Hill, 2017-02-03 In his travel narrative Travels with a Donkey in the Cevennes 1879 Robert Louis Stevenson declares I travel not to go anywhere but to go I travel for travel s sake The great affair is to move Taking up the concepts of time place and memory the contributors to this collection explore in what ways the dynamic view of life suggested by this quotation permeates Stevenson s work The essays adopt a wide variety of critical approaches including post colonial theory post structuralism new historicism art history and philosophy making use of the vast array of literary materials that Stevenson left across a global journey that began in Scotland in 1850 and ended in Samoa in 1894 These range from travel journals letters and classic literary staples such as Treasure Island and The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to rarely read masterpieces such as The Master of Ballantrae or The Ebb Tide While much recent scholarship on Stevenson foregrounds geography the present volume also examines the theme of movement across memory time and generic boundaries Taken together the essays offer a view of Stevenson that demonstrates how the protean nature of his literary output reflects the radical developments in science technology and culture that characterized the age in which he lived

The Works of Robert Louis Stevenson - Swanston Edition Vol. 11 (of 25) Robert Louis Stevenson, 2018-06-26 The Works of Robert Louis Stevenson Swanston Edition Vol 11 of 25 by Robert Louis Stevenson The 25th day of August 1751 about two in the afternoon I David Balfour came forth of the British Linen Company a porter attending me with a bag of money and some of the chief of these merchants bowing me from their doors Two days before and even so late as yestermorning I was like a beggarman by the wayside clad in rags brought down to my last shillings my companion a condemned traitor a price set on my own head for a crime with the news of which the country rang To day I was served heir to my position in life a landed laird a bank porter by me carrying my gold recommendations in my pocket and in the words of the saying the ball directly at my foot There were two circumstances that served me as ballast to so much sail The first was the very difficult and deadly business I had still to handle the second the place that I was in The tall black city and the numbers and movement and noise of so many folk made a new world for me after the moorland braes the sea sands and the still country sides that I had frequented up to then The throng of the citizens in particular abashed me Rankeillor s son was short and small in the girth his clothes scarce held on me and it was plain I was ill qualified to strut in the front of a bank porter It was plain if I did so I should but set folk laughing and what was worse in my case set them asking questions So that I behoved to come by some clothes of my own and in the meanwhile to walk by the porter s side and put my hand on his arm as though we were a pair of friends At a merchant s in the Luckenbooths I had myself fitted out none too fine for I had no idea to appear like a beggar on horseback but comely and responsible so that servants should respect me Thence to an armourer s where I got a plain sword to suit with my degree in life I felt safer with the weapon though for one so ignorant of defence it might be called an added danger The porter who was naturally a man of some experience judged my accoutrement to be well chosen We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience Robert Louis Stevenson Reconsidered William B.  India has over England is a great Knowability After five years service a man is directly or indirectly acquainted with the two or three hundred Civilians in his Province all the Messes of ten or twelve Regiments and Batteries and some fifteen hundred other people of the non official caste In ten years his knowledge should be doubled and at the end of twenty he knows or knows something about every Englishman in the Empire and may travel anywhere and everywhere without paying hotel bills unreasonableness of it all There were scores of men no better than I whose punishments had at least been reserved for another world and I felt that it was bitterly cruelly unfair that I alone should have been singled out for so hideous a fate This mood would in time give place to another where it seemed that the rickshaw and I were the only realities in a world of shadows that Kitty was a ghost that Mannering Heatherlegh and all the other men and women I knew were all ghosts and the
