Painting, Photography, Film László Moholy-Nagy, 1969      Laszlo Moholy-Nagy Painting Photography Film László Moholy-Nagy, 1969      Painting László Moholy-Nagy, Otto Stelzer, Hans Maria Wingler, 1967      Laszlo Moholy-Nagy - Painting, Photography, Film, 1969      Modern Contemporary Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 In a lively panorama of stimulating juxtapositions sequences and cross references this new edition of Modern Contemporary provides a cornucopia of 590 works of key contemporary art 37 more than in the original edition      Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred Schneckeburger, Christiane Fricke, 2000 The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13 This edition combines the two volumes into one it s paperbound flexi cover the paper has a plastic coating smaller 8x10 and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets none of whom should pass it by The scope is encyclopedic half the work originally the first volume is devoted to painting the other half to sculpture new media and photography Chapters are arranged thematically and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion The final section a lexicon of artists includes a small bandw photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work writings and exhibitions Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians curators and writers as is editor Walther c Book News Inc      The Art and Films of Lynn Hershman Leeson Meredith Tromble, 2005 Contents of accompanying DVD ROM on p 221 of text      Laszlo Moholy-Nagy Joyce Tsai, 2018-04-06 Laszlo Moholy Nagy is the first monograph on Moholy to attend to the fraught but central role painting played in shaping his aesthetic project His reputation has been that of an artist far more interested in exploring the possibilities offered by photography film and other new media than in working with what he once called the anachronistic medium of painting And yet with the exception of the period between 1928 and 1930 Moholy painted throughout his career Joyce Tsai argues that his investment in painting especially after 1930 emerged not only out of pragmatic and aesthetic considerations but also out of a growing recognition of the economic political and ethical compromises required by his large scale technologically mediated projects aimed at reforming human vision Without abandoning his commitment to fostering what he called New Vision Moholy came to understand painting as a particularly plastic field in which the progressive possibilities of photography film and other emergent media could find provisional expression Provided by publisher      Art and Artists on Screen John Albert Walker, 2010-09      Objects in Exile Robin Schuldenfrei, 2024-01-23 An innovative new history of how the migration of designers in the 20th century shaped modernist art and architecture      Framing Pictures Steven Jacobs, 2012-08-27 Steven Jacobs book provides a unique critical intervention into a relatively new area of scholarship the multidisciplinary topic of film and the visual arts      The Art Institute of Chicago Field Guide to Photography and Media Antawan I. Byrd, Elizabeth Siegel, 2023-01-01 A roster of prominent artists curators and scholars offers a new entirely contemporary approach to our understanding of photography and media Focusing on the Art Institute of Chicago s deep and

varied collection of photographs books and other printed matter installation art photobooks albums and time based media this ambitious wide ranging volume features short essays by prominent artists curators university professors and independent scholars that explore topics essential to understanding photography and media today The essays organized around themes ranging from the expected to the esoteric are paired with key objects from the collection in order to address issues of aesthetics history philosophy power relations production and reception More than 400 high quality reproductions amplify the authors arguments and suggest additional dialogues across conventional divisions of chronology genre geography and technology An introductory essay by Matthew S Witkovsky traces the museum s history of acquisitions and how the evolution of the museum s collection reflects broader changes in the critical reception of the field of photography and media Distributed for the Art Institute of Chicago

The Art-Architecture Complex Hal Foster, 2013-07-23 Hal Foster author of the acclaimed Design and Crime argues that a fusion of architecture and art is a defining feature of contemporary culture He identifies a global style of architecture as practiced by Norman Foster Richard Rogers and Renzo Piano analogous to the international style of Le Corbusier Gropius and Mies More than any art today s global style conveys both the dreams and delusions of modernity Foster demonstrates that a study of the art architecture complex provides invaluable insight into broader social and economic trajectories in urgent need of analysis

The Documentary Film Reader Jonathan Kahana, 2016 Bringing together an expansive range of writing by scholars critics historians and filmmakers The Documentary Film Reader presents an international perspective on the most significant developments and debates from several decades of critical writing about documentary Each of the book s seven sections covers a distinct period in the history of documentary collecting both contemporary and retrospective views of filmmaking in the era And each section is prefaced by an introductory essay that explains its design and provides critical context Painstakingly selected from the archives of more than a hundred years of cinema practice and theory the essays reviews interviews manifestos and ephemera gathered in this volume suit the needs and interests of the beginning student the advanced scholar the casual reader and the working documentarian

Material Modernity Deborah Ascher Barnstone, Maria Makela, 2022-01-27 Material Modernity explores creative innovation in German art design and architecture during the Weimar Republic charting both the rise of new media and the re fashioning of old media Weimar became famous for the explosion of creative ingenuity across the arts in Germany due to experiments with new techniques including the move towards abstraction in painting and sculpture and inventive work in such new media as paper and plastic which utilized both new and old methods of art production Individual chapters in this book consider inventions such as the camera and materials like celluloid examine the role of new materials including concrete composites in opening up fresh avenues in the plastic arts and relate advances in the understanding of color perception and psychology to an increased interest in visual perception and the latent potential of color as both architectural ornament and carrier of emotional force in space While art historians usually argue that experimentation in the Weimar

Republic was the result of an intentional rejection of traditional modes of expression in the conscious attempt to invent a modern art and architecture unshackled from historic media and methods this volume shows that the drivers for innovation were often far more complex and nuanced It first of all describes how the material shortages precipitated by the First World War along with the devastation to industrial infrastructure and disruption of historic trade routes affected art as did a spirit of experimentation that permeated interwar German culture It then analyzes new challenges in the 1920s to artistic conventions in traditional art modes like painting sculpture drawing architecture textiles and print making and simultaneously probes the likely causes of innovative new methods of artistic production that appeared such as photomontage assemblage mechanical art and multi media art In doing so Material Modernity fills a significant gap in Weimar scholarship and art history literature

The City Symphony Phenomenon Steven Jacobs,Eva Hielscher,Anthony Kinik,2018-07-20 The 1920s and 1930s saw the rise of the city symphony an experimental film form that presented the city as protagonist instead of mere decor Combining experimental documentary and narrative practices these films were marked by a high level of abstraction reminiscent of high modernist experiments in painting and photography Moreover interwar city symphonies presented a highly fragmented oftentimes kaleidoscopic sense of modern life and they organized their urban industrial images through rhythmic and associative montage that evoke musical structures In this comprehensive volume contributors consider the full 80 film corpus from Manhatta and Berlin Die Sinfonie der Grosstadt to lesser known cinematic explorations

Screening the Art World Temenuga Trifonova,2025-10-01 Screening the Art World explores the ways in which artists and the art world more generally have been represented in cinema Contributors address a rarely explored subject art in cinema rather than the art of cinema by considering films across genres historical periods and national cinemas in order to reflect on cinema s fluctuating imaginary of art and the art world The book examines the intersection of art history with history in cinema cinema s simultaneous affirmation and denigration of the idea of art as truth the dominant often contradictory ways in which artists have been represented on screen and cinematic representations of the art world s tenuous position between commercial good and cultural capital

Cinema of Actuality Yuriko Furuhashi,2013-09-13 Cinema of Actuality analyzes Japanese avant garde filmmakers struggle to radicalize cinema in light of the intensifying politics of spectacle and a rapidly changing media environment one that was increasingly dominated by television

The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R. Peres,2013-05-29 This volume is a complete revision of the 1996 third edition shares the ever changing breadth of photographic topics with a special emphasis on digital imaging and contemporary issues Produced by an international team of photographic and imaging experts with collaboration from the George Eastman House the world s oldest photography museum this fourth edition contains essays and photographic reproductions sharing information where photography and imaging serve a primary role ranging from the atomic to the cosmic

Design and Visual Culture from the Bauhaus to Contemporary Art Edit Tóth,2018-05-16 This book complements the more textually based

Bauhaus scholarship with a practice oriented and creative interpretive method which makes it possible to consider Bauhaus related works in an unconventional light Edit Toth argues that focusing on the functionalist approach of the Bauhaus has hindered scholars from properly understanding its design work With a global scope and under studied topics the book advances current scholarly discussions concerning the relationship between image technologies and the body by calling attention to the materiality of image production and strategies of re channeling image culture into material processes and physical body space the space of dimensionality and everyday activity
