Nicholas Dawidoff, Sidecountry is the work of a master reporter at the top of his game. Tales Of the Open Road Ruskin Bond, 2006-02-01 I have come to believe that the best kind of walk or journey is the one in which you have no particular destination when you set out. Ruskin Bond's travel writing is unlike what is found in most travelogues because he will take you to the smaller, lesser known corners of the country, acquaint you with the least famous locals there and describe the flora and fauna that others would have missed. And if the place is well known, Ruskin leaves the common tourist spots to find a small alley or shop where he finds colourful characters to engage in conversation. Tales of the Open Road is a collection of Ruskin Bond's travel writing over fifty years. Here you will encounter a tonga ride through the Shivaliks, a hidden waterfall near Rishikesh, walks along the myriad streets of Delhi, one of which used to be the richest in Asia, trips down the Grand Trunk Road, stopovers in little tea stalls in the hills around Mussoorie and an excursion to the icy source of the Ganga at over ten thousand feet above sea level. Enriched by rare photographs that Ruskin took during his travels, Tales of the Open Road is a celebration of small town and rural India by its most engaging chronicler.

Tales from the Homestead Sandra Rollings-Magnusson, 2022-08-08 A compilation of thirty six personal homesteader stories providing unique insight into the daily life of prairie pioneers. Highlighting the voices and personal stories of early immigrants who arrived in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, Tales from the Homestead is a captivating snapshot of social history. This compilation of first person accounts by English, Dutch, German, Russian, Ukrainian and American homesteaders reveals fascinating, startling, heartbreaking and inspiring details about new lives and communities built, risks taken and hardships endured. The book includes stories of surviving periods of near starvation and natural disaster and describes the challenges of navigating Canada's nascent immigration process, building a sod home and establishing a farm and adapting to the norms of a new country. Along with these tales of difficulty, fear and sadness are the many stories of happiness and wonderment at the beauty of the land. Community events and parties are thoughtfully remembered, as are accounts of attending one room schoolhouses. The camaraderie of the people and their pleasure and delight in forging a new life for themselves on the prairies shows the extent of their fortitude, grit and stamina. Illustrated with archival photography.
