Reading Texts Kathleen McCormick, Gary Waller, Linda Flower, 1987 Reading-to-Write Linda Flower, Victoria Stein, John Ackerman, Margaret J. Kantz, Kathleen McCormick, Wayne C. Peck, 1990-09-20 The Social and Cognitive Studies in Writing and Literacy Series is devoted to books that bridge research theory and practice exploring social and cognitive processes in writing and expanding our knowledge of literacy as an active constructive process as students move from high school to college This descriptive study of reading to write examines a critical point in every college student's academic performance when he or she is faced with the task of reading a source integrating personal ideas and creating an individual text with a self defined purpose Offering an unusually comprehensive view of this process the authors chart a group of freshmen as they study and write in their dormitories recording their think aloud strategies for reading writing and revising their interpretation of the task and their broader social cultural and contextual understanding of college writing Flower Stein and colleagues convincingly conclude that the legacy of schooling in general makes the transition to college difficult and more important that the assumptions students hold and the strategies they use in undertaking this task play a significant role in their academic performance Embracing a broad range of perspectives from rhetoric composition literacy research literary and cultural theory and cognitive psychology this rigorous analysis treats reading to write as both a cognitive and social process It will interest researchers and theoreticians in rhetoric and writing teachers working with students in transition from high school to college and educators involved in the links between cognition and the social process A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01 The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts educationalists psychologists sociologists linguists cultural anthropologists and historians The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities Developing Reading Comprehension Katherine A. Dougherty Stahl, Georgia Earnest Garcia, 2015-02-18 Early literacy instruction typically emphasizes foundational skills often at the expense of engaging young children in reading and supporting their comprehension of different types of texts This book explains the essential elements of comprehension and shares a wealth of classroom tested instructional practices It presents developmentally informed strategies for scaffolding comprehension skills using content to promote engagement and implementing high level discussions and writing tasks Ways to teach and assess English learners and other diverse students are highlighted throughout The book features explicit links to the Common Core State Standards CCSS as well as helpful reproducible forms Purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size Connecting Reading & Writing in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela,2004-08-20 Academic writing often requires students to incorporate material from outside sources like statistics ideas quotations paraphrases into their own written texts a particular obstacle for students who lack strong reading skills In Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction Alan Hirvela contends that second language writing students should be considered as readers first and advocates the integration of reading and writing instruction with a survey of theory research and pedagogy in the subject area Although the integrated reading writing model has gained popularity in recent years many teachers have little more than an intuitive sense of the connections between these skills As part of the popular Michigan Series on Teaching Multilingual Writers Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction will provide invaluable background knowledge on this issue to ESL teachers in training as well as teachers who are already practicing Nonfiction Literacy Gretchen G. Courtney,Sarah A. Jossart,2002-02-13 Nonfiction Literacy Ideas and Activities The English way Bernard Lionel Kinghorn Henderson,1926 Understanding Readers' Understanding Robert J. Tierney,Patricia L. Anders,Judy Nichols Mitchell,2013-02-01 This collection features papers addressing current issues in reading comprehension from cognitive and linguistic perspectives Organized into three sections the volume investigates text considerations and reader text interactions Each paper presents a substantial and comprehensive review of theory and research related to cognition and reading comprehension Reading Blindly: Literature, Otherness, and the Possibility of an Ethical Reading , Resources in Education ,1998
