Out of the Shadows Gene D. Phillips, 2012 Out of the Shadows explores the most celebrated examples of film noir such as Laura The Maltese Falcon and Sunset Boulevard but also offers new insight into underrated films that deserve reconsideration including Spellbound A Double Life Exiles Traveling , 2015-06-29 This volume presents for the first time a study of the interface between exile and travel within the context of exile from Nazi Germany The nineteen essays share the overarching aim to compare the tropes of travel and exile as generators of a critical discourse and as central categories within German exile in particular literature music and film The essays are guided by powerful questions How does travel compare to exile and how much overlap is there between these two categories How do exiles travel as practitioners of displacement Or rather to what extent does the concept of travel apply to the exilic predicament Do the terms exile and travel still have validity in our postmodern era of cosmopolitanism ever increasing mobility the embrace of otherness and tourism How does exile literature in which travel is thematized compare to the tradition s of travel writing And how are the critical moments of leaving home and return imagined and narrated The essays feature numerous German and Austrian authors musicians and filmmakers and lend fresh insights into German Exile and the field of Exile Studies at large

Driven to Darkness Vincent Brook, 2009-09-18 From its earliest days the American film industry has attracted European artists With the rise of Hitler filmmakers of conscience in Germany and other countries particularly those of Jewish origin found it difficult to survive and fled for their work and their lives to the United States Some had trouble adapting to Hollywood but many were celebrated for their cinematic contributions especially to the dark shadows of film noir Driven to Darkness explores the influence of Jewish émigré directors and the development of this genre While filmmakers such as Fritz Lang Billy Wilder Otto Preminger and Edward G Ulmer have been acknowledged as crucial to the noir canon the impact of their Jewishness on their work has remained largely unexamined until now Through lively and original analyses of key films Vincent Brook penetrates the darkness shedding new light on this popular film form and the artists who helped create it

Disaster and Memory Wheeler W. Dixon, 1999 Using the media's coverage of the death of Princess Diana as a starting point the author draws on the effects of new technologies the role of the star system the nature of public surveillance and the development of media conglomerates to explain why Hollywood has become so repetitive Discussing films such as Titanic the author argues that current films replay the same plotlines with greater wizardry and less humanity than those of fifty years ago and that our culture is fascinated with images of disaster
