Sustainable Development: The Spiritual Dimension Krishan Saigal,2008

The concept of sustainable development was accepted by the world leaders in Rio de Janeiro in 1992. The concept was vague and this is natural when an international consensus has to be achieved. It was also based implicitly on the dominant Western paradigm with its stress on science and technology, its stress on management of technology and the meshing of economics and ecology as the answer to the environmental crisis. Value systems were not included in the concept of sustainable development. The book studies the Eastern paradigm based on the concepts and values of Hinduism, Buddhism and Islam and suggests that for a truly global ethic the Western and Eastern paradigms need to be integrated. This can be done through the mediation of modern science easily for the best of the propriety. Krsna and Christ Steven Tsoukalas, 2011-09-01. This work compares the Krsnavatara Krsna in his avatara doctrines of Sankara and Ramanuja and the incarnation of Christ as represented by classical Christian orthodoxy and draws out comparative theological and soteriological implications. It does so first by examining the epistemologies, theologies and world views of Sankara and Ramanuja and the theology and world view of classical Christian orthodoxy so that second an adequate foundation and subsequent thorough representation of avatara and incarnation might be accomplished in order that third accurate comparisons may be drawn between avatara and incarnation. The result of this study is a demonstration that many of the popularly held similarities between avatara and incarnation are superficial and that therefore careful consideration of epistemologies and ontologies should be undertaken when comparing theologies and soteriologies pertinent to avatara and incarnation. The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014-05-23. Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies. Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia. This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship, theology, spirituality, inter religious relations, interventions in society and mission. The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia. They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization, decolonization, modernization, democratization, identity construction of social groups and various social movements. With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms, the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia. Cistercian Studies Quarterly, 1998. The Privilege of Love Peter-Damian Belisle, 2002. The Privilege of Love Camaldolese Benedictine Spirituality is a collection of essays by Camaldolese monks, nuns and oblates. After an introduction by Michael Downey and an overview chapter on Camaldolese Benedictine history and spirituality, three chapters center on the Benedictine aspects of spirituality such as liturgy, lectio divina and Word Wisdom of God. The book focuses on Camaldolese sources: eremitical, cenobitical, dialectic and solitude, followed by chapters on Camaldolese ecumenical and interreligious involvement as well as oblate spirituality The concluding chapter comments on Camaldolese Benedictine spirituality in a post Vatican II context
