Breen,Craig R. Fiedler,1996 Research Anthology on Balancing Family-Teacher Partnerships for Student Success Management Association, Information Resources,2022-10-28 The partnership between families and teachers in education has been overlooked in the past to the detriment of students of all ages This relationship can have a huge impact on the success of learners and must be examined further to ensure students receive the best education possible The Research Anthology on Balancing Family Teacher Partnerships for Student Success examines the best practices and challenges of establishing and maintaining a successful relationship between teachers and families It discusses the history of this relationship as well as future directions that must be considered Covering key topics such as early childhood education work habits assessments and mentorship this major reference work is ideal for administrators principals industry professionals researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Creating and Sustaining Effective K-12 School Partnerships Ahmad R. Washington,Ramon B. Goings,Malik S. Henfield,2020-03-01 Although teachers school counselors and administrators are all situated within educational settings tasked with supporting students educational development rarely do these professionals have sufficient opportunities to learn from and collaborate with one another before entering these schools Unfortunately many of these professionals are unaware of the primary and secondary responsibilities their peers and colleagues assume. What's worse, this lack of insight potentially compromises the extent to which educational leaders can forge effective partnerships that benefit students from the most alienated, disenfranchised, and marginalized communities, e.g., Black children in under-resourced schools. While the educational discourse has included recommendations for maximizing interactions between these educational professionals, the collective voices of teachers, school counselors, and administrators in regards to these issues has not been adequately examined. Thus, this book is a compilation of manuscripts and studies that explore partnerships and strategies educators and educational leaders use to produce positive socio-educational outcomes for Black students in various contexts.

Creating and Sustaining Effective K-12 School Partnerships: Firsthand Accounts of Promising Practices is unique because it illuminates examples of effective school-community partnerships that foster positive student outcomes. Creating and Sustaining Effective K-12 School Partnerships: Firsthand Accounts of Promising Practices is intended as a practical text for committed educational leaders at different professional points, e.g., practicing teachers, pre-service school counselors, and teachers who are eager to transform the current educational trajectory of Black children through interventions that show promise.

Creating Partnerships with Parents Donald Lueder, 2000-10-25 Are you wondering how to nurture a better relationship with the parents of your students? This book provides teachers with comprehensive methods to bridge the gap between school and home in order to enhance the development of their students.

Teaching School Social Work, 2000

Motivating Students to Learn Kathryn Wentzel, 2020-09-23 Written specifically for teachers in training, Motivating Students to Learn offers a wealth of research-based principles on student motivation for use in the classroom. Positioning the teacher as the decisive motivator, the book is grounded in the realities of contemporary schools, curriculum goals, and peer dynamics. Twelve rich chapters offer extrinsic and intrinsic approaches to guide daily practice, guidelines for adapting to group and individual differences, and ways to reach discouraged or disaffected students. This revised fifth edition features new instructional strategies, summaries of effective interventions, chapters on family cultural diversity, and teacher motivation, and more.

Empowering Family-Teacher Partnerships: Building Connections Within Diverse Communities Mick Coleman, 2012-03 Empowering Family-Teacher Partnerships: Building Connections Within Diverse Communities prepares students to work collaboratively with families and community professionals in support of children's early education and development. Students are invited to develop a personal philosophy of family involvement to guide their work with families and to join a community of learners in relying upon their collective insights and problem-solving skills to address family involvement challenges. The author takes a student-centered approach to delivering substantive information and framing activities, providing a comprehensive coverage of the diversity of family lives represented in classrooms and strategies for working with those families, b) challenges to family involvement and strategies for addressing them, c) strategies for communicating effectively with and empowering families, and d) reflections, activities, tip boxes, and field assignments designed to facilitate students' skills in building positive family-school-community
