Origin and Significance of the Frankfurt School (RLE Social Theory) Phil Slater, 2020-07-26 The term Frankfurt School is used widely but sometimes loosely to describe both a group of intellectuals and a specific social theory Focusing on the formative and most radical years of the Frankfurt School during the 1930s this study concentrates on the Frankfurt School's most original contributions made to the work on a critical theory of society by the philosophers Max Horkheimer and Herbert Marcuse the psychologist Erich Fromm and the aesthetician Theodor W Adorno Phil Slater traces the extent and ultimate limits of the Frankfurt School's professed relation to the Marxian critique of political economy In considering the extent of the relation to revolutionary praxis he discusses the socio economic and political history of Weimar Germany in its descent into fascism and considers the work of such people as Karl Korsch Wilhelm Reich Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht which directs a great deal of critical light on the Frankfurt School While pinpointing the ultimate limitations of the

Frankfurt School's frame of reference Phil Slater also looks at the role their work played largely against their wishes in the emergence of the student anti authoritarian movement in the 1960s He shows that in particular the analysis of psychic and cultural manipulation was central to the young rebels theoretical armour but that even here the lack of economic class analysis seriously restricts the critical edge of the Frankfurt School's theory His conclusion is that the only way forward is to rescue the most radical roots of the Frankfurt School's work and to recast these in the context of a practical theory of economic and political emancipation Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Warren Crichlow, 2013-05-13 This stunning new edition retains the book's broad aims intended audience and multidisciplinary approach New chapters take into account the more current backdrop of globalization particularly events such as 9 11 and attendant developments that make a reconsideration of race relations in education quite urgent
