Watercolours from Leeds City Art Gallery Leeds (England). City Art Gallery, 1995 Painters on Painting Carel Weight, 1969 Haughton FORREST (1826-1925) Geoffrey Ayling, Ian Malik, 2013-07-27. This First Edition is a work in progress of 424 pages and 127 000 words. It includes a biography, 1 550 catalogue records, and 700 images of the estimated 3 000 works of art painted by Haughton Forrest. Members of The Forrest Project compiled a web-based catalogue that included a history of Haughton Forrest and his family, an inventory of his paintings with information on provenance and ownership, and a virtual gallery of images of as many paintings as could be obtained. This pooling of energy, enthusiasm, and expertise has achieved a great deal. It now finds monumental expression in this splendid book that will stimulate wider interest in Forrest and provide a solid foundation for further research and reappraisal of his work. Environmental Values in Christian Art Susan Power Bratton, The Sailor's Bookshelf James Stavridis, 2021-12-15. Admiral Stavridis, a leader in military, international affairs, and national security circles, shares his love of the sea and some of the sources of that affection. The Sailor's Bookshelf offers synopses of fifty books that illustrate the history, importance, lore, and lifestyle of the oceans and of those who go down to the sea in ships. Stavridis colors those descriptions with glimpses of his own service sea stories in popular parlance that not only clarify his choices but show why he is held in such high esteem among his fellow sailors. Divided into four main categories: The Oceans, Explorers, Sailors in Fiction, and Sailors in Non-Fiction, Admiral Stavridis's choices will appeal to old salts and to those who have never known the sights of the ever-changing seascape nor breathed the tonic of an ocean breeze. The result is a navigational aid that guides readers through the realm of sea literature, covering a spectrum of topics that range from science to aesthetics, from history to modernity, from solo sailing to great battles. Among these eclectic choices are guides to shiphandling and navigation, classic fiction that pits man against the sea, ecological and strategic challenges, celebrations of great achievements, and the lessons that come with failure, economic competition, and its stepbrother combat, explorations of the deep, and poetry that beats with the pulse of the wave. Some of the included titles are familiar to many, while others are likely less well-known but are welcome additions to this encompassing collection Admiral Stavridis has chosen some books that are relatively recent and he recommends other works which have been around much longer and deserve recognition Art and Identity at the Water's Edge Tricia

Cusack, 2017-07-05 The water's edge whether shore or riverbank is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water's edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities Art and Identity at the Water's Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting Such themes are related to diverse forms of art including painting architecture maps photography and film Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks They examine post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth century British painting The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water's edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities The art journal London, 1867 Flemish Art and Architecture, 1585-1700 Hans Vlieghe, 1998-01-01 02 This
