

A Healthy Mind Reader

The brain is the most amazing part of our body and despite all medical research nobody really understands about it. But just like our bodies, it needs to be cared for in ways that can be quite simple. Getting a good night's sleep, eating a balanced diet and taking deep breaths are all important methods of looking after both your body and your brain.

Many people think their brain will slow down with age and their memory will get worse as a result. The truth is, just like your body, you can also improve your mind. I've found I can improve my memory by imaging what I need to remember. For example, if I'm going shopping and I need bread, milk and a birthday card for brother, I imagine a loaf bread, a carton of milk with a cow on the front and a birthday card with a football on it.

The same kind of method can be used with important dates. If you have a picture in your mind of a particular event it's much easier to remember than just a number on a calendar.

Another way of improving your mind is to make sure you regularly visit new places and have new experiences. Personally I find learning Spanish is a great way to keep the brain working, but communication in any language is important. Having a conversation is so much better for your brain than staring at a computer screen or at other people talking on TV.

1 What is the writer's main aim in writing the text?

- B she is learning another language
- C She likes shopping
- D She enjoys travelling

3 What does the writer say about the brain?

- A It should be treated in a similar way to our bodies.
- B Not enough medical research is being done on it.
- C It definitely becomes less Iquick when we are older.
- D It ages faster than our bodies.

4 What does the writer say about her own memory?

- A It has been possible to make it better.
- B She finds objects more difficult to remember than numbers.
- C It has got worse over the years.
- D She often forgets birthdays.

5 What would be another title for the text?

- A Easy ways to develop your mind
- B The latest research into the brain.
- C The amazing power of memory
- D How to remember things you thought you 'd forgotten.

Reading Images And Texts:

Reading Medieval Images Elizabeth Sears, Thelma K. Thomas, 2002 What is it that art historians do when they approach works of art What kind of language do they use to describe what they see How do they construct arguments using visual evidence What sorts of arguments do they make In this unusual anthology eighteen prominent art historians specializing in the medieval field European Byzantine and Islamic provide answers to these fundamental questions not directly but by way of example Each author responding to invitation has chosen for study a single image or object and has submitted it to sustained analysis The collection of essays accompanied by statements on methodology by the editors offers an accessible introduction to current art historical practice Elizabeth L Sears is Associate Professor of the History of Art University of Michigan Thelma K Thomas is Associate Professor of the History of Art and Associate Curator of the Kelsey Museum University of Michigan

The Poetics of Visuality Justin J. White ,2024-11-14 Justin J White explores the nature of images in ancient Israel through a reconceptualization of the relationship between image and text He proposes that in ancient Israel texts evoked images as a core part of their rhetoric Rather than conceptualizing texts and images as ontologically or functionally distinct media he argues that both media are mixed media even while neither medium is reducible to the other In order to make this argument he focuses on the visual aspects of textual rhetoric what he terms the poetics of visuality He builds his argument across three text specific axes of visual rhetoric ekphrasis the visual imagination and material agency He makes the claim that each of these three axes are endemic to Israelite literature and mutually contribute to the formation of a robust ontology of visual representation in ancient Israel How to Read Barthes' Image-Music-Text Ed White, 2012-07-20 Roland Barthes is one of the most influential cultural theorists of the postwar period and Image Music Text collects his most influential essays Ed White provides students with a clear guide to this essential but difficult text As students are increasingly expected to write across a range of media Barthes work can be understood as an early mapping of what we now call interdisciplinary or multidisciplinary study The book's detailed section by section readings makes Barthes most important writings accessible to undergraduate readers This book is a perfect companion for teaching and learning Barthes ideas in cultural studies and literary theory Text and Image in Women's Life Writing Valérie Baisnée-Keay, Corinne Bigot, Nicoleta

Alexoae-Zagni, Stephanie Genty, Claire Bazin, 2022-01-12 This book examines the relationship between words and images in various life writing works produced by nineteenth to twenty first century American and British women It addresses the politics of images in women's life writing contending that the presence or absence of images is often strategic Including a range of different forms of life writing chapters draw on traditional auto biographies travel narratives memoirs diaries autofiction cancer narratives graphic memoirs artistic installations quilts and online performances as life writing moves from page to screen and other media The book explores a wide range of women who have crossed the boundary between text and image painters who have become writers novelists who have become painters writers who hesitate between images and words models who seize the camera and artists who use the frame as a page Reading Wellness Jan Burkins, Kim Yaris, 2023-10-10 With so many state standards and demands of accountability it can be a challenge for teachers to teach in ways that create energy and enthusiasm for reading In their book Reading Wellness Lessons in Independence and Proficiency authors Dr Jan Burkins and Kim Yaris want to reignite the passion in teachers and drive them to instill confidence curiosity and joy in students Burkins and Yates define reading wellness to include all aspects of readership so we can be our best reading selves The book is built around a framework of four intentions alignment balance sustainability and joy It includes a series of field tested lessons that help children read closely and carefully while still honoring their interests passions and agency as readers Reading Wellness encourages each teacher to shape these ideas in ways that support personal ideals and goals while nurturing a love of reading and a passion for lifelong learning Image and Text in Conceptual Art Eve Kalyva, 2017-06-29 This book examines the use of image and text juxtapositions in conceptual art as a strategy for challenging several ideological and institutional demands placed on art While conceptual art is generally identified by its use of language this book makes clear exactly how language was used In particular it asks How has the presence of language in a visual art context changed the ways art is talked about theorised and produced Image and Text in Conceptual Art demonstrates how artworks communicate in context and evaluates their critical potential It discusses international case studies and draws resources from art history and theory philosophy discourse analysis literary criticism and social semiotics Engaging the critical and social dimensions of art it proposes three methods of analysis that consider the work s performative gesture its logico semantic relations and the rhetorical operations in the discursive creation of meaning This book offers a comprehensive method of analysis that can be applied beyond conceptual art Mediating Ideology in Text and Image Inger Lassen, Jeanne Strunck, Torben Vestergaard, 2006-01-01 While ideology has been treated widely in CDA literature the role played by the interaction of text and image in multiplying meaning and furthering ideological stances has not so far received a lot of attention Mediating Ideology in Text and Image offers a number of approaches to such analysis offering students and academics valuable tools for identifying possible discrepancies between the world and the way it is represented through various mediational means The authors common aim is one of assisting the audience in reading between the lines thus offering a variety of approaches that may contribute to a better understanding of how ideologies possibly work and how they may be denaturalised from text and image The articles in part I look at rhetorical strategies used in meaning construction processes unfolding in various kinds of mass media Part II focuses on the re semiotization of meaning and looks at how analysing the combination of text and image may contribute to a better understanding of ideological processes brought about by multimodal resources Foreword by Ruth Wodak Early Medieval Text and Image Volume 2 Jennifer O'Reilly, 2019-06-19 When she died in 2016 Dr Jennifer O'Reilly left behind a body of published and unpublished work in three areas of medieval studies the iconography of the Gospel Books produced in early medieval Ireland and Anglo Saxon

England the writings of Bede and his older Irish contemporary Adomnán of Iona and the early lives of Thomas Becket In these three areas she explored the connections between historical texts artistic images and biblical exegesis This volume brings together seventeen essays published between 1984 and 2013 on the interplay of texts and images in medieval art Most focus on the manuscript art of early medieval Ireland and England The first section includes four studies of the Codex Amiatinus produced in Northumbria in the monastic community of Bede The second section contains seven essays on the iconography and text of the Book of Kells In the third section there are five studies of Anglo Saxon Art examined in the context of the Benedictine Reform A concluding essay on the medieval iconography of the two trees in Eden traces the development of a motif from Late Antiquity to the end of the Middle Ages CS1080 Teaching Reading Comprehension with Graphic Texts Katie Monnin, 2013 Today's reading standards require K 12 teachers to teach multi modal texts that combine print and images Teaching Reading Comprehension with Graphic Texts An Illustrated Adventure shows teachers how to read understand and teach the unique vocabulary and anatomy of the graphic text format alongside traditional print based literature and content area selections From the Magdala Stone to the Syriac Bema Rina Talgam, Dina Avshalom Gorni, Arfan Najar, 2024-11-04 This book sheds light on the reciprocal relations between liturgical performance and the physical spaces in which they took place in synagogues and churches in antiquity The kernel of the manuscript revolves around a decorated stone that was found during the excavations of a synagogue dated to the first century CE at Magdala on the shore of the Sea of Galilee The book displays how this important archaeological discovery radically transforms our understanding of the changes in the shape of the liturgical space and the liturgical furniture in the places of assembly of the two sister faiths Judaism and Christianity
