the 1990s, the industry has been hit hard by a combination of factors. The most significant of these is the decline in the number of new entrants, which has led to a concentration of market share among a few large firms. This has resulted in a more competitive environment, with firms vying for market share through price cuts and increased marketing efforts. Another major factor is the decline in the number of new entrants, which has led to a concentration of market share among a few large firms.
