New Art of Cookery Vicky Hayward,2017-06-16 Winner of the Jane Grigson Trust Award 2017 and the Aragonese

Academy of Gastronomy's 2017 Prize for Research New Art of Cookery Drawn from the School of Economic Experience was an influential recipe book published in 1745 by Spanish friary cook Juan Altamiras. In it he wrote up over 200 recipes for meat, poultry, game, salted and fresh fish, vegetables and sweet things in a chatty style aimed at readers who cooked on a modest budget. He showed that economic cookery could be delicious if flavors and aromas were blended with an appreciation for all sorts of ingredients, however humble, and for diverse food cultures ranging from that of Aragon, his home region, to those of Iberian court and New World kitchens. This first English translation gives guidelines for today's cooks alongside the original text and interweaves a new narrative portraying 18th century Spain, its everyday life and food culture. The author traces links between New Art's dishes and modern Spanish cookery, tells the story of her search to identify the book's author and understand the popularity of his book for over 150 years, and takes travelers, cooks, historians and students of Spanish language, culture and gastronomy on a fascinating journey to the world of Altamiras and, most important of all, his kitchen.
