narrative environment which at its roots displays deep similarities with performance on stage or installation in urban and rural space The book breaks new ground by looking at the exhibition as a cultural format firstly within a great sweep of the arts in general weaving a web of philosophical museological linguistic and media theoretical references which expands the contextual field of the profession It then offers unique and important insights from within in extreme close up by bringing together interviews with six of the leading exhibition designers who discuss the dynamics of the medium its interactive dimensions the soft parameters of the exhibition and how to get to grips with the format as a complex narrative space in which the public takes part Curator and designer should reposition themselves professionally at the heart of the axis which divides or connects content and form     Essays on Twentieth-century German Drama and Theater Hellmut H. Rennert, 2004 This collection of articles by both German literature specialists and German theater experts grew out of the Comparative Drama Conference held annually between February and March from 1977 to 1999 in Gainesville Florida At the center of the contributors work is the productive tension between the literary and the performance aspects of German drama and theater At the same time the reception is truly American since the German playwrights directors theorists and dramatists discussed have gone through creative filters in the researching performing and teaching of German drama and theater on various campuses across the United States during the last third of the twentieth century     Robert Wilson's Vision Trevor J.
