Lee, 2018-05-02 Adored by his soldiers and respected by his adversaries Robert E Lee achieved worldwide admiration for his military triumphs against a vastly more powerful army The idol of the Confederacy proved gracious in defeat and he encouraged other Southerners to follow his example and accept reconciliation with the Union Revered in his lifetime Lee achieved legendary status after his death This extraordinary memoir by his son offers rare glimpses of the man behind the uniform with scenes from family life and touching letters from a loving husband and father Lee's youngest son Robert published this unique volume in 1904 A celebration of the general's life as well as a priceless contribution to the historical record it combines correspondence and personal reminiscences dating from the Mexican American War in the 1840s until the general's death in 1870 In addition to their firsthand reports from Civil War battlefields Lee's letters offer comfort to the family members at home and express concern for his sons who served in the Confederate army His post war correspondence reflects his devotion to duty in the difficult era of Reconstruction when he declined more lucrative offers to profit from his fame and assumed the presidency of Washington College known today as Washington and Lee University Any study of Robert E Lee the South the Civil War or American history is incomplete without this remarkable book and its intimate portrait of a towering historical figure We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general

Personal Reminiscences of General Robert E. Lee J. William Jones, 2004-03 When Robert E Lee passed on without setting pen to paper on his memoirs both North and South alike were deprived of a classic personal history of the War Between the States worthy to sit on the shelf next to Ulysses S Grant s Personal Memoirs The Reverend J William Jones Lee s chaplain compiled this collection of reminiscences in its place as a memorial volume commemorating his death Filled with correspondence with President Andrew Johnson General Grant and C S A Generals Scott Beauregard and Longstreet and personal anecdotes from Lee s wartime contemporaries such as Jubal Early Jeb Magruder Jefferson Davis and Winfield Scott What comes to light is a personal portrait of Lee as family man gentleman scholar and soldier as well as an eyewitness account of the war that threatened to tear the United States asunder as witnessed by the South s greatest military leader The Reverend J William Jones D D was the chaplain of the Army of Northern Virginia under the command of General Robert E Lee and after the Civil War served as chaplain for Washington College in Virginia under Lee s presidency It was my proud privilege to have known General Lee intimately I saw him on that day in April 1861 on which he came to offer his stainless sword to the land that gave him birth I followed his standard from Harper s Ferry in 1861 to Appomattox Court house in 1865 coming into somewhat frequent contact with him rejoicing with him at his long series of brilliant victories and weeping with him when compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources This first attempt at authorship is sent forth with a sincere desire that it may prove acceptable to the countless admirer of the great Confederate chieftain that it may serve to give to all a higher appreciation of his noble character and that it may prove a blessing to the young men of the country more especially to those who wore the gray by inducing them to study in order that they may imitate his shining virtues
