Agricultural Sector in India Mruthyunjaya, 2023-09-06. This book presents a comprehensive overview of a range of concepts, methods, strategies, and policies in agriculture and natural resource management, environmental economics, production economics, and sustainable agricultural development. It explores effective analytical tools and science innovations and management solutions to enhance yields, manage the supply chain, strengthen institutional mechanisms, and service and support systems for farmers. It highlights the importance of enabling policies which can benefit farmers, resulting in cost-efficient and quality-improving farm practices, increased profits and income for farmers, and better management of natural resources. The essays in the book honour the academic teaching and research contributions of Professor R. Ramanna in the field of agricultural economics. They also address issues which are relevant to the growing research in sustainable agricultural development and natural resource management, including the use of new concepts, tools, analyses, technologies, innovations, and policy strategies modelled in local contexts that can easily be scaled and applied to similar contexts elsewhere. This book will be of interest and use to students, researchers, practitioners, and policymakers working in varied fields of agricultural economics, sustainable development, public policy, rural sociology, political economy, economics of innovation, institutional economics, and industrial organisation.

Tourist Guide to Bangalore, 2003. CONNECTING PEOPLE: NEKRTC AN ESSENTIAL ROAD TRANSPORTATION Dr. Hanamantraya Rampure, 2024-03-07. The movement of men, materials, and goods has a paramount significance to achieve lasting progress of any region, state, or country. It is no doubt that transportation should be considered as one of the premier needs of any society for the timely fulfilment of economic, social, and cultural needs, as economic compulsions at present day have become turned with the mobility factor. It need not be overemphasized here that the needful movement of men, material, and goods to the potential employment centers, production centers marketing places and people centers from faraway places give enormous strength to the economy of any country The absence of mobility questions the very survival of men and the consequent insurmountable problems jeopardize every effort to economic development The development of interior and unexploited places of rich resources of men and material the expansion of various kinds of services to the needy the simultaneous development of other sectors in the country requires and should be rightly supported by the presence of the sound transport network Transport is the lifeblood of civilization and constitutes an important item of infrastructure for economic growth The significance of the transport sector lies not only in the specific services it renders but even more in unifying and integrating
