Reading Narrative Fiction:

Literary Fiction Geir Farner, 2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farner systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature Reading Network

Fiction David Ciccoricco, 2007-11-25 Ciccoricco analyzes innovative developments in network fiction from first generation writers Michael Joyce Twilight a symphony 1997 and Stuart Moulthrop Victory Garden 1991 through Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter 2000 an acclaimed example of digital literature in its latter instantiations on the Web Each investigation demonstrates not only what the digital environment might mean for narrative theory but also the ability of network fictions to sustain a mode of reading that might arguably be called literary BOOK JACKET Reading Science/Fiction Amy C.

Chambers, Lisa Garforth, Miranda Jeanne Marie Iossifidis, Joanna Verran, 2025-09-30 This book explores the relationship between reading science in fiction and engaging with science Focusing on embodied readers and empirical approaches to fiction reading the authors examine contemporary social cultural biographical and political contexts in which science fictions come to matter Drawing together a distinctive set of research studies and conceptual resources the book outlines theories epistemologies and methodologies for understanding how and why we read science fictions and fictions about science An Introduction to Narratology , Why We Read Fiction Lisa Zunshine, 2006

Why We Read Fiction offers a lucid overview of the most exciting area of research in contemporary cognitive psychology known as Theory of Mind and discusses its implications for literary studies It covers a broad range of fictional narratives from Richardson's Clarissa Dostoyevski's Crime and Punishment and Austen's Pride and Prejudice to Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Nabokov's Lolita and Hammett's The Maltese Falcon Zunshine's surprising new interpretations of well known literary texts and popular cultural representations constantly prod her readers to rethink their own interest in fictional narrative Written for a general audience this study provides a jargon free introduction to the rapidly growing interdisciplinary field known as cognitive approaches to literature and culture

Empathy and the Strangeness of Fiction Maria C. Scott, 2020-03-02 Explores how and why narrative fiction engages empathy including Theory of Mind Offers a broad overview of current scientific work on the effects of fiction reading on empathy including Theory of Mind Provides an original intervention in the field of literary theory centring on the reflexive properties of the fictional stranger Includes stand alone close readings of three novels by important French authors This book studies recent psychological findings which suggest that reading fiction cultivates empathy encouraging us to be critically reflective suspicious readers as well as participatory nave readers Scott draws on literary theory and close readings to argue that engagement with fictional stories also teaches us to resist uncritical forms of empathy and reminds us of the limitations of our ability to understand other people The book treats figures of the stranger in Balzac s La Fille aux yeux d or Stendhal s Le Rouge et le Noir and Sand s Indiana as emblematic of the strangeness of narrative fiction both drawing us in and keeping us at a distance Experimental Approaches to Pragmatics Valentina Cuccio,Pietro Robert Perconti, Gerard Steen, Yury Y.

Self-Reflective Fiction and 4E Cognition Merja Polvinen, 2022-12-30 This book brings together the study of self reflective fiction and the contemporary 4E theories of cognition in order to challenge existing cognitive theoretical models and approaches to literary phenomena Polvinen presents reflective attention on artifice as an integral part of engagement with fictional narratives rather than as an external viewpoint that would obscure immersive experiences The detailed analyses included are both of traditionally metafictional texts by John Barth A S Byatt Dave Eggers and Ali Smith as well as of speculative fictions by Ted Chiang China Mi ville Christopher Priest and Catherynne M Valente Each of the chapters focuses on a specific issue of fictional cognition on metaphorical representation spatiality temporality and fictionality As a whole the book argues that by combining a literary and theoretically complex view of artifice with the enactive paradigm of perception and imagination practitioners of cognitive literary studies can further sharpen their own conceptual and terminological apparatus and continue to generate fruitful hermeneutic circulation around the study of the imagination in both the sciences and the humanities This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in cognitive approaches to literary studies speculative fiction metafiction and narrative studies Rhetorical Narratology Michael S. Kearns, 1999-01-01 In

Rhetorical Narratology Michael Kearns redresses this one sidedness by combining traditional narratology s tools for analyzing texts with rhetoric s tools for analyzing audiences Guiding Kearns s approach is speech act theory which in emphasizing the rule governed context in which any text is produced and received provides the means for describing how the structures of narrative may affect certain audiences in certain ways The central question that rhetorical narratology attempts to answer is how do the various narrative elements isolated by narratologists actually work on readers BOOK JACKET
