THE AMERICAN SCHOOL SYSTEM

In the United States, it is compulsory for officials to undergo, or some states like California, education with they are 19. In the U.S., the Elementary school begins at the age of 6 years, but this is not compulsory. After middle school or junior high, which are compulsory, students can go to high school. After college or university.

University, or college is very costly. The average cost of a four-year college is $10,000, with many students starting saving for college before their first birthday. And, of course, there are the state and federal loans, which they must
