A Philosophical History of Documentary, 1895-1959 Dan Geva, 2021-09-15 This book presents a chronology of thirty definitions attributed to the word term phrase and concept of documentary between the years 1895 and 1959 The book dedicates one chapter to each of the thirty definitions scrutinizing their idiosyncratic language games from close range while focusing on their historical roots and concealed philosophical sources of inspiration Dan Geva's principal argument is twofold first that each definition is an original ethical premise of documentary and second that only the structured assemblage of the entire set of definitions successfully depicts the true ethical nature of documentary insofar as we agree to consider its philosophical history as a reflective object of thought in a perpetual state of being self defined an ethics sui generis
