The Journal of American Folklore, 1896 The Legend of the Holy Grail and the Perceval of Crestien of Troyes ...
William Wells Newell, 1902 American Book Publishing Record, 2007 Silk and Potatoes Adam
Roberts, 2022-06-08 This study constitutes the first to analyse the remarkable surge in popularity of Arthurian literature and art in the modern period from a broad range of instances of cultural production More novels with Arthurian themes have been published since the war than in any previous period and Silk and Potatoes provides detailed readings of some of the most famous including works by Marion Zimmer Bradley Anthony Burgess C J Cherryh Guy Gavriel Kay Mary Stewart Jack Vance and T H White In addition to examining Arthurian fiction with chapters on the general novel Historical fiction and Science Fiction this study examines the key cinematic examples of Arthuriana Boorman's Excalibur Bresson's Lancelot du Lac Rohmer's Perceval Le Gallois and Monthy Python and the Holy Grail A further chapter goes on to look at the myriad other forms of cultural production based on Arthurian themes from Bugs Bunny to Pop Music from the Camelot of JFK to the British National Lottery This is a study that touches on many aspects of Arthuriana whilst developing two connected arguments about on the one hand the necessary anachronism of any modern Arthurian Literature and on the other the aesthetic political implications of this literature's success The whole whilst rooted in the scholarly debates on the enduring appeal of King Arthur is written in an accessible and entertaining style It will be of interest to students and teachers of Arthurian literature film and popular culture Old Age in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht
Classen, 2012-02-14 After an extensive introduction that takes stock of the relevant research literature on Old Age in the Middle Ages and the early modern age the contributors discuss the phenomenon of old age in many different fields of late antique medieval and early modern literature history and art history Both Beowulf and the Hildebrandslied both Wolfram von Eschenbach's Parzival and Titurël both the figure of Merlin and the trans European tradition of Perceval Peredur Parzival then the figure of the vetula in a variety of medieval French English and Spanish texts and of the Old Man in The Stricker's Daniel both the treatment of old age in Langland's Piers the Plowman and in Jean Gerson's sermons are dealt with Other aspects involve late antique epistolary literature early modern French farce in light of Disability Studies the social role of old impotent men in sixteenth and seventeenth century Netherlandish paintings and the scientific discourse of old age and health since the 1500s The discourse of Old Age proves to have been of central importance throughout the ages so the critical examination of the issues involved sheds intriguing light on the cultural history from late antiquity to the seventeenth century
The Middle Ages in Popular Culture: Medievalism and Genre - Student Edition Helen Young, 2015-07-30 Note this is an abridged version of the book with references removed The complete edition is available on this website This fascinating study places multiple genres in dialogue and considers both medievalism and genre to be frameworks from which meaning can be produced It explores works from a wide range of genres children's and young adult historical cyberpunk fantasy science fiction romance and crime and across multiple media fiction film television video games and music The range of media types and genres enable comparison and the identification of overarching trends while also allowing comparison of contrasting phenomena As the first volume to explore the nexus of medievalism and genre across such a wide range of texts this collection illustrates the fractured ideologies of contemporary popular culture The Middle Ages are more usually and often more prominently aligned with conservative ideologies for example around gender roles but the Middle Ages can also be the site of resistance and progressive politics Exploring the interplay of past and present and the ways writers and readers work engage with them demonstrates the conscious processes of identity construction at work throughout Western popular culture The collection also demonstrates that while scholars may have by and large abandoned the concept of accuracy when considering contemporary medievalisms the Middle Ages are widely associated with authenticity and the authenticity of identity in the popular imagination the idea of the real Middle Ages matters even when historical realities do not This book will be of interest to scholars of medievalism popular culture and genre

Burge's Commentaries on Colonial and Foreign Laws Generally William Burge,1910 Tomorrow's Magic Pamela F. Service,2009-04-23 It's 500 years after the nuclear holocaust that devastated the earth's population and left the few survivors dealing with unending winter At their remote British boarding school Wellington Jones and Heather McKenna have a lot in common Both are misfits trying to avoid attention and both are fascinated by Earl a tall calm older boy with no recollection of his past but a remarkable knack for showing up when he is needed most When a blow to the head brings Earl's memory back he claims that he is actually Merlin a 2000 year old wizard Originally published in two volumes in the mid 1980s Pamela F Service's creative futuristic spin on the Camelot legend will appeal to Arthurian purists and fantasy lovers alike

The Palgrave Handbook of Transnational Women's Writing in the Long Nineteenth Century Claire Emilie Martin,Clorinda Donato,2024-03-14 This handbook explores the rich and as yet understudied field of women's writing during the nation building years that characterized the global politics of the long nineteenth century In the wake of the American and French Revolutions the waning of the Spanish Empire subsequent Latin American uprisings and the Italian Risorgimento nineteenth century women writers cracked wide open the myths of gender race and class that had sustained the ancien régime This volume shows that the transnational networks of women writing about politics sexuality economics and the forging of the modern nation were much broader and more inclusive at a global level than has previously been understood The handbook uniquely foregrounds French Italian Latin American and Spanish women writers focusing on the transnational nature of their relationships and cultural production within a growing body of research that casts an ever wider net in the effort to document women's voices

Auction Sale Prices,1907 A Bibliography of Modern Arthuriana (1500-2000) Ann F. Howey,Stephen Ray Reimer,2006 Annotated bibliography of the Arthurian legend in modern English language fiction not only in literary texts but in television music and art The legend of Arthur has been a source of fascination for writers and artists in English since the fifteenth century when Thomas Malory drew together for the first time in English a variety of Arthurian stories from a number of sources to form the Morte Darthur. It increased in popularity during the Victorian era when after Tennyson's treatment of the legend not only authors and dramatists but painters, musicians and film makers found a source of inspiration in the Arthurian material. This interdisciplinary annotated bibliography lists the Arthurian legend in modern English language fiction from 1500 to 2000 including literary texts, film, television, music, visual art and games. It will prove an invaluable source of reference for students of literary and visual arts, general readers, collectors, librarians and cultural historians indeed by anyone interested in the history of the ways in which Camelot has figured in post medieval English speaking cultures. ANN F HOWEY is Assistant Professor at Brock University, Canada. STEPHEN R REIMER is Associate Professor at the University of Alberta, Canada.

Lewis, 2009 A series which is a model of its kind. EDMUND KING HISTORY The contemporary historians of Anglo Norman England form a particular focus of this issue. There are contributions on Henry of Huntingdon's representation of civil war, on the political intent of the poems in the anonymous Life of Edward the Confessor, on William of Malmesbury's depiction of Henry I and on the influence upon historians of the late antique history attributed to Hegesippus. A paper on Gerald of Wales and Merlin brings valuable literary insights to bear. Other pieces tackle religious history, northern monasteries during the Anarchy, the abbey of Tiron and politics, family history across the Conquest, the Norman brothers Urse de Abetot and Robert Dispenser, the friendship network of King Stephen's family. The volume begins with Judith Green's Allen Brown Memorial Lecture which provides a wide ranging account of kingship, lordship and community in eleventh century England.
