The Navy Chaplain, 1990 Theory of Spiritual Care for Nursing Practice Bonnie Weaver Battey, Ph.D.

R.N., 2009-07-15 The author's purpose is to address the issue of establishing the nursing practice of holistic care in hospitals and similar health care agencies as well as in educational programs The theory of spiritual care for nursing is offered to provide guidance and structure to this effort Incorporating spirituality into one's own nursing practice or for the entire nursing staff at an agency is probably a most pressing and intangible task facing nursing today This text is not the final answer but is offered to provide one perspective that may provide direction for an ecumenical approach and serve as a theoretical guide for nurse educators in teaching spiritual care to nursing students as well as for nursing leaders and their nursing staff in developing a plan of implementation appropriate to an individual agency The Sandwich Generation

Charles R. Roots, 2021-12-12 First published in 1998 The purpose of this book is to consider all aspects of having to care for elderly parents while taking care of children still at home Most of us have a general idea of how to raise children in the home but just how do you care for an elderly parent The focus is on the family and the responsibilities that are based on scripture society and family upbringing The thrust of this book is to ferret out the real issues of being a parent to both your children and your parent's The Resource Guide for Christian Counselors Douglas R. growing up in South Central LA and the modern battlefields of Iraq Pastoral Care Emergencies David K. Switzer, 2000 David K Switzer presents a clear illustrative and practical manual for pastoral caregivers that covers the entire range of pastoral care emergencies typically faced by clergy pastoral counselors and lay caregivers such as Stephen Ministers and Befrienders The chapters deal with issues such as situational crises hospital emergencies ministry to the dying bereavement suicide divorce domestic violence substance abuse and psychiatric emergencies The question of when and how to refer is discussed in the final chapter The book is highly practical in approach but still extremely sensitive to the theological issues at hand in ministering to those experiencing great emotional mental and physical distress The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 This multifaceted and up to date encyclopedia is sure to be of interest to pastors and church workers of all confessions equally so to students scholars and researchers around the world who are interested in any aspect of Christianity or religion in general The first volume contains 465 articles that address a comprehensive list of topics Military Chaplains' Review , 1989 Health Progress , 1990 SCM Studyguide Pastoral Theology Margaret Whipp, Michael Byrne, 2013 The SCM Studyguide Pastoral Theology designed to support undergraduate courses for the training of clergy and lay pastoral workers at an accessible introductory level The book aims to develop pastoral wisdom and integrity through a critical integration of theology and the human sciences Introducing key themes in theological anthropology and pastoral practice it shapes a creative pastoral vision which is deeply rooted in a Christian vision of what it means to be human and what it takes to care Working with case studies the book will introduce broad frameworks of understanding of issues such as growth loss and sexuality together with critical perspectives on important aspects of practice such as language power and boundaries The book provides an accessible overview of key concepts in pastoral theology offering key entry points for further discussion and study Each chapter includes discussion questions and or reflective exercises at the end of each chapter together with a short bibliography Throughout the text key summaries of learning will be indicated by boxed Practice Points The Ministry of Lament Gene T. Fowler, 2010-07-01 For pastors and congregations caring for those who are grieving is a very important but difficult job Gene Fowler believes that the church needs a theological understanding of bereavement that can inform the ministry of caring for grieving people The heart of The Ministry of Lament addresses the relationship between bereavement and the Christian faith in the service of caring ministry Throughout the book Fowler brings the psalms of lament into dialogue with a contemporary understanding of mourning so that the entire grief process can be addressed theologically
