harsh Punishment Sandy Cook, Susanne Davies, 1999-12-22 A pioneering collection of personal accounts from criminal justice scholars practitioners and activists and from current and former prisoners themselves The Rohingya Crisis Manzoor Hasan, Syed Mansoob Murshed, Priya Pillai, 2022-12-30 This edited volume addresses the broader aspects of the political and social landscape human rights violations accountability and advocacy efforts and humanitarian challenges faced by the Rohingya from Myanmar The work brings together different voices of legal policy and international affairs experts to construct a framework which addresses the complex and nuanced issues comprising the Rohingya crisis Although there is recognition that international legal mechanisms are moving forward more quickly than anticipated these processes do not constitute standalone sustainable solutions Myanmar s myriad political social cohesion development and security challenges are likely to persist even as justice and accountability processes move forward Thus this book project is premised on the consensus that the international community should complement international justice mechanisms by looking toward creative and multi faceted approaches in addition to justice and accountability This timely contribution will be of interest to academics researchers development practitioners and human rights organizations     Mental Culture in Burmese Crisis Politics Gustaaf Houtman,1999 An examination of the current political crisis in Burma and in particular its Buddhist and socio psychological aspects     Maneuvers Cynthia Enloe,2000-02-01 Maneuvers takes readers on a global tour of the sprawling process called militarization With her incisive verve and moxie eminent feminist Cynthia Enloe shows that the people who become militarized are not just the obvious ones executives and factory floor workers who make fighter planes land mines and intercontinental missiles They are also the employees of food companies toy companies clothing companies film studios stock brokerages and advertising agencies Militarization is never gender neutral Enloe claims It is a personal and political transformation that relies on ideas about femininity and masculinity Films that equate action with war condoms that are designed with a camouflage pattern fashions that celebrate brass buttons and epaulettes tomato soup that contains pasta shaped like Star Wars weapons all of these contribute to militaristic values that mold our culture in both war and peace Presenting new and groundbreaking material that builds on Enloe s acclaimed work in Does Khaki Become You and Bananas Beaches and Bases Maneuvers takes an international look at the politics of masculinity nationalism and globalization Enloe ranges widely from Japan to Korea Serbia Kosovo Rwanda Britain Israel the United States and many points in between She covers a broad variety of subjects gays in the military the history of camp followers the politics of women who have sexually serviced male soldiers married life in the military military nurses and the recruitment of women into the military One chapter titled When Soldiers Rape explores the many facets of the issue in countries such as Chile the Philippines Okinawa Rwanda and the United States Enloe outlines the dilemmas feminists around the globe face in trying to craft theories and strategies that support militarized women locally and internationally without unwittingly being militarized themselves She explores the complicated militarized experiences of women as prostitutes as rape victims as mothers as wives as nurses and as feminist activists and she uncovers the maneuvers that military officials and their civilian supporters have made in order to ensure that each of these groups of women feel special and separate     Liberalism and Democracy in Myanmar Roman David,Ian Holliday,2018-11-08 Historic Myanmar elections in November 2015 paved the way for an NLD government led by Aung San Suu Kyi to take office in March 2016 and saw the country deepen its graduated transition away from authoritarian rule Nevertheless military forces that for decades dominated national politics remain privileged in a constitutional framework designed to deliver discipline flourishing democracy In August 2017 the military intensified its campaign of ethnic cleansing of Myanmar s Rohingya Muslim minority and more than 750 000 refugees fled to neighbouring Bangladesh One critical question that now confronts the fifty million people of this Southeast Asian nation is whether their push for greater democracy is strong enough to prevail over the resistance of a powerful military machine and swelling undercurrents of intolerance What are the prospects for liberal democracy in Myanmar This book addresses this question by examining historical conditions constitutionalism popular support for democracy major political actors group relations and tolerance and transitional justice To probe the meaning and purchase of key concepts it presents a rich array of evidence including eighty eight in depth interviews and three waves of surveys and survey experiments conducted by the authors between 2014 and 2018 all of which are triangulated with constitutional and legal texts and reports issued locally and globally The analysis culminates in the concept of limited liberalism which reflects an at times puzzling blend of liberal and illiberal attitudes The book concludes that a weakening of liberal commitments among politicians and citizens alike allied with spreading limited liberal attitudes casts doubt on the prospects for liberal democracy in Myanmar Constituting Equality Susan Hoffman Williams, 2009-07-31 The book takes a design oriented approach to the broad range of issues that arise in constitutional drafting concerning gender equality Introduction to Geopolitics Colin Flint, 2016-10-06 This new updated edition of Introduction to Geopolitics presents the overarching themes of geopolitical structures and agents in an engaging and accessible manner which requires no previous knowledge of theory or current affairs Using new pertinent case studies and guided exercises the title explains the contemporary global power of the United States and the challenges it is facing the persistence of nationalist conflicts migration cyberwar terrorism and environmental geopolitics Case studies of the rise of the so called Islamic State the South China Sea disputes the Syrian civil war the Korean conflict and Israel Palestine emphasize the multi faceted nature of conflict The book raises questions by incorporating international and long term historical perspectives and introduces readers to different theoretical viewpoints including feminist contributions The new edition features expanded sections on network geopolitics and non state actors a new section on geopolitics of transnational business cyberwar an interpretation of ISIS within historical geopolitical trends as well as expanded discussion of the relevance of Boserup and neo Malthusians to environmental geopolitics Introduction to Geopolitics will provide its readers with a set of critical analytical tools for understanding the actions of states as well as non state actors acting in competition over resources and power Both students and general readers will find this book an essential stepping stone to a deeper and critical understanding of contemporary conflicts Crimes in Archival Form Prof. Dr. Ken MacLean, 2022-03-01 Crimes in Archival Form explores the many ways in which human rights facts are produced rather than found Using Myanmar as his case study Ken MacLean examines the fact finding practices of a human rights group two cross border humanitarian agencies an international law clinic and a global NGO led campaign Foregrounding fact finding in critical yet constructive ways prompts long overdue conversations about the possibilities and limits of human rights documentation as a mode of truth seeking Such conversations are particularly urgent in an era when the perpetrators of large scale human rights violations exploit misinformation weaponize disinformation and employ outright falsehoods including deepfakes to undermine the credibility of those who document abuses and demand accountability in the court of public opinion and in courts of law

MacLean compels practitioners and scholars alike to be more transparent about how human rights fact production works why it is important and when its use should prompt concern
