From the 1919 Revolution to the 2011 Arab Spring Uzi Rabi, Mira Tzoreff, 2024-05-08 Focused on three Egyptian revolutions in 1919 1952 and 2011 this edited book argues that each of these revolutions is a milestone which represents a meaningful turning point in modern Egyptian history Revolutions are typically characterized by a fundamental change in political and social infrastructures as well as in the establishment of new values and norms However it should be noted that this may not be entirely applicable when examining the context of the three Egyptian revolutions the 1919 revolution failed to liberate Egypt from British colonial hegemony the 1952 revolution failed to rework the country's social and economic systems and unify the Arab world and the Arab Spring revolution of 2011 culminated in a chaotic economic and social catastrophe thus failing to solve the young generation's crisis Nevertheless by revisiting and redefining these revolutions through diverse theoretical frameworks the book proposes that each of them played a significant role in shaping Egypt's political social and cultural identity This book is specifically of interest for students historians and social scientists with a keen interest in Egyptian history and the Middle East offering fresh perspectives and insights into these transformative moments in Egypt's history

Revolts and the Military in the Arab Spring Sean Burns, 2018-01-30 Through detailed exploration of events in Tunisia Egypt Bahrain Libya Syria and Yemen Sean Burns here breaks down the concept of professionalism within the armed forces into its component parts and demonstrates how variation in military structures determines their behaviour In so doing and by emphasising historical context and drawing on a wide range of political science theory Burns sheds fresh light onto the ways in which military structure affects the potential for democratic transition or the course of civil war With this book he presented a wide ranging study of the Middle East which provides key tools to understanding the opportunities for democratisation both during the Arab Spring and beyond and which is therefore essential reading for anyone working on the Middle East popular uprisings and the politics of repression

Insight Turkey / Spring 2019 - The Balkans At a Crossroads , Since the disintegration of the Ottoman State the Balkan region is one of the most penetrated divided and unstable regions in the world Therefore the term Balkanization which has a strong negative connotation began to refer to the division of a larger region into many small and hostile political entities and the instability of the region as a result of many ethnic and religious movements and conflicts Ironically in today's unstable world the Balkans is relatively stable and peaceful especially compared with the chaotic Middle East However the current peaceful atmosphere is quite vulnerable and fragile it seems that historical hatred and enmity may restart anytime Unfortunately today there are many uncertainties in the Balkans and hence the region is at a new crossroads not only at the domestic level but also at the international level At the domestic level the Balkan countries are in a longtime transitory period and so far the regional countries could not complete this process On the one hand most of the countries in the region have not finished their state transformation and institutionalization processes as yet They need to accelerate their respective reformist policies and complete their respective transition periods In particular legal changes are required to consolidate their state institutions The most dramatic example is the complex political and administrative structure in Bosnia and Herzegovina which has never functioned well since its establishment by the Dayton Agreement. Due to the veto power of the three main ethnic groups namely Bosnians, Serbs and Croats in the legislative and administrative institutions at different levels of government, it is almost impossible to make necessary decisions to govern the country. In order to get rid of the administrative deadlock, they must take confidence building measures and establish a functional state system. On the other hand, the Balkan countries have many economic problems such as poverty, unemployment, underdevelopment and emigration. There are too many structural economic problems but they have too few resources to mobilize. Because of the high unemployment rate, most of the qualified population of the Balkan countries migrates to the developed European countries such as Italy, Germany and Switzerland. As a result of many detrimental developments in social and political life, including ethnic tensions, population problems and unemployed youth, the future of the Balkan states is still ambiguous. At the regional level, the Balkan countries have been experiencing many problems emanating from the dismemberment of the region during the modern period. The Balkans was politically divided twice: the first time the collapse of the Ottoman State was in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, and the second the collapse of Yugoslavia was in the late 20th century. After the disintegration of Yugoslavia, national and ethnic enmities were renewed and quickly resulted in severe violent clashes and mass killings, including the genocide in Bosnia and Herzegovina. A number of regional issues have remained unsolved and the initiated solution processes were stopped. One of the main regional crises is the normalization of relations between Serbia and Kosovo. The EU stipulates the normalization with Kosovo as a precondition of Serbia's accession to the Union. Unless it recognizes the state of Kosovo, it is impossible for Serbia to become a full member of the EU. However, for the moment, there is no concrete improvement in the Belgrade-Pristina dialogue process. In spite of the continuance of negative relations among some regional actors, there are some positive developments as well. The solution of the Macedonian name dispute in 2018 was a historical moment for the region because it demonstrated that the regional states have an intention to solve political problems and provide alternative solutions. At the global level, the Balkan region continues to attract many global powers such as the U.S., the EU, China and Russia. Each global power has its own strategy and perception of the region. The most involved global actor is the EU, who wants to integrate the region with itself and thus bring stability and peace to this contiguous region. Therefore, after the regional stability was secured with the support of the global powers, most Balkan countries began to develop cooperative relations with the EU and its leading member states because the first priority and strategic preference of most Balkan countries is the integration with the EU. Their expectations from the EU membership are economic prosperity and the prevention of future regional clashes. On the other hand, the U.S. has been trying to integrate the Balkan countries with NATO, thus decreasing the influence of other global powers. Besides Greece, which became a member in 1952, six Balkan countries namely Bulgaria, Romania, Albania, Croatia, Slovenia and Montenegro have also more recently become NATO members. Some other countries such as North Macedonia and Bosnia and Herzegovina are in the accession process NATO membership together with the EU membership is the most important positive agenda of the Balkan countries Russia has had an imaginary vision and historical patronage over the Balkans since the second half of the 19th century Religious ethnic and linguistic affinity was the main motivation for Russia to improve its relations with the region which was an alternative route for reaching the warm seas However nowadays Russia faces challenges from the Western countries who have taken the lead in the region The integration process with both the EU and NATO limited the Russian influence in the Balkans Furthermore Russia has insufficient resources to solve the domestic political and economic problems of the regional countries Another global power that has begun to show up in the region is China The Chinese presence in the Balkans is mainly in the economic sphere especially its investments in infrastructure and energy sectors Compared with the other three global actors the Chinese role in the region is quite limited The Balkans is almost at the heart of the European continent therefore it is very difficult for China to influence regional politics as much as the Western countries However since the Balkans is a penetrated region the impact of global rivalry is very noticeable in the region The conflictual policies of global powers may activate the dormant regional fault lines and trigger the renewal of ethnic and religious conflicts This new issue of Insight Turkey brings to the readers various manuscripts which touch upon domestic and regional issues and the impact of the external actors i e EU NATO Russia China and Turkey in the Balkans As mentioned above the normalization of the relations between Kosovo and Serbia are crucial for the region as it may prove to be a regional destabilizer in the future This issue gained more attention after the discussions on a possible territorial exchange between the two states Aleksander Zdravkovski and Sabrina P Ramet discuss this topic through historical and political lenses and contend that this process can have serious repercussions both in the Western Balkans and internationally The name dispute between North Macedonia and Greece is another important topic that impacts the whole Balkans region In their commentaries Cvete Koneska and Zhidas Daskalovski bring different perspectives on this issue yet both of them raise questions regarding the success of the agreement Albania is one of the most important states in the region and in recent years has been suffering from political turmoil and economic downturn which can very easily be translated into regional instability Isa Blumi in his article analyses the role of the U S NATO and the EU in the Albanian slide and cautions that the current situation may turn violent Croatia another important state in the Balkans considering its experience with the EU is at the center of Senada elo abi and Emir Suljagi s articles Croatia joined the EU in 2013 and this was considered an important step for all the Western Balkans because Croatia would serve as an example for their accession However Senada elo abi contends that Croatia s experience of the EU accession and membership is only partially relevant for the Western Balkans EU enlargement mainly due to its domestic issues Emir Suljagi on the other hand focuses on the Croatian interference in Bosnia and Hercegovina and brings to the readers a new viewpoint in terms of the otherization of Bosnia s Muslim population In order to explain this Suljagi uses the notion of antemurale Christianitatis which has been visible in Croatian politics since the

15th century The external interventions have never been missing in the Balkans Especially since the dissolution of Yugoslavia transatlantic relations have become crucial for the region In this context Oya Dursun zkanca s article argues that NATO accession acts as a prelude to the eventual EU accession ensuring that the countries stay the course of engaging in reforms and contributing to Euro Atlantic security while confirming their commitment to democracy Yet in recent years other actors Russia China and Turkey have started to play an important role in the region both politically and economically While a withdrawal of Russia came to the fore after the fall of communism in the Balkans lately it is trying to regain position in the region Vsevolod Samokhvalov in his article argues that Russia and the Balkans states are exploring new ways of cooperation considering that Russia is applying a more assertive foreign policy while the Balkan states are being more pragmatic China is not lagging behind Russia in the Balkans yet it is following a different path from Russia as China is acting generally on economic grounds Within this framework Liu Zuokui analyses China s investments in the Balkans and its impact in the region Lastly Turkey is one of the main countries whose role in the region is increasing day by day The commentary of Mehmet U ur Ekinci provides a comprehensive analysis of Turkey s Balkans policy while Ilya Roubanis discusses Turkey s role in the Balkans as part of the broader narrative of European integration Yet Turkey s policies in the Balkans have not been unchallenged by other powers The EU and especially Germany have started to see Turkey as an emerging threat in the region especially in terms of economy Elif Nuro lu and H seyin H Nuro lu focus exactly on this issue and argue that even while currently the commercial competition between Turkey and Germany in the Balkans is not serious in the forthcoming years Turkey has the potential to be a serious competitor to Germany Religion is an important aspect of Turkey s foreign policy yet this is true for Saudi Arabia as well Focusing on the case of Bulgaria Ismail Numan Telci and Aydzhan Yordanova Peneva evaluate the activities of Turkey and Saudi Arabia in the religious sphere By doing so the article explains the motivations behind such actions and addresses the impact of this activism on the Bulgarian society The last article of this issue is that of Muhidin Mulalic where he evaluates the trilateral relations between Turkey Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina and concludes that this tripartite diplomatic relation has been quite successful and has resulted in successful economic and trade cooperation To conclude the Balkans once considered as a powder keg is currently in a state of relative stability Yet this stability to some extent is threatened by the internal domestic and regional issues Concurrently the Balkans strategic position attracts external powers to intervene in the regional affairs All this considered the Balkan states find themselves at a crossroads and consequently are trying to create a balance between their domestic regional and international affairs This issue of Insight Turkey aims at analyzing the above mentioned issues and provide to its readers a general framework of the most important and current events in the Balkans Insight Turkey 2018 - Spring 2018 (Vol. 20, No.2) , The Gulf is a sub region consisting of Saudi Arabia and five small states namely Kuwait Qatar Oman the United Arab Emirates and Bahrain This sub region emerged after the British recognized the independence of the above mentioned small entities between 1961 and 1971 Having an abundant amount of natural resources i e oil and natural gas the Gulf States are among the richest countries in the world therefore they do not share the poverty and political instability widely found in the Middle East The Gulf is a sub region consisting of Saudi Arabia and five small states namely Kuwait Qatar Oman the United Arab Emirates and Bahrain This sub region emerged after the British recognized the independence of the above mentioned small entities between 1961 and 1971 Having an abundant amount of natural resources i e oil and natural gas the Gulf States are among the richest countries in the world therefore they do not share the poverty and political instability widely found in the Middle East The sub region was institutionalized with the establishment of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC in 1981 as a result of three important regional developments the Iranian Islamic Revolution in 1979 the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979 and the outbreak of the Iran Iraq war in 1980 The GCC was mainly designed as a security institution to counter regional threats emanating from the other side of the Persian Gulf namely Iran However after the invasion of Kuwait by Saddam s Iraq the Gulf States became alarmed and asked the United States to protect their political independence against all regional threats After the collapse of the Cold War the Gulf States initiated a process of regional integration and significant steps were taken to achieve a monetary and economic union At the end of the first decade of the 21st century the Gulf States decided to introduce al khaleeji as the common currency However this promising process was halted with the eruption of the Arab uprisings and revolutions The Arab uprisings have imposed the greatest threat to the unity of the Gulf For the first time in their history the Gulf States began to be challenged politically from not only external threats but also internal dynamics The process of sweeping changes throughout the Middle East instigated great concern in the Gulf the most pro status quo states in the region During the first two years 2011 2013 the Gulf States tried to follow a defensive policy against the powers of change They strived to keep the wave of uprisings away from the Gulf After they had overcome their shock and confusion they began to take initiatives to intervene into the regional crises Some of the Gulf countries especially Saudi Arabia and the UAE organized a military coup against the region s first and only democratically elected government of Muhammad Morsi placing Egypt in an economically and politically vulnerable position Furthermore these two countries interfered into the domestic affairs of other regional states in crisis such as Libya Yemen and Lebanon They succeeded in turning the Arab Spring into an Arab Winter by eliminating de legitimizing and weakening the carriers of reform the Muslim Brotherhood and its affiliates throughout the Arab world Thus indirectly they suppressed the moderate non state actors in favor of radical actors and terrorist groups such as ISIS and al Qaeda Saudi Arabia and the UAE went further and tried to redesign the region through their ambitious regional policies Encouraged by the United States and Israel they gained the support from countries that are dependent on their petro dollars such as Bahrain Egypt and Jordan These two states attempted to lead both the Arab and Muslim worlds and therefore mobilized their only asset billions of petro dollars to buy influence in the region In order to be able to lead the Arab world Saudi Arabia and the UAE had to delegitimize the Muslim Brotherhood and affiliated groups and political parties the main carriers of popular demonstrations throughout the Arab world Therefore they declared all these political groups and social movements as terrorist organizations They even attempted to ostracize those regional countries i e Turkey and Qatar that support these popular movements while at the same time forcing other countries to support their regional policies The first target was Qatar the Arab state most open to liberal values and diversity In 2014 Saudi Arabia and the UAE forced Qatar to cut its relations with regional non state actors such as the Brotherhood and Hamas but the Obama Administration did not allow Riyadh and Abu Dhabi to instigate a crisis However after Trump came to power these two states reintroduced the crisis and imposed their blockade against Qatar Nevertheless with the strong support of Turkey and Iran two significant regional powers the policy of Saudi Arabia and the UAE has failed As a result Riyadh and Abu Dhabi have shattered the unity of not only the Arabs but also that of the Gulf While Oman maintained its neutral position by following an active neutrality policy and playing a mediating role Kuwait tried to prevent the breakup of the Gulf region Although it has not declared so publicly Kuwait rejects the regional design attempts by the Saudi and Emirati governments To lead the Muslim world Saudi Arabia led the foundation of the so called Islamic Military Alliance comprising of more than 50 nations However it became clear in a short time period that this attempt was not a real Islamic alliance to bring stability to the region but a measure to fortify a Sunni bloc against Iranian regional expansionism That is Saudi Arabia tried to utilize the Sunni Islamic understanding for its regional policies It is not difficult to claim that Saudi Arabia and the UAE will not be able to realize this project The possibility of ending up with the disillusionment of the Arab and Muslim streets and alienation of some Sunni countries is quite high Overall the project which has been executed with the support of the U S and Israel is an attempt to deepen the sectarian strife between Shias and Sunnis and it will not bring political stability or peace to the region In conclusion in order to protect themselves against regional threats and to establish a balance of power against other regional powers the small Gulf States must form military alliances and political institutions with other regional countries First they need to maintain the unity of the Gulf Second Riyadh and Abu Dhabi should encourage other regional actors to contribute to the regional stability Saudi Arabia and the UAE have to end the Qatari crisis a lose lose crisis manufactured by these two states since it is undermining the sub region s security and economic outlook Third the Gulf States must keep the sub region as the island of political and economic stability in the chaotic Middle East and contribute to the gradual and peaceful reconstruction of the region To achieve this objective the Gulf States must stop using conflicting political discourses Considering all these important developments the Gulf region has attracted a lot of attention among the scholars and Insight Turkey through this special issue aims to cover some of the main topics such as the Qatari crisis the rise of sectarianism the foreign policies of the pro status quo countries and the relations of these states with Turkey The situation in the Gulf region gets more complicated as time passes and the division between blocks has started to become deeper Ufuk Uluta and Burhanettin Duran provide a comprehensive analysis of all of the actors including here global and regional ones which are currently included in the Gulf affairs Without any doubt the Qatari crisis has played a decisive role in manifesting the existing regional rifts In the light of this Kristian Coates Ulrichsen and Marwan Kabalan focus on this crisis which started with the blockade of Qatar by the so called Quartet i e Saudi Arabia the UAE Bahrain and Egypt With a special focus on the Gulf and U S policies respectively both of the authors provide valuable insights regarding the crisis and the future of the Gulf The main division in the region comes as a result of the rise of sectarianism which has transformed into local sectarian and regional geopolitical confrontations among some Gulf States mainly Saudi Arabia and the UAE and Iran Emad Kaddorah in his commentary argues that the regional conflict over the Gulf region is geo sectarian meaning that it is a geopolitical contest which has recently been engulfed by a sectarian dimension Saudi Arabia remains one of the main actors in the region and it deserves special attention The articles of Simon Mabon and May Darwich help to better understand the domestic and foreign policies of Saudi Arabia Mabon looks at the actions of the new crown prince to explore the impact of Bin Salman s influence on both the Kingdom and the Middle East more broadly On the other hand Darwich analyzes the Saudi intervention in Yemen a war that many have started to consider as Saudis Vietnam war More specifically May Darwich offers an alternative explanation for the abrupt Saudi aggressiveness toward Yemen and argues that this intervention is driven by the Saudi leadership aims to assert the Kingdom s status as a regional power in the Middle East Despite Saudi Arabia the UAE is another important actor in the region whose impact is underestimated By focusing on the military bases built by the UAE in the Horn of Africa smail Numan Telci and Tuba zt rk Horoz provide an explanation on the real motivations behind the Emirati foreign policies which have started to focus more on hard power a deviation from the perpetual foreign policies of the other Gulf States Amidst the shattering order of the Gulf Turkey has pursued a careful and balancing policy finding itself sided neither with the Saudi led block nor with the Iranian led block At this point it is important to understand the background of the Turkey GCC states relations and zden Zeynep Oktav in her article brings a detailed analysis of the root causes that led to the policy divergences between Turkey and some GCC states i e Saudi Arabia and the UAE This special issue of Insight Turkey includes five off topic pieces which indeed are closely related with the Gulf affairs In his commentary M Akif Kire ci focuses on the initiatives undertaken by Turkey after Trump declared Jerusalem as the capital of Israel and how the divided Gulf States left aside their disparities to protect the rights of Palestinians against this fallacious decision The article of Osama Anter Hamdi complements Kire ci s commentary as the author provides a comprehensive analysis of the American foreign policy toward the Arab Israeli conflict since the establishment of the Israeli state Iran of course deserves special attention as the foreign policies of the Gulf States are mostly designed to balance the Iranian influence in the region The three remaining articles of the issue deal with U S Iranian relations the nuclear deal and how Iran and Turkey serve as a model of emulation for other states in the region Written by mran Demir Farhad Rezaei and Ibrahim Khatib and As ad Ghanem respectively these three articles are worth reading in order to better understand the Iranian policies The Gulf on the Verge Ambitions Crises and Shattering Order provides timely analyses for a region that once again has become the linchpin of global affairs We are confident that this issue of Insight Turkey will be a great contribution to the Gulf studies British Country Life in Spring and Summer Edward Thomas,1907 DDT, Silent Spring, and the Rise of Environmentalism Thomas R. legacies of political economic and cultural subjugation As they work from African Islamic and Western perspectives the book's contributors shed important light on a continent's difficult history and undertake a critical conversation about whether and how the desire for radical change holds the possibility of a new beginning for Africa a beginning that may well reshape the contours of global affairs

PDFsam: Allows splitting, merging, and editing PDFs. Foxit Reader: Provides basic PDF viewing and editing capabilities. How do I compress a PDF file? You can use online tools like Smallpdf, ILovePDF, or desktop software like Adobe Acrobat to compress PDF files without significant quality loss. Compression reduces the file size, making it easier to share and download. Can I fill out forms in a PDF file? Yes, most PDF viewers/editors like Adobe Acrobat, Preview (on Mac), or various online tools allow you to fill out forms in PDF files by selecting text fields and entering information. Are there any restrictions when working with PDFs? Some PDFs might have restrictions set by their creator, such as password protection, editing restrictions, or print restrictions. Breaking these restrictions might require specific software or tools, which may or may not be legal depending on the circumstances and local laws.
