Reading the World Perfection Learning (Firm),2012 Reading The World Plc,Schumacher,2002-09-01 Reading the World Perfection Learning (Firm),2012 Reading the World Perfection Learning (Firm),2003 Reading the World John R. Brookes,2013-10-28 This book charts my journey as I travel the globe from my armchair by reading contemporary literature a trek that I started in London England back in May 2009 At this time it occurred to me that whilst a real life trip to every country in the world would be impossible due to lack of time work commitments and the cost I could explore the globe through literature in the company of international authors In doing this I mapped out a travel list of well over 270 destinations to visit every UN recognised state and a few more contentious ones and have been reading a book from each country as part of my literary expedition For particularly large countries such as China and Russia I am reading a book from each major region of that country In Volume 1 of my travels you will find details of the countries that I visited in my first year from England to Russia as well as reviews of the books that I have read and details of the authors and publication dates

Reading World Literature Sarah Lawall,2010-01-01 As teachers and readers expand the canon of world literature to include writers whose voices traditionally have been silenced by the dominant culture fundamental questions arise What do we mean by world What constitutes literature Who should decide Reading World Literature is a cumulative study of the concept and evolving practices of world literature Sarah Lawall opens the book with a substantial introduction to the overall topic Twelve original essays by distinguished specialists run the gamut from close readings of specific texts to problems of translation theory and reader response The sequence of essays develops from re examinations of traditional canonical pieces through explorations of less familiar works to discussions of reading itself as a literacy dependent on worldview Reading World Literature will open challenging new vistas for a wide audience in the humanities from traditionalists to avant garde specialists in literary theory cultural studies and area studies Contemporary Lusophone African Film Paulo de Medeiros,Livia Apa,2020-12-13 Offering a range of critical perspectives on a vibrant body of films this collection of essays engages with questions specific to the various cinemas and films addressed while putting forward an argument for their inclusion in current debates on world cinema The collection brings together 11 chapters by recognized scholars who analyze a variety of films and videos from Angola Cape Verde Guin Bissau and Mozambique It also includes an interview with Pedro Pimenta one of the most distinguished African film festival organizers Drawing on various theoretical perspectives the volume strives to reverse the relative invisibility that has afflicted these cinemas arguing that most if not all Lusophone films are transnational in all aspects of production acting and reception The initial three chapters sketch broad comparative overviews and suggest theoretical approaches while the ensuing chapters focus on specific case studies and discuss a number of key issues such as the convergence of film with politics the question of gender and violence as well as the revisiting of the period immediately following independence Attention is given to fiction documentary films and recent short alternative video productions that are overlooked by more traditional channels The book stresses the need to pay attention to the significance of African film and Lusophone African film in particular within the developing field of world cinema Bringing together general overviews historical considerations detailed case studies and focused theoretical reflections this book is a significant volume for students and researchers in film studies especially African Lusophone cultural studies and world cinema

Malaysian Crossings Cheow Thia Chan, 2022-12-27 Malaysian Chinese Mahua literature is marginalized on several fronts In the international literary space which privileges the West Malaysia is considered remote The institutions of modern Chinese literature favor mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong Within Malaysia only texts in Malay the national language are considered national literature by the state However Mahua authors have produced creative and thought provoking works that have won growing critical recognition showing Malaysia to be a laboratory for imaginative Chinese writing Highlighting Mahua literature's distinctive mode of evolution Cheow Thia Chan demonstrates that authors grasp of their marginality in the world Chinese literary space has been the impetus for rather than a barrier to aesthetic inventiveness He foregrounds the historical links between Malaysia and other Chinese speaking regions tracing how Mahua writers engage in the worlding of modern Chinese literature by navigating interconnected literary spaces Focusing on writers including Lin Cantian Han Suyin Wang Anyi and Li Yongping whose works craft signature literary languages Chan examines narrative representations of multilingual social realities and authorial reflections on colonial Malaya or independent Malaysia as valid literary terrain Delineating the inter Asian crossings of Mahua literary production physical journeys interactions among social groups and mindset shifts from the 1930s to the 2000s he contends that new perspectives from the periphery are essential to understanding the globalization of modern Chinese literature By emphasizing the inner diversities and connected histories in the margins Malaysian Crossings offers a powerful argument for remapping global Chinese literature and world literature

Contemporary Literature: The Basics Suman Gupta, 2012-03-12 Contemporary Literature is among the most popular areas of literary study but it can be a difficult one to define This book equips readers with the necessary tools to take an analytical and systematic approach to contemporary texts The author provides answers to some of the critical questions in the field What makes a literary text contemporary Is it possible to have a canon of contemporary literature How does a reader's location affect their understanding How do print electronic and audio visual media impact upon contemporary literature Which key concepts and themes are most prevalent Containing diverse illustrative examples and discussing the topics which define our current sense of the contemporary this is an ideal starting point for anyone seeking to engage critically with contemporary literature
